TOWN NEWS.

They have a very pretty line of Knit goods for babies at the Manchester Millinery and Fancy Goods Store on Depot Square. It will pay you to see them. They make a specialty of these goods and have a fine display.

It is expected that John P. Smith will open his new drug store on Depot Square next week. The painters are finishing up the decorations and the bottles and stock are now being placed in position.

George F. Day has been in the grocery and general merchandise business in this town for the past twenty years, and reports having had the largest Thanksgiving trade this season he ever enjoyed. This is good news.

The regular meeting of the Y. W. C. T. U. will be held at the home of Mrs. F. B. Barber, Monday evening, Dec. 3. A large attendance is requested, as there is important business to be transacted.

The foundation for the new car house and offices of the tramway company is about ready and as soon as the timbers etc. arrive, George M. Barber will put a gang of carpenters at work erecting the building.

T. P. Aitkin bought a piece of land for Mrs. Mary Ershaw, from the McCaffrey estate on Woodland street near Main, and Mrs. Ershaw intends to erect a residence there next Spring.

The Crescent social club gave a private social in Woodbridge hall Thanksgiving night. Some fifty couples were present. Admission was on invitation only. Paxon's orchestra furnished music.

Clinton E. Buck and Miss Grace N. Weir were united in marriage last Tuesday evening at the residence of John W. Gilman, 348 Main street. Sherman Duck was best man and Miss Sadie Weir was bridesmaid.

The newly elected officers of the Manchester Christian Endeavor Society are as follows: Herbert B. Fitch, president; Mrs. G. M. Griswold, vice president; Emily Turnbull, recording secretary; and John McMenemy, treasurer.

The silver jubilee fair of St. Bridget's church is in progress in Bissell's hall this week. The probabilities are that it will close Saturday evening. A strong effort is being made by the pastor, Rev. R. C. O'Connell, to clear off the debt of $1,500 that rests on the parish property.

Some departments of the silk mills closed down Wednesday evening, and will not start up again until Monday December 3. These branches were employed last Saturday and Monday, so that the net result to the help will be about the same.

Dr. John Weldon, who had just recovered from a severe spell of sickness when his wife took sick and died, in Williamstown, is now spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Weldon on Tolland Turnpike, trying to recuperate.

The New Britain Bee celebrated its eighth anniversary last week with a large Thanksgiving number set in green covers. Outside of the covers in this issue, there is nothing particularly green about the Bee or its widely awake editor, T. S. Sneath.

The King's Daughters will hold a sale of fancy articles and entertainment in the North Congregational church, Wednesday evening, Dec. 5. Refreshments will be served. Proceeds for benefit of a public library. All are cordially invited to take hold and help along the good work.

Battling for turkeys was all the go here on Thanksgiving Eve. Persons could be seen on the streets, from 8 o'clock on, going in all directions with turkeys under their arms and their faces wreathed in smiles, because of their good luck. An unusually large number of birds was disposed of in this way.

Misses Esther and Ruth Vikberg will go to Norwich tomorrow to take part in the dedication of a new Swedish Lutheran church there and will be joined by Prof. N. E. Kron and Rev. G. Forsberg in a quartet that will sing at the dedicatory exercises there Saturday and Sunday.

A pleasing evidence of returning prosperity hereabouts may be noted in the great increase of weddings at this time. Although winter is coming on, the young hearts are courageous enough to unite their destinies "for better or for worse," something that most of them feared to undertake for many months past.

"Our Journey Around The World" contains 200 fine illustrations from photographs from life, that are of unusual artistic excellence and give one an accurate idea of some of the many curious sights met by Dr. and Mrs. Fessenden K. Clark, their own recital of which is highly pleasing and instructive. The book is now being introduced here.

The OUTDOOR WORLD contains "a world of pleasure and instruction. Nature's ways are indeed wonderful but to say they are unexplored by the greater part of mankind. A valuable aid in opening the door to this wonderful world is THE OUTDOOR WORLD, Portland, Conn. Send five cents for a sample copy, or fifty cents for a year. Give it a fair trial.

George F. Day, 47-51 Charter Oak street, is having a grand run on these Fair Haven covers. They are also. Try them.

NICHOLSON-McCANN.

Thomas Nicholson and Miss Minnie McCann will remember this Thanksgiving very pleasantly, as they were united in marriage by Rev. J. A. Biddle at 3 1/2 p. m. on Thanksgiving Eve, the ceremony taking place at the residence of Abram McCann, 23 Wells street.

ATTENTION A. O. H. Under the newly revised constitution of the A. O. H., the annual meeting for election of officers will take place Tuesday, Dec. 11. It was the custom heretofore to elect officers in May or June, but the new law goes into effect this year. Members will take due notice thereof and govern themselves accordingly. The installation will occur in January.

RESIDING ELDER TIRRELL HERE. Presiding Elder Tirrell took part in the revival services in the South Methodist church last Sunday, gave some very pleasing reminiscences of his early conversion at the age of eleven and a half years and urged all young people to remember their Creator in the days of their youth. The meeting was a very interesting one, and about 150 persons assembled around the altar and enjoyed a season of prayer.

NO CHANGE OF MANAGEMENT. Under the new arrangement regarding the manufacture of government envelopes at Hartford, M. S. Chapman holds complete power of attorney for Contractor Furwell, under whose name the work will be done, but who will have no voice in its management. Mr. Chapman remaining as superintendent for four years more, with full control as in the past.

GRAND BALL COMING. Plans are being made to make the coming annual ball of Company G, one of the most swell affairs that the boys have ever given. Cole's full orchestra, from Hartford, will be secured to furnish music, and all the arrangements will be executed on a similar scale. It is expected to hold the ball about the middle of January.

THE BATTLE OF GETTYSBURG. It is expected that Cheney Hall will be well filled on the evenings of Dec. 10, 11 and 12, when Luther W. Minnich will deliver his three illustrated lectures on the three day's fight at Gettysburg. Tickets are on sale at C. Tiffany's Organ, to clear off the debt of $1,500 that rests on the parish property.

JOHNSON-JACOBSON. Fritz H. Johnson and Miss Hanna J. Jacobson were united in marriage by Rev. A. G. Olson last Saturday evening, the ceremony taking place at the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. Ferdinand Swartz, 3 Sunset avenue. A wedding reception followed and a picnic and evening party were given.

The bridesmaids were, Misses Ann Rydin, Thekla Peterson, Almira Theodor Anderson, Charles Anderson, Thure Sundgren.

THE O'MAHONEY CLUB. The O'Mahoney club met at the residence of Michael Foley, 7 Summer street, to commemorate the anniversary of the execution of Allen, Larkin and O'Brien at Manchester, England. M. A. Moriarty, Dennis Brassill and Patrick Madden constituted the committee of arrangements. M. Moriarty was the presiding officer of the evening. Patriotic addresses were made by members of the club and a collation was served.

LOCAL TALENT IN NEW BRITAIN. Esther, Ruth and Paul Vikberg and Ingenior Sam Lagerlof sang as a quartet at the Swedish Lutheran fair in New Britain Thanksgiving afternoon and evening, and Miss Esther Vikberg and Mr. Lagerlof took part in an elocutionary contest, as delegates from the "So-ciety Idm". Miss Vikberg recited "Kungens Jagt" and Mr. Lagerlof "Struck vid Svarstolen".

FOR SHAME. Some miscreant invaded Mrs. Rose Hutchins' chicken coop last Tuesday night and stole all her chickens. It is to be said that any person who herabouts should be so lost to manhood, shame and decency as to plunder a hard working, industrious, respectable widow of the food she had provided for her own table. She is driving hard, by honest toil and careful management, to bring up her family decently and respectably, and surely the thief might have found some other victim for his pilferings, if steel he must.

A well made, neat fitting, nice looking and serviceable suit of clothes can be procured at Peter McFarlane's for a very reasonable price of money. These are good strong points and worthy of your serious consideration. Go there and be convinced.

It was a rare treat. Quite a number of people attended the lecture delivered in the South M. E. church last Sunday evening by Madam Laylak Bakara, the Syrian, and those who were not present missed a rare treat.

She is certainly a talented woman, she had something to say, she knew how to say it, and there was no mistaking of matters about it either, and no likelihood of anyone misunderstanding her meaning.

All who heard the address owe a debt of gratitude to the W. C. T. U. for bringing this woman here, as her lecture was very instructive as well as entertaining and gave light on the subject that they are not familiar with.

WORKMEN NOMINATE. Manchester Lodge No. 16, A. O. U. W. met last Wednesday evening in Patten & Brown's hall and made the following nominations:

NORTH M. E. CHURCH NOTES. Six persons united on probation last Sunday, and one by letter.

The new book "Songs Of The South" taken by.

An entertainment and supper will be given by the Sunday School, Wednesday evening Dec. 12, for the benefit of the church.

Rev. and Mrs. J. Tregaskis dined with Rev. and Mrs. N. F. Colver and wife on Thanksgiving Day.

A Sunday school conference was held in the church Tuesday evening last at which Sunday school work was discussed in a general way, and Rev. C. H. Smith of Hartford and Rev. J. H. Robinson of Andover, each delivered addresses.

The Sunday school will have a pop corn sale and orange tea with a literary and musical entertainment Wednesday evening Dec. 12.

The pop corn to be sold is the product of twenty five kernels given each scholar at plant last spring. Proceeds will be used for the benefit of the church.

IT MAY DO AS MUCH FOR YOU. Mr. Fred Miller, of Irving, Ill., writes that he had a severe kidney trouble for many years, with severe pains in his back and also that his bladder was affected. He tried many so called kidney cures but without any good result.

About a year ago he began to use Electric Bitters and found relief at once. Electric Bitters is especially adapted to the cure of all kidney and liver troubles and often gives instant relief. One trial will prove our statement. Price only 50c for large bottle. At Cheney's Drug Store.

DO YOU ENJOY GOING TO A CIRCUS? Of course you do. Every healthy child, old or young, enjoys seeing the animals and the feats of the well known circus.

You do know how to have a "perpetual circus," thousands of "animals,"—keeping finding new ones,—queer antics and curiosities never ending or tiring, and endless interesting observations? There's a whole menagerie, and the queerest acrobatic feats you ever saw, with most marvelous curiosities, right at your own doorway, field, farm, forest, pond, etc. Parents and children will enjoy them.

THE OUTDOOR WORLD, Portland, Conn., will keep your "Open" in a most fascinating manner. Send five cents for sample copy.

KNIGHTS OF THE MACCABEES. The State Commander writes us from Lincoln, Neb., as follows: "After trying other medicines for what seemed to be very obstinate cough in our two children we tried Dr. King's New Discovery and at the end of two days the cough entirely left them. We will not be without it hereafter, as our experience proves that it cures where all remedies fail."

Signed F. W. Stevens, State Com.—Why not give this great medicine a trial, as it is guaranteed and trial bottles are sent by Cheney's Drug Store. Regular size 50c and $1.00.

READ THIS OFFER. J. L. Jansson, our well known school street photographer, says that he is prepared to give the same grade cabinet for $2.00 that he has been giving for $3.00. The offer is for a number of years in the old Amion drug store, Wetherfield and lately with the Park Drug Co., Hartford. His goods are all new, of full strength and good quality, and his prices are as sharp as the public patronage. His advertisement appears in another column.

Live while you live. Get all legitimate pleasure you can. This is a beautiful world. Don't miss a large part of the pleasure by going through life blindfolded, as many people do. The outdoor world is poetic, pleasing, instructive, so THE OUTDOOR WORLD (an illustrated magazine), Portland, Conn., fifty cents for a year's subscription.

A well made, neat fitting, new looking and serviceable suit of clothes can be procured at Peter McFarlane's for a very reasonable sum of money. These are good strong points and worthy of your serious consideration. Go there and be convinced.
