TOWN NEWS.

One of N. T. Puffer's handsome hackney colts got out last Sunday and scrambling around on the frozen snow, fell and cut a long gash on his shoulder. A veterinary surgeon was brought out to sew up the wound.

Some thirty young people assembled at the residence of Alexander Trotter last Monday evening and enjoyed a New Year's party. Music, singing, dancing, a beautiful collation and merry social intercourse made up of the festivities of the evening, which were heartily enjoyed by all. They welcomed the new year in merry mood.

John McCann, Jr. and Miss Annie Kerr were united in marriage last Saturday evening. It was a complete surprise to their friends and was entirely informal. Mrs. McCann returned to her work in Steinway, and after a few weeks will return and take up house keeping here. Rev. J. A. Bidde, performed the ceremony.

Misses Nellie and Katie Moriarty and Eugene McDonough, were the guests of the Amyrills whist club at the meeting with Miss Margaret Moriarty on Pine street, last week. The club will next meet at the residence of Wm M. Keating, Wednesday evening January 9.

The new year was ushered in with a delightful winter weather. Clear, cold, no wind, good sleighing, skating and coasting, full of sunshine, bracing and health giving air. It was a model winter day, a glad harbinger, let us hope, of a happy and prosperous new year.

Miss Eva Marshall of Hartford, while visiting with Miss Grace Watkins this week had the misfortune to have her thigh broken by being thrown against a tree while coasting. The accident occurred near the Watkins home. The young lady was taken to her home in the city.

Johanne Bedd of South Glastonbury died in the Hartford hospital of typhoid fever last Sunday, and two of his sisters, Fannie and Katie, are scarcely expected to live, at this writing. The four remaining sisters are in the hospital. Johanne's remains were taken to Middletown for burial, in the family plot.

In a runaway last Monday evening a horse belonging to Robert Humford had the shaft of a sleigh driven in through his breast to the length of three feet. The horse that did the mischief belonged to Henry Forbes and had been hired by Daniel Curran and Joseph McGowan, who he got away, and crashed into the other sleigh with the above result. The horse had to be killed. The Forbes horse was unharmed, but the sleigh was demolished.

Photographer Frank L. Hale and Miss Hattie Skinner were united in marriage by Rev. James Tregaskia, pastor of the North M. E. church, Wednesday January 2, 1895.

Wesley D. Porter and Miss Ora A. Capen were united in marriage Wednesday evening last. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride on Wells street. Rev. Julian S. Wadsworth officiated. A number of relatives and friends were present, and a pleasant home wedding was enjoyed.

CLEARED SIXTY DOLLARS. The series of lectures on Gutzburg given in Cheney hall recently, under the auspices of Drake Post No. 4 G. A. R. by Guide Luther P. Minnigh, added $60 to the Post's funds, after defraying all costs. Individual members of the Post met with a ready sale for the tickets and thus insured the above result.

Remember that Professor Winchester's next lecture will take place in Cheney hall Thursday evening January 10, 1895, and that his subject will be "Hannibal." Any person who is an admirer of the work of the great post cannot afford to miss these lectures. They are a great intellectual treat. Single admissions are 50 cents. "Antony and Cleopatra" and "A Winter's Tale" will follow next in order.

GEORGE F. DAY'S FATHER DEAD. Joseph Day, father of George F. Day our well known Charter Oak street merchant, died at his home in Montague, Mass. last Sunday morning, in his 86th year. He was buried on Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. George F. Day attended the funeral. He leaves a widow, three sons and one daughter.

FIFTH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY. The Swedish Lutheran church choir and a number of relatives and friends assembled at the residence of Gustav and Mrs. Bonham, 5 Sunset avenue, recently and celebrated the fifth anniversary of their marriage. Professor Ross of New Haven was present, and a delightful time was enjoyed. Congratulations were expressed and music and song and a beautiful collation were among the attractions.

Diaries, almanacs and calendars for 1895, Cheney's Sons. Florida oranges and peaches at B. F. Hall's.

BUCK-WEIR.

Sherman Buck and Miss Sallie Weir were married on Christmas eve by Rev. Julian S. Wadsworth. The ceremony took place in the parsonage. Clinton and Mrs. Buck, who were married at Thanksgiving and are sister and brother to the bride and groom, respectively, were witnesses at the ceremony. The wedding party repaired to B. F. Ball's where a wedding supper was served. Mrs. Ball is Mr. Buck's sister. The newly wedded couple are residing in their own house at Highland Park.

WILL REPEAT THE PERFORMANCE.

The entertainment given in Cheney hall last week, for the Sunday school children of St. Mary's church is to be repeated tomorrow evening, and a small admission fee will be charged.

The hall was filled at the first performance, which was so pleasing and satisfactory, that requests have been made for its repetition, so as to give others an opportunity to see it. It will also help to raise funds for the new parish house which is to be built as soon as possible.

DIED AT 97.

Mrs. Anna Wells died in Bolton Jan. 1, 1895 at the ripe old age of 97. She had a fit the day previous, but rallied from it and went to bed apparently all right and never arose. She slept the sleep of death. Her remains were taken to Marlborough yesterday for burial. She resided with her son Cortland Finley. He was also the mother of Mrs. H. L. Shurtliff, Mrs. Geo. W. Bidwell and Carter Finley.

VAN BLARCOM-FALLOW.

An informal wedding took place at the residence of James S. Fallow, 63 Main street on New Year's day. The contracting parties were, Miss Jennie Fallow and Samuel Van Blarcom. Rev. James Tregaskia performed the ceremony. George Fallow was best man and Miss Mamie Bidwell bridesmaid. A wedding feast was served and with the warmest congratulations of all the bride couple took their departure for Paterson, N. J., where they will take up their abode.

ASSIGNED TO WILLMANTIC.

Father Magneil was officially notified by Rev. D. A. Haggerty, of Cheney evening, that he had been appointed to serve as curate to Father DeBruycker of Willmantic and he left here yesterday, leaving the best wishes of a host of admiring friends, to sleep upon his new duties.

He is delighted with the appointment, as it is near home, he is personally acquainted with the pastor, and the place is of a suitable size to give him a fair opportunity to get hold of the details of the practical part of the ministry.

IT WAS A GOOD PLAY.

Dan McCarthy and a good company presented "The Bride of May" in Apell's opera house on New Year's afternoon and evening, and gave a performance that is spoken of very highly by those who witnessed it.

The matinee did not bring out many people, but the evening performance attracted a very fair sized audience who came away well pleased with the entertainment.

"WATCH NIGHT SERVICES."

It is estimated that the "Watch Night services" in the South Methodist church were nearly 50 well attended as this year. The bell sounded the call at 8:45 p. m., and the services lasted through until after the birth of the new year which was awaited for five minutes before and past the event in breathless silence. A pin could have been heard drop in any part of the room.

A deep interest was manifested in the service throughout, which were pleasingly varied and appropriate to the solemnity of the occasion.

PATRICK McEVITT DEAD.

A telegraphic dispatch informed Joseph McEvitt last Thursday, that his brother Patrick, had died in Clyde, N. Y., and was buried.

He was 36 years of age, was single and had traveled quite a considerable. He had been in California twice and once in Australia. He was very skillful with horses and followed that business most of the time. He formerly resided here.

No further particulars of his death have been received up to this writing. Mr. McEvitt had no knowledge of his brother's illness and was greatly shocked by the sad news.

TOWN NEWS.

ELLERY DUTTON SURPRISED.

A jolly party of knights and ladies of the Golden Cross left Ferris Bros. store at 6.45 on Wednesday evening, for the home of Sir Knight Ellery Dutton in East Glastonbury.

When the teams all drove into Mr. Dutton's yard and cheering was commenced, he opened the door, and to his surprise and astonishment, began to look like that there was something up.

He took hold as one began to bow and he and his men rallied to the scene and helped.

The organ, sewing machine, sofa and parlor stove were dined. Luckily the wind blew from the northwest and that saved the shed and barn, which stood close to and on the northeast side of the house.

Arrangements had been made for some extra fine singing by the well known male quartet, but as there were but two of the singers present, viz: George D. Keith and George Davidson, this part of the program had to be omitted.

A very pretty part of the program was the singing of "Where is my Wand'ring Boy Tonight" by W. E. Keith, E. T. Ferris, W. B. Ferris, Paul Douglas and George Davidson.

Mrs. Maria R. Fugals sang a nice solo and took part in duets, choruses, etc. and with music sang and by others and games by all, a delightful time was enjoyed.

During the course of the evening Mr. Dutton was taken into another room, blindfolded, and after a short time he was released, he supposed a new game was being played, and was seated in the new room, and when he was "restored to sight", the first object his eyes fell upon was Sir Knight Geo. D. Keith standing before him, making a presentation speech, which he did very nicely and presented Mr. Dutton, on behalf of the Commandery, with the chair on which he was seated.

Mr. Dutton was greatly surprised at this, for he supposed he was seated in one of the regular home chairs, but on recovering from his astonishment, he accepted the gift with a most acknowledging speech of thanks, then all were invited to the dining room where a beautiful feast was spread, but the party was so large that two sittings had to be made.

At the second table there was lots of sport, for Will, was in constant trouble, having passed put in his coffee, salt in cake etc. and he thinks it was a put up job by Mr. Keith to have him placed at the table between two ladies, but Will believes he got even with him, going and returning in the bus, for he was older getting Mr. Keith's robe, hat, pants, only, handkerchief or something, and making lots of sport for all hands.

After some more talk, singing, smoking etc., the party left, well pleased with the night's enjoyment and

TOWN NEWS.

The wet snow that fell Tuesday evening, clung to the trees more or less all day Wednesday and presented quite a handsome and fairy like spectacle. The sun burst through the fog and clouds in the afternoon, thus enhancing the beauty of the spectacle.

At a meeting held in the Cheney building last Saturday evening the South Manchester Wheel club voted to disband for the winter at least. The attendance has been rather light of late and the running expenses had to be met, if they kept up the organization, so they chose to give it up for the present.

Owing to the stormy weather last evening Professor Winchester's lecture on "Hamlet" was rightly attended. It was a delightful character study of Hamlet himself. "Antony and Cleopatra" will be considered next Thursday evening. Admission 50 cents. It is well worth it.

Advertised Letters, Manchester, Conn. Jan. 10, 1895. Mrs. A. J. Morton, L. L. Monroe, C. D. McDuffie, Mrs. Josephine Raymond, F. L. Sprague. CHARLES I. DALCH, P. M.

DAUGHTERS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION.

Mrs. De B. Randolph Keim, State Regent of Conn., would like to meet all ladies interested in the organization at Cheney hall, Friday Jan. 11, at 3 o'clock. It is hoped that a Chapter will soon be formed, as several ladies have expressed their desire to join, but whether eligible or not, all are cordially invited to hear Mrs. Keim open this subject.

TO BE MARRIED SOON. We learn that the banns of marriage are to be announced for the first time next Sunday in St. Bridget's church, by Rev. E. G. Stockman, our energetic young pastor, who has just opened a tailor shop in Bissell's block, and Miss Rebecca Murphy of 77 North School street, daughter of John S. Murphy. There will be three announcements and then the marriage will take place.

AT WORK AGAIN. Charles S. Nyquist, who, it will be remembered, had both of his arms broken in a runaway accident some two months ago, returned to his work in the silk mill last Tuesday. He has had a hard time of it all winter, and his friends rejoice that he is able to resume his duties once more.

AMARYLLIS WHIST CLUB. The Amaryllis Whist club met Wednesday evening with Miss Hannah Keating. Several hands of whist were participated in with the result that Wm. Keating and Miss Elizabeth Sullivan were awarded the first prizes, a case and pack of cards and a silver trophy cup. Martin Fenslon and Miss Bridget Hines were awarded with a mirror and cutting iron respectively. Vocal and instrumental music and dancing helped to make the evening a most enjoyable one.

The next meeting will be held at Miss Eva Brasell's on High street Wednesday evening, Jan. 22.

S. OF T. ANNIVERSARY. Howard Taylor, Mrs. Fred Southwick, Thomas Wright, Emma Bartlett, Nellie Applewall, Marshall Avery and Will Taylor were chosen as a committee to make arrangements for the ninth anniversary celebration of South Manchester Division S. of T. which will occur February 11, 1895, and this committee will make a report at the meeting this Friday evening. At the meeting last Friday evening, three candidates were initiated.

In addition to all the officers named above, T. H. Weldon, J. H. Parker, M. S. Bradway and M. S. Chapman were chosen on the board of directors.

If your boy needs a suit of clothes, that are strong, well made and durable go and see what Peter McFarlane can do for you.

A well made, neat fitting, nice looking and serviceable suit of clothes can be procured at Peter McFarlane's for a very reasonable sum of money. These are good strong points and worthy of your serious consideration. Go there and be convinced.

At the annual meeting of the Swedish Lutheran church held last Monday evening, John A. Anderson and Joseph Modin were chosen as deacons. O. Peterson was chosen as clerk. G. Gustafson with drew from the board of trustees, as their time expired and Ernst Lundin and Amanda Friberg were chosen in their stead. Besides those named above, the board of trustees consists of S. E. Johnson, John M. Modin, Carl Kjellson and Nils Anderson. Miss Anna Johnson was elected as organist for another year. Charles A. Peterson as sexton and Aron Johnson, Gustaf Olson and Ernst Hultander as auditing committee. The trustees met on Wednesday evening and organized the board.

THE LADIES IN LUCK. The Ladies of the Macabees scored a great success in their masquerade ball at Ape's opera house last Wednesday evening.

The roof and galleries were packed as they were never packed before and although the dancing was kept up until 1 o'clock in the morning, many did not have an opportunity to get more than two or three dances throughout the whole affair.

The costumes were many, pretty and varied, and the masquers made much merit for themselves as well as for the spectators. Coates' orchestra furnished excellent music and W. P. Smith did the prompting. Refreshments were served, and buses carried patrons to South; after the ball. The Ladies must have enriched their treasury by a handsome sum, and everyone is glad that they did.

ELECTRIC LIGHTS FOR SWEDISH CHURCH. A number of Swedish ladies have been at work for some months past making fancy articles for a contemplated bazaar, and at a meeting recently held it was suggested that they make an effort to furnish electric lights for the Swedish Lutheran church. The suggestion seemed to strike all very favorably, and it was immediately adopted.

They find that they have a number of fancy work articles made, they will sell them at fifty cents each, at a public gathering to be held in the parish room, when a musical and literary entertainment will be given, and a collection service for all of which a small admission fee will be charged.

The estimated cost of putting in the electric lights is about $75, and they feel quite sure that they can conveniently raise this amount in the way named above.

It is expected that the church will be lighted by electricity for the first time on the evening of the entertainment, which will take place about the latter part of next month.

A well made, neat fitting, nice looking and serviceable suit of clothes can be procured at Peter McFarlane's for a very reasonable sum of money. These are good strong points and worthy of your serious consideration. Go there and be convinced.
