TOWN NEWS.

A son was born to Owen and Mrs. Litter of Hartford road yesterday. This is their first born and they will have cause to remember with pleasure the recurrence of Memorial Day. They are receiving congratulations on the happy event.

The date given by the Manchester Times that in April's opera house last evening was well attended and proved a very pleasant event. Coates' orchestra furnished music. J. A. Campbell did the prompting. The band gave an open air concert before the dance began.

Rev. Oliver T. Magnell of Williamstown paid a flying visit to his parents here last Monday night. His pastor left for a tour in Europe last Tuesday, and Father Maggall will be kept busy for two months until Rev. Father De Brucker returns.

P. M. Gorman and Joseph Hayes came home from West Hartford resort last Sunday, where Mr. Gorman has been employed as engineer and Mr. Hayes as teamster. The resort has been drained and the bottom is being cleaned out.

The Tramway company carried some 2500 passengers last Sunday. With more cars, a double track on the bridge road and last but not least a bridge, there is no telling how many would have gone out. There seemed to be no end of pleasure seekers here last Sunday.

Carl Johnson and Annie Johnson will be united in marriage by Rev. W. P. Anderson, in the Swedish Lutheran parsonage tomorrow evening. The young couple live on Linden street. They will have a brief wedding tour. Both are employed in the silk mills here.

The tables are turned again. Tomorrow will be Deputy Sheriff Treat. Mr. Hall has been wearing the jacket "E" for the last four years. "A fair exchange" is said to be "no robbery."

C. Tiffany has had water placed in his residence, up stairs, and now occupies that portion of the house, while John Brightman, Mr. Tiffany's watch repairer, and his family live in the lower part.

Most any trolley car that sweeps in from Hartford on Sundays hereafter, is liable to bring you unexpected guests. There is no better time to visit this pretty village than now. All newcomers are delighted with it.

Nineteen persons were confirmed in St. Mary's church last Sunday by Bishop Williams, who delivered a very nice sermon and the exercises as a whole passed off very pleasantly with all concerned.

Patrick Dougherty, sr., of McKee street, is able to be out of doors a little now, and so some light chores about his garden. He is looking very well indeed considering what he has been through, and shows remarkable vigor.

It is quite the popular thing just now for the girls to take a ride on the trolley cars across town on pay nights, just for a lark. It is bringing a severe strain to bear on the hearts of the conductors, but they will have to stand it or break. The girls must have their fun at all costs.

A new time table is in effect on the South Manchester railroad, as can be seen in another column of this paper, which curtails the service very materially. The following trains from South Manchester have been discontinued: 9:30 a. m., 1:30, and 4:45 p. m. from Manchester; 9:08 a. m., 1:50 and 6:55.

The graduates of the South Manchester High School have organized an alumni association and elected Miss Agnes Henderson, president; Miss Alice Zennaro, vice president; Miss Mary Gray, secretary, and Miss Alice Belcher, treasurer. The association is destined to be a large one in the course of time.

Advertised Letters, Manchester, Ct., May 30, 1895. Thomas Connelly Patrick Denney Mrs. and Miss Gerdon Hall Miss R. M. Hynes John Timney Miss Trinis (dress-maker)

Charles I. Balch, P. M. Messrs Dowe & Trotter have opened a very nice store in the Hunniford building at the Center, where they will carry a full line of groceries, and will also have a team on the road to serve customers. They have fitted up quite a cozy ice cream parlor and have a soda fountain in operation. The store is newly fitted up and looks neat and clean.

A "picked up nine" was sent from here to New Britain last Saturday and played a game of base ball with the New Britains, with the result that at the end of the fifth inning the score stood 33 to 15 against the visitors, who had by then closed that they had had enough of that kind of ball and came quietly marching home.

Tickets are selling rapidly for the production of "Brae, The Poor House Girl" to be given in Cheney hall next Tuesday evening by the children of St. James' church. The little ones are great hunters for selling tickets and they are disposing of the reserved seats at a lively rate. Indications point to a large house.

A supply stand has been erected on Wells street near Main, for filling the street sprinkler. This is a great accommodation as it allows of filling at both ends of the route instead of one as heretofore. When the sprinkler reached Cheney's store formerly and was empty, the driver had to go back to Pine street, near Cheney hall sheds for a new supply.

A Warwick bicycle was found at the post office here last Monday evening at closing up time and was brought in for safe keeping. It was punctured, and the rear tire was in bad shape generally. It was found to be the property of Edward Brink, jr., of 22 Charter Oak street, who had been out riding and left the wheel there.

Rev. J. A. Biddle will read a paper entitled "A Christian Industrial System" before the Hartford Clerics, June 8. Mr. Biddle is deeply interested in this problem, gives it much care and study and is endeavoring to put it into practical application in his own parish, by explaining to his people many ways in which they can by their own efforts, improve their conditions here below.

RECEIVED $3,000. On Monday May 27, 1895, Mrs. Britta Magnell, wife of the late Nils Magnell, received a check for $3,000 from the Hartford Life and Annuity Insurance Company, through the agency of S. F. Brownson of Hartford, the same being the full amount of insurance carried on the life of Nils Magnell.

TOWN NEWS.

The case of Florence A. Mahoney for violation of the license law, was heard in the superior court at Hartford last Tuesday. A fine of $50 and costs were imposed, making the whole $100. As he was not prepared to pay the amount he was taken to the Hartford jail.

The new officers of the eighth school district are: District committee, W. B. Covill, A. L. Brown and H. H. White; clerk and treasurer, Whitmore Emmons; collector, Edward E. Segar. T. P. Altick refused to serve longer on the district committee. Edward E. Segar succeeds Sylvester Skinner as collector.

The many friends of Mrs. Samuel Van Blarcom, formerly Miss Jennie Fallows of 63 Main street, will be grieved to learn that her husband died in Paterson, N. J. last week, and was buried last Sunday. They were married here on New Year's Day, and Mr. Van Blarcom had been ill most of the time since. He was but 22 years of age. Mrs. Van Blarcom is early left a widow.

The three night festival and entertainment in aid of St. Bridget's church will open in Apple's opera house Friday evening June 14 and continue on the evenings of Saturday and Monday following. Musical and literary entertainments will be given each evening by local talent and dancing will follow. A very pleasant social time is anticipated.

The St. James T. A. Society made choice of the following officers last evening. President, John Mahoney; vice president, Wm Taylor; recording secretary, C. Foley; financial secretary, James Roach; treasurer, Rev. D. A. Hanger; standing committee, Lot Lahey, Wm Tanner, P. J. Ryan.

Trent have been rather scarce in this locality recently and fishermen have had to abbreviate their stories accordingly, but Phil Taylor secured a speckled beauty this week that weighed eighteen ounces and was one of the handsomest trout captured heretofore for song time.

Advertised Letters, South Manchester, Conn. June 25, 1895. Mrs. E. C. Cook. Mrs. Cora Dion. Mrs. John Robinson. Mrs. B. C. Seranton. Mrs. Farnk Boles. Mrs. John Eneman. Jerry Dwyer.

ROLAND M. ROOD, P. M. Anthony Cunningham's perjury case was tried in the superior court at Hartford last Tuesday. He testified under oath before the board of registers here last fall, that he had never been convicted of theft in the state of Massachusetts, and it was shown in court that he had been convicted for stealing cookies from a baker's wagon there. He was sentenced to two months in jail.

The "Terpsichorean Club" gave a private social in Oxford hall last Wednesday evening. It was a select, but informal affair, and very pleasant. Keating's orchestra furnished music. Most of the numbers were round dances. A few dances were interspersed for the benefit of those who were partial to square dances. Admission was on invitation only.

RAISING UP THE WALK. Cheney Brothers have raised the curb along the Main street side of the Methodist church property, and are filling in the walk with gravel from the Teachers hall south. Later on the gutter will be paved and the improvements will be quite marked.

W. C. T. LECTURE. Mrs. Fessenden, state president of the Massachusetts W. C. T. U. will deliver an address in Cheney hall on Sunday evening, June 16 at 8 o'clock, under the auspices of the local W. C. T. U.

It is expected that the choir of the Methodist and Congregational churches will furnish music and a cordial program will be prepared. All are cordially invited.

HE IS NOW A CONSTABLE. Charles O. Treat was appointed a constable yesterday, by the selectmen, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Carl Brink.

Mr. Treat understands his business thoroughly and is a capable person for the position. His application for the appointment was signed by a number of the leading republicans of the town.

CARRIED OFF BILLIARD BALLS. In the scramble that ensued at the raid on Eldridge street last Wednesday evening, someone gathered up the billiard balls that were in the room and carried them away. They were found by an early traveler on the highway in Manchester Green the following morning and brought back.

WILL RETURN TO SWEDEN. Charles Johnson, wife and two sons of Wells street, will leave for Sweden next week, where they expect to remain as they own a farm near the city of Falkenberg, and a residence in the city. One of their boys will remain here until after he is confirmed, boarding meanwhile with John Westlund on Maple street. Mrs. Johnson is in feeble health and they expect that she may be benefited by the change of climate.

WON FIRST PRIZE

Miss Annie Olson returned from New York last Monday, where she has been attending the art school of the Cooper Union for the past year, and has just won the first prize, a silver medal, for her proficiency in designing. There were fifty contestants for the medal, and Miss Olson is to be congratulated on her success in securing it. She is studying architectural drawing also.

She is now home for the summer vacation and expects to return in September.

IN JUSTICE BENTON'S COURT. Henry Schuller, corner of Maple and Spruce streets, was brought before Justice Benton last Monday morning on a charge of intoxication, and fined $10 and costs, the whole amounting to $12.45, which he paid.

Michael Shaw jr. of Hackmatack street was arrested on a similar charge, and fined $7 and costs, in lieu of which Constable Hohenthal was detailed to bring him to the Hartford jail. The costs and all in his case amounted to $23.38. He was arrested by Constable Brink on Saturday night, and remained in the lock-up until Monday morning.

DROPPED $40 ON WILD WEST. Edward Gregstone sr., of a Hobson street, went to Hartford last Monday to witness the great Buffalo Bill Wild West Aggregation of Rough Riders of the World, and when in the city he boarded a trolley car in the vicinity of Prospect opera house.

The car was crowded and he had to hang on by the uptights. A man got on behind him and crowded up as close to him as possible, holding on in the same manner.

While in this attitude another man stole his pocketbook which contained $40 and managed to make his escape. This occurred early in the afternoon. The moral is plain.

NEW JURORS. The following are the newly chosen jurors who are liable to be called on for jurors who are liable to be called on for during the year ending: George W. Ferris, Warren Taylor, K. M. Root, H. R. Fitch, R. W. Pitkin, A. Willard Case, George Davidson, A. H. Stinson, Henry Slater, Joseph Albiston, F. W. Mills, F. D. Hale, C. I. Balch, W. E. Hibbard, B. A. Cadman, Norman Loomis, F. E. Watkins, Joseph C. Carter, Wm. Mayo, John M. Cuzzey, W. S. Hutchison, R. N. Stanley, Roderick House, George B. Slater, Aaron Johnson, Frank Cheney jr.

361 BOTTLES OF LAGER BEER. Officers Hohenthal, Johnson and Crockett made a raid on the premises owned by Cornelius Sullivan on Eldridge street last Wednesday evening and secured 361 bottles of lager beer in the cellar.

Officer Crockett was left in charge while Officers Johnson and Hohenthal secured a team and hauled the cargo away. It was housed in Officer Hohenthal's cellar.

This is probably the largest stock of that kind of goods that Constable Hohenthal has ever stored in his cellar.

The saloon where the seizure was made, has been operated by one or more of the Shields' brothers for some time past. As soon as possible after the seizure, James Shields folded up his tent and silently, but none the less quickly, stole away. Further developments will follow.

LOZIER M'F'G. CO. The Hartford Evening Post of Wednesday last had the following item, that is of interest to persons here: At the meeting of the board of trade last night a letter from the Lozier Manufacturing company of Toledo, Ohio, was read saying that its officers would be in Thompaville very soon to look over the building offered them by the board of trade. The buildings consist of the old White mill, the "Wash house" and the Stockinet mills which have been used until recently by the Lozier Manufacturing company.

READY FOR HOT WEATHER. Laban Adams has had an addition built to the east end of his store, corner of Pine and Pleasant streets, and fitted it up as an ice cream parlor, where he will keep all the choicest flavors and sell by the pint, quart or plate, as the trade may require. He has a dozen sables and can accommodate a quite a number. He also keeps all the popular ice-cream temperance drinks.
