SWEDISH CO-OPERATIVE STORE. A meeting will be held Tuesday evening Nov. 13 to organize a Swedish Co-operative store in this place. Judge Olin R. Wood is preparing the legal papers. It will be a joint stock corporation, and in all human probability, Aaron Johnson, late with W. H. Cheney's Sons and later with C. D. Strickland & Son, will be chosen as manager.

STEREOPTION OF ANTIETAM. Arrangements are being made by Drake Post, No. 4, G. A. R. to have a stereopticon entertainment for three nights in Cheney Hall, illustrating the three days engagement at the battle of Antietam, and the man who acts as guide to tourists at the battlefield, will be on hand to explain the views. Full particulars as to dates etc. will appear later.

RASPBERRIES IN NOVEMBER. We were presented with a sample of red raspberries that had been picked in John Loomis's garden, Saturday, November 3, 1894. They were finely flavored, bright, luscious and pretty, and in every way as desirable as though they were gathered in mid-summer. Mr. Loomis said that the bush had been in bearing all fall, and it certainly made an unusual record.

CHRYSANTHEMUM SHOW. There will be a special meeting of Manchester Grange No. 31 at the residence of Albert F. Bidwell, Saturday evening November 10. The grange voted, last Wednesday evening, to hold a chrysanthemum show in Cheney Hall, November 14 and 15, and this special meeting is called to perfect arrangements. A full attendance is requested.

AN EARLY SNOW STORM. An unexpected snow storm descended upon us last Monday night, covering the ground to the depth of about four inches. Rain had been falling more or less all day and about 8 o'clock in the evening turned to snow. Many of the trees had not parted with their foliage, and on Tuesday morning (election day) the unusual spectacle was witnessed of having trees in full bloom, with snow and ice. In many sheltered places flowers were still in bloom, out of doors.

AT APPEL'S TONIGHT. "Enemies For Life," a thrilling realistic melodrama will be presented at Appel's opera house tonight, with the powerful emotional actress Miss Joan Cravan in the title role, supported by a well selected company of clever artists. The play is of a very sensational and emotional character, introducing special scenery and mechanical effects that are startling and realistic. There are also a number of very pleasing specialties in music and the like, that combine to produce a play of much more than ordinary merit.

TO ACCOMMODATE THE PUBLIC. George F. Day is arranging to erect a horse-shed, some 25 x 40 feet, at his carriage repository on Charter Oak street, same to be devoted to the public use, free of charge.

The idea is that, in the near future, the electric cars will be running here, and many persons from the outlying districts will want to drive in so far, leave their horses where they will be comparatively safe and comfortable, and not likely to be frightened by the electric cars, and then get aboard themselves and go wherever they choose along the route.

NOTICE. During the months of November, December and January, Miss Sault will call upon her patrons in South Manchester and Manchester for subscriptions to Harpers, Century, St. Nicholas, Scribner's, North American Review, Forum, Munsey's, Cosmopolitan and Ladies Home Journal. Those who find it inconvenient may leave their subscriptions at Dr. W. R. Thiker's, corner of Park and Main streets.

AFTER THE DEPUTYSHIP.

A triangular contest is now on for the position of deputy sheriff here.

THE CONTESTANTS ARE CAPTAIN A. B. KEENEY, GEORGE H. HALL, AND FRED B. HALL.

There is as strong and well developed an opposition to the appointment of Mr. Hall to this office, as there was to that of making him constable, as shown in the recent republican caucus.

That it has strength and staying qualities is strongly in evidence.

On the other hand Mr. Hall has a strong backing of supporters, mainly from over north, and these are equally fervent in their claims for their favorite for the office.

Mr. Hale too, has entered the race, and it remains to be seen what strength he will develop.

Although the appointment is quite recent, still the preliminary work incident thereto is an active reality of the present hour and its progress will be watched with keen interest.

NEARLY COKED TO DEATH. Little Charlie Ferris, youngest son of W. S. Ferris was eating a piece of sticky-candy in Ferris Brothers store last Wednesday evening, when it slipped down his throat, got crosswise and came near choking the little fellow to death.

His father was close by and, seeing the danger, ran his finger down the throat and pulled the obstruction out, the sharp ends of the candy lacerating the child's throat and causing it to bleed profusely.

This prompt work saved the boy's life. The ladies of the family were very much frightened. Healing lotions were applied and the little fellow is coming around all right, but his throat is very sore.

His eyes were protruding, and he was in frightful distress until the candy was removed. It was a close call.

"AFTER THE BALL IS OVER."

Official Score Thomas Connelly furnishes The News with the following condensed record of the work done by the South Manchester Base Ball Club during the season of 1894, which will run to the 15th of this month.

The contestants are Captain A. B. Keeney, George H. Hall, and Fred B. Hall.

Friends of clubs are actively at work seeking signatures to petitions asking for the appointment.

There is as strong and well developed an opposition to the appointment of Mr. Hall to this office, as there was to that of making him constable, as shown in the recent republican caucus.

TOWN NEWS.

It would seem that election had stimulated business somewhat by the way Ferris Brothers have been bustling for the past two weeks.

O. E. Mannell has reduced the cash price of shirts and short slacks to 10 cents a pound, and will give it every day in the week for spot cash, at the market.

Mr. and Mrs. James M. Chapman of 30 East Center street, are receiving congratulations on the arrival of their first born, a daughter, who put in an appearance last Monday.

Some 24 of the young ladies who have been teaching in the sixth district school for some time past, will return to the Normal training school at New Britain today, and on Monday next a new corps will take their places.

Clarence Hastings has been informed that the merry go round people will not go to Mexico this winter.

The largest audience that has attended the evangelistic services conducted by Rev. C. A. Brown in The Armory, was present last Sunday evening.

Captain Lindsay of the Salvation Army here will spend Sunday next in Middletown, where he was formerly stationed, and Ensign and Mrs. Leonard will conduct the services here Saturday and Sunday.

The highly realistic and intensely interesting melodrama "Euneces For Life" was well presented in Apell's opera house last Friday evening.

Manager Watkins has booked Charles Frohman's "Jane" company for a performance at The Armory Tuesday evening Dec 4.

Mrs. P. A. Brink went to Mill Plain, N. Y. last Monday to attend the funeral of C. A. Johnson, her brother-in-law and formerly a resident of this place.

John D. Gallup of 24 North Main street, died of diabetes Sunday morning, Nov. 11, in his 52nd year.

Mrs. Clark accompanied her husband in his recent travels, and in the new book "Our Journey Around the World," she tells of life among the women in far off lands.

Mrs. Clark accompanied her husband in his recent travels, and in the new book "Our Journey Around the World," she tells of life among the women in far off lands.

NOTICE - The person who recently carried off some clothing etc. from number 17 Cottage street, is well known, and had better return same at once in order to avoid serious trouble.

CURRAN-ROEMERT. James W. Curran of Hartford, and Miss Clara Roemert, daughter of Julius Roemert, one of our local barbers, will be married at the residence of the bride, Wednesday Nov. 21.

NO CHRYSANTHEMUM SHOW. After looking the field over carefully last Saturday evening, and consulting together at the special meeting held at Albert F. Bidwell's, Manchester Grange No. 31 decided to abandon the project of holding the chrysanthemum show in Cheney hall this week Wednesday and Thursday, as previously announced.

FOOT BALL. The postponed game of foot ball between the South Manchester and Rockville High School teams will take place tomorrow afternoon at 3.30 o'clock on the lot opposite E. M. Ely's store, 87 Main street, corner of Mt. Nebo avenue, Admission 15 cents.

HAND CAUGHT IN GEARS.

George England got his hand caught in the gears at Case's mill in Chaplin last week and had to have one of his fingers taken off. There is also a likelihood that he may yet lose another finger.

Revival services are being held each night in the South M. E. church, and are attracting a considerable amount of interest.

Greenleaf Kenney, who is 82 years of age, was converted last Saturday and on Sunday was admitted as a probationer.

Meetings are held each evening beginning at 7.30. There will be no meeting in the church tomorrow (Saturday) evening.

PECK'S BAD BOY. The attraction at Apell's opera house for Thursday evening Nov. 22, will be Peck's Bad Boy.

A GOOD START. The prospects of better times, now that the election is over, are hailed with delight, and although winter has visited us much earlier this year than usual, and the outlook for a long siege of frost and snow seems very promising, still the return of more full employment, the attendant increase in money among the mill operatives and the promise of generally prosperous conditions all over the country are very cheering, and tend to stimulate operatives and merchants alike, and make all feel happier and more hopeful.

GUSTAVUS ADOLPHUS. The three-hundredth anniversary of the birth of Gustavus Adolphus will be celebrated in the Swedish Lutheran church here Monday evening Dec. 10.

Rev. Konrad Broberg of Hartford, Conn., will be the orator of the evening. He is a highly educated gentleman, a very fluent speaker, and the son of a Swedish minister. His oration promises to be very instructive and interesting.

December 9th is the real anniversary day, but as that falls on Sunday this year, the 10th is chosen instead, for the celebration.

HITCH YOUR HORSES. A team was left unhitched in Ferris Brothers' shed last week, while the driver went away for the matter of waiting, he started to leave, and in doing so, managed to interfere more or less with the shrubbery etc. in the yard.

This shed is quite central and Ferris Brothers do not mind accommodating, but word should be left in the store, or else horses should be hitched, or both. In the case cited above, neither was done.

AMARYLLIS WHIST CLUB. The newly organized Amaryllis Whist Club met with Miss Lizzie Sullivan on Maple street last Wednesday evening and had a most enjoyable time.

A nice collation was served and every thing passed off "as merry as marriage bell."

Thomas McDonough and Miss Etta Moriam were the first prizes, which consisted of a handsome pack of cards and a tortoise shell hair pin, respectively.

A club pin of sterling silver, and representing the Amaryllis flower is being made, and red has been adopted as a club color. Each member will have a pin and badge.

Four new names for membership have been received. A monthly fee of 25 cents is charged and this goes to buy the prizes.

Meetings are held at the residence of members and all bring refreshments in along each time. The next meeting will be with Miss Maria Magnell, Tuesday evening Nov. 27.
