TOWN NEWS. John Brink, son of P. A. Brink of Church street, enjoys the honorable distinction of being the only pupil out of the thousand and thirteen that registered there this year, who attended the ninth district school every day during the entire school year just closed. Seventy six pupils were not absent during the spring term.

In spite of the rain, some 200 people went to Woodland Park yesterday afternoon. There was but one race, a three-minute class for 100 bushes of oats in which Frank Book first prize, R. M. Hood's Young Danie Book second, and third and John McNewry's Hambledon, Ian Tom fourth. The Manchester brass band furnished music. The Booklands defeated a team from Ludlow, Mass., in a game of foot ball, by a score of 1 to 0.

A game of base ball will be played on the New grounds tomorrow afternoon, between a nine from East Hartford and a collection of local players. It may not be a strictly scientific game, but there will be plenty of sport, as the boys care more for the amusement than the score.

The tramway company received two more new open cars this week. This makes eight open and eight closed cars they now have. They expect to have a modern snow plow here by winter, that will be able to keep the tracks clear in spite of the heaviest snow storms. Improvements in these machines have developed rapidly of late.

ARRANGEMENTS ARE being made by the young people of St. James church to give a series of public entertainments next October. The children are rehearsing their respective parts now, under the direction of Miss E. Kesting. This annual festival was postponed last year owing to the depression in business.

GRANTED A DIVORCE. Gertrude M. Taylor has been granted a divorce from her husband, Harry A. Taylor, by Judge Thayer in the superior court at Hartford, on the ground of intolerable cruelty and intemperance and been given the custody of her boy who is 5 years old. She was also permitted to resume her maiden name, Lathrop. William C. Case was her attorney. The couple were married some eight years ago but have not lived together for a couple of years past.

NO PLACE FOR BOYS. A number of small boys witnessed the proceedings in the town court last Monday. We believe that if their parents knew of it, they would not be permitted to do so. It is no place for children and they should not be allowed there. Parents would do well to see to it that their boys are kept away from such scenes. The less they know about such matters the better they will be.

STILL ANOTHER CUT. Beginning Monday July 8, the 12:30 and 2:30 p. m. trains on the South Manchester railroad will be discontinued. Manager R. O. Cheney submits to the inevitable with the best possible grace. The trolley unquestionably attracts the passenger traffic and the only points on which the South Manchester railroad can successfully compete are, on carry ing commuters and baggage. These trains have not paid since the trolley got running in its present form.

LECTURE NEXT SUNDAY. Rev. Julian S. Wadsworth will deliver the third in his series of monthly lectures in the South Methodist church next Sunday evening in the general course entitled "Following in the Footsteps of Christ, and his theme will be, "Nazareth, Childhood Haunts." This will be enlivened by personal observations on his travels through the Holy Land. The lecture will begin at 7 o'clock, and Miss Frost will give some selections on the organ, after the lecture, for those who choose to remain. Free are free and all are cordially invited.

FORTY FIVE STARS NOW. Utah was admitted as one of the United States on the Fourth of July, 1893, making the forty fifth state in the Union and a new star has been added thereby to the cluster on the American flag. All the new American flags to be made hereafter, will contain 45 stars. Stars are admitted to the Union on the Fourth of July only.

HUTCHINSON-MAXWELL. Calvin Hutchinson of Bolton, brother of John Hutchinson of this place, and Miss Elanor Maxwell of 119 Spruce street were united in marriage last Tuesday afternoon in Bolton. Two bus loads of friends from East Hartford and here drove out to the nuptials, the East Hartford people taking the trolley cars this far and then going down in one of Rood's buses. They were married in the Congregational church at Bolton Center, Rev. Mr. Robinson officiating. The bridal couple received an unusually large number of valuable and handsome presents, both here and many friends. Guests' ice cream delivered to your home, from one quart up, week days and Sundays.

OPENING OF LAUREL PARK. Laurel Park will be opened to the public Saturday July 6, 1895 at 1 p. m. Music by Hatch's Military band. The fare on the trolley cars will be five cents between the Park and Manchester and South Manchester, and also between Burnside and the Park, the five-cent limit having been changed from the Hockanum River to the Park entrance. All passengers riding on the cars will be given a ticket admitting them to the Park, free of charge, on application to the conductor.

ALL others will be charged an admission fee of five cents for foot passengers and ten cents for teams. A prompter will be on hand for dancing. A DELIGHTFUL CONCERT. In spite of the threatening weather last Saturday afternoon and evening, and the further fact of a postponement on Thursday evening, the concert given by Pope's band on the square in front of Cheney's store drew out a large number of people, who listened with pleasure for two hours to a choice program of refined and up to date music.

The audience was a music loving one, appreciative, enthusiastic and responsive. The listeners gave the performers hearty applause, and the latter entered into the spirit of the occasion and were very generous with encores, and also gave some extra numbers, not on the program. The affair was a pronounced success in every particular. It is estimated that over 2,000 persons were on the square.

REV. N. F. COLVER'S DEATH. Rev. N. F. Colver died last Sunday night aged 60 years. His funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon, Rev. E. P. Pharoan officiating. Interment was in Buckland cemetery. He leaves a widow and two daughters, one is the wife of Rev. J. S. Porter a missionary in Prague, Bohemia, and the other is Miss Emma, who is with her sister in Prague. He was at one time a minister of the Methodist church, but followed the grocery business in this town for 25 years.

NEW TOWN COURT. The legislature appointed Herbert O. Bowers judge of the new town court of Manchester recently and Charles E. House deputy judge, and judge Bowers has appointed Charles B. Thayer as prosecuting attorney and will appoint an assistant prosecuting attorney.

The judge and deputy judge are appointed for two years, dating from the first Monday in July 1897, and the prosecuting attorney and his assistants, for terms of one year each, from the same date. The judge's salary is $500 a year, the deputy judge's $300 a year and the prosecuting attorney's $600 a year and the assistant prosecuting attorney's $50 a year.

The new court will relieve the justices of the peace from trying any criminal cases here, their jurisdiction extending heretofore only to civil cases, in this town but including both civil and criminal cases in the other towns of the county.

NOT MUCH MISCHIEF DONE. The boys kept up a merry and noisy racket all of Wednesday night, but owing to the fact that officers were on guard along the business part of Main street all night long, there was not much rowdyism of signs etc. as occurred a year ago.

The Center church bell received a vigorous shaking up, but the South Methodist bell was dumb, until sunrise, when Will Keith and Ezekiel Benson, the two guardians who remained in the church all night, gave it a thorough ringing.

One sleigh and one buggy were left on the square at Cheney's store, Charles R. Hathaway's sign was hung over the post office door, a hen-coop was placed in the entrance of Horton's drug store, a wagon was upset and left near the South Manchester railroad tracks at Hartford road. An out-house belonging to Dwight Spencer was brought to Depot Square and decorated with various signs secured in the locality. Some fence posts were piled up on the sidewalk near Ferris Brothers' store, a light guard rail was torn from the lawn in front of Wm. Ford's residence on Main street and deposited in front of C. E. Cheney's store, but on the whole things were found in fair condition on the morning of the Fourth. The boys had a good time and not much injury was done to anyone.

It will cost but three cents and can be purchased at Magdon's and Rose's news stands. An edition of between 60,000 and 70,000 will be issued.

DON'T WANT THE OFFICE. Chas. E. House has declined to accept the nomination for the office of clerk of Manchester, to which he was recently appointed by the legislature, and as the time for nomination by this session of the legislature has expired, the position will remain vacant until the next session of that body. Meaning the judge can call upon any justice of the peace in town to act pro tem should occasion require.

HAD HIS HAND CRUSHED. Ernest Pfunder a young man employed in Keeney Bros paper mill had a press roll fall on his right hand last Wednesday morning crushing it so badly that the fourth finger had to be amputated at the second joint and the third finger at the first joint. Doctor Taylor performed the surgical operation, assisted by Dr. Weldon.

BIOGRAPHY OF JAMES G. BLAINE. E. H. Lane of Killingworth delivered the "Biography of James G. Blaine," by Gail Hamilton, to subscribers here this week. The book is published by the Henry Bill Publishing Company of Norwich, and is larger than was promised, and a very desirable work to have in any library either public or private.

AN HONEST MAN. Richard Boshall a member of the Salvation Army here found a pocket book containing $114, on Main street on the morning of July 4, and learning from F. W. Mills that Ernest Tideland, head draughtsman for the Mather Company had lost such an amount, left the money with Mr. Mills for its owner. The latter on being informed of the find came down and insisted on rewarding the finder, but could only induce him to accept of the Army. Such honesty is certainly very commendable and worthy of emulation.

WILL VISIT THE SHRINE. W. J. Dovich of East Hartford, one of the agents for the grand pilgrimage to the shrine of St. Anne De Beaupre, called at this office yesterday and informed us that among the great number going from this state, the following were from East Hartford, The Misses Lizzie and May Carney, Maude Dowds, E. J. and Mrs. Carroll and James P. Tobin. From Hartford, The Misses Lawlor, Annie and Maggie Higgins, the Misses Tuttle, Frank Spellany and mother etc.

RUN DOWN BY A WHEEL. While going along Hartford road, opposite the residence of Frank Cheney, last Friday morning, Abbie Dougherty of McKee street was run down by Victor Johnson's trolley and considerably hurt. Mr. Johnson picked her up and made all the apologies he could. He also went to her residence and made such amends as were required by the young lady's mother, agreeing to pay a reasonable sum.

WILL BUILD A POWER HOUSE. The Hartford Manchester and Rockville Tramway Company are making arrangements to erect a power house of their own near the Woodland mills, and expect to have it in operation by next winter. They do not propose to take any chances on being short of power when the snows of winter are upon us, as it will then be necessary to keep the snow pile running all night, at times in order to clear the tracks, as well as in the day time.

MAY SELL THE MATHER. In the suit of Charles E. Perkins against the Mather Electric Company, Judge Thayer has passed an order to allow Charles M. Jarvis, the receiver of the company, to sell all the real and personal estate belonging to the company. Before the property is sold, however, the receiver is directed to bring an application of sale to a judge of the superior court, who is to decide upon the terms of the sale, and five days notice is to be given all persons who have appeared in record in the case, that they may be present at the hearing on the application.
