TOWN NEWS.

RESULTS TELL In any kind of work or study. This can be especially applied to schools and business colleges. Of the latter it is true that some turn out their graduates equipped for business, whereas others give them nothing more than a little smattering of book-keeping for their money. This last statement cannot be said of the Hartford Business College. Its students come forth ready to take the highest positions of trust and emolument in business and Prof. Morse, the principal has always made his best advertisements his graduates in the commercial houses of Hartford and adjoining cities. Last year the demand for competent stenographers and office workers from this school exceeded the supply and as a consequence the attendance at the college this year is far in excess of former years.

A REQUEST. The News has been asked to request the St. James choir to kindly repeat, on some evening of next week, the opening choros, Oh Hall Us Ye Fair, that they sang at the festival last Wednesday evening.

SURPRISE PARTY. Some twenty eight of Miss May Donahue's friends called at her residence on Prospect street last Wednesday evening and gave her a surprise party. They came loaded with good things to eat and dispatched them with a zest. Music, singing, games and general jollification rounded out a merry event.

A SUBSTANTIAL GIFT. Rev. W. J. Doonan returned to Southington last night after a three months tour in Europe and was presented with a purse of $200. He was formerly pastor of St. Bridget's church over north and his many friends here will be pleased to learn this news.

DIED IN IRELAND. Motorman George Deverer received yesterday that his wife died in Ireland Sept. 5. She was in childbirth and the little one died also. She leaves one child, a boy in his third year.

She had planned to come here after she was delivered and her husband had just bought furniture and expected to go homekeeping soon. He boars with his sister-in-law, Mrs. Thomas Wilson, Miss Mary Gilpin, who works for Dr. Tinker, is another sister-in-law.

TEMPERANCE LECTURE SUNDAY EVENING. John G. Wooley will deliver a temperance lecture in Cheney hall next Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Singers are requested to present themselves at the stage and aid in furnishing music. An extra train will leave Manchester on the South Manchester railroad at 7 p. m. and will return after the lecture.

THE FIRST GUN FIRED. A bill of $15 from the Hartford bridge commission was presented to the selectmen and treasurer of this town last Monday, but the amount was not paid. Bills have been presented to the other towns in the bridge district, but none of them have been paid and suits at law are to be instituted at once, to test the constitutionality of the new law and to obtain a writ of mandamus to compel certain whether payment can be enforced or not.

ENGAGEMENT. The engagement is announced of Frank W. Larson of Hartford to Miss Elizabeth A. Ostergen, daughter of Rev. Mr. Ostergen of School street, pastor of the Spruce street Swedish Congregational church of this place. The young couple are being congratulated by their friends.

Ferris will conduct the services next Sunday evening. The prayer meeting, Wednesday evening Sept. 25 will be in charge of James and Mrs. Patten.

WHO WILL BE TOWN CLERK? That is the question just now. Daniel Wadsworth, after an honorable service of over 40 years, will voluntarily retire and friends of the following gentlemen are urging their claims for the position. Judge Herbert O. Bowers, George W. Ferris, of the well known firm of Ferris Brothers, who has had five years experience as assistant town clerk in Fenton, Michigan; Ex Representative C. E. House and F. W. Mills.

PUSHING TO THE FRONT. James Sullivan, who has been studying under Dr. J. N. Parker for several years past, is going to enter the Baltimore Medical college this fall and take the regular course. He will leave with Will F. Keating and M. W. Webster a week from next Sunday night. He has applied himself to his studies very assiduously, has made commendable progress and, if he continues in the same way, is bound to succeed.

NEW GLEE CLUB.

The members of St. James choir have formed a glee club and, as soon as the present festival is through with, will begin practicing on comic and sentimental songs, so that in case of a public entertainment of any sort being given they will be prepared to furnish music at short notice. This will also give them a wider training and a better knowledge of music besides the pleasure it will afford them. Professor W. M. Keating is the instructor and leader of the club.

BUTCHER SHOPS INSTEAD OF SALOONS. It is observed that by closing the saloons on Sundays in New York City, many of the saloons at the street corners have been abandoned, as the proprietors could not do without their Sunday trade, and a consequence of this fact is that, handsome butcher shops have been opened in those places. There is quite a lesson here. Which do you prefer?

PEACHES FIVE CENTS A BUSHEL. Marvelous reports came from the states of Indiana, Illinois and Missouri telling of the most bountiful fruit crops ever known in those states. Delicious peaches are reported to be selling at five cents a bushel and, it is stated, that the canning and evaporating factories are doing a stupendous business. Canned fruit promises to be abundant and cheap next winter.

THE BOYS CAN SHOOT SOME. Of the twelve marksmen chosen to represent the First Regiment in the brigade tournament at Niagara Falls, Wednesday and Thursday, were from South Manchester, as follows: Major John Hickey, Captain C. L. Bisell, Lieutenant John P. Cheney and Quartermaster Sergeant Henson. This speaks well of our military boys, and shows that they know how to handle a gun and shoot quite creditably.

PROMPT PAYMENT. The selectmen have received a check from the Middlesex Assurance Company, through the agency of Geo. F. Rich, for $268.02, being payment in full of the amount wrongfully destroyed by fire Saturday morning, Sept. 7, '95. The insurance was divided as follows: $800 on the barn, $150 on hay, grain etc., and $332 on pigs and chickens. The loss was not insured. This prompt payment is highly commendable and also creditable to the company.

A SHARP FROST. Following in the wake of the torrid heat of last week, came a cold wave, which brought a sharp frost Saturday night, and cut down flowers, vines, garden stuff, tobacco etc. In as far as we know, it did not injure peaches, pears, apples or such like, but the few cold days gave a set back to the ripening of peaches. Watermelons that were not ripe or full grown, will not develop now. Grape vines in many places were frozen, as were also lima beans.

Many pretty beds of flowers in town were completely destroyed. Dennis Bryan of Tolland township had several acres of tobacco killed by the frost. All tobacco that was not hoisted or covered up in some way, was ruined.

Emigration from Great Britain to the colonies of the South Pacific has been checked by the announcement that there is absolutely no employment for labor in these colonies. All the Australian, New Zealand and the Cape tell the same story.

The total output of the clay industries of the United States for 1894, exclusive of pottery, was $65,000,000. More than half the product was brick, of which enough were made to lay a pavement eleven feet wide entirely around the city of Ohio makes more brick than any other state.

The interdependence of the arts and trades is considerable. Every large architect's office has to have a civil engineer or some one with engineering ability to calculate strains. And now a big firm of elevator builders has engaged a staff architect for questions of design and construction.

New York is the first city to recognize the rights of citizens who ride bicycles, and who use them in going to and from business. A resolution previously passed by the aldermen to pave Church street from Chambers to Day in granite was rescinded, and one substituted making asphalt the material. This is part of the bicycle path that will be established between the Battery and Central Park.

A petition from the inhabitants of the London suburb, Shepherd's Bush, reveals an entirely new difficulty which boomerangs have to contend. It seems that Miss Draddon invariably put into her novels a very low, common family, and made them reside at Shepherd's Bush. Other novelists followed her evil example, until now-a-days every English novelist puts his low characters down as residents of Shepherd's Bush. The result is that all the reputable people who could move out have done so, and the suburb has become a vast, low-down, and unattractive place. The result is that all the reputable people who could move out have done so, and the suburb has become a vast, low-down, and unattractive place.

San Francisco has the tall building fever, and it will have a fifteen-story affair that is to tower 310 feet above the sidewalk. Miss Spry's skyscraper is to be built. It will be so much taller than anything now standing there that it will be plainly visible from all parts of the city and from the bay. It will be but 70x70 feet, and will be really a big square tower, capped by a big globe.

On paper it looks to the New York Sun by no means unobnoxious. The New York Sun says:—Large quantities of American carriage wheels are exported annually, and this trade is steadily increasing. We send to France, England, Russia, Germany, Spain, Africa, Australia, and elsewhere, and our exports to these countries include spokes, rims, hubs, completed wheels, shafts and other parts, and carriage lumber. Our mills here are located in various parts of the country in proximity to the forests whence the supplies of wood are obtained.

Although the eight-hour working day is still clamored for in France, it appears from the report of the labor commission for 1894 that the ten-hour day for children under sixteen prescribed by the law of November, 1892, has proved impracticable. Although the law was complete in time to eleven hours has not been abandoned, yet by the chamber, the inspectors have been instructed to act upon it as if it were law, by prosecuting no cases of infringement in which the hours worked do not exceed eleven. There were in 1894, 2,931 reports against factories which were closed for violation of the law, the result being that about half the large mills in which adults had worked twelve hours, or even more, have reduced the hours for all their employment to eleven.

The record of Sunday suicides in Chicago, according to the Tribune of that city, was most extraordinary. Seven persons—five men and two women—made the attempt to end their lives, and five of them succeeded. The youngest of the group of unfortunate was a girl of 18. Her health was the cause of one, named as yet by the coroner, who was committed to a domestic infirmary of two, melancholy of one and liquor of two. It is noticeable that four out of the seven used poison as the agency of self-destruction, the poisons being carbolic acid, laudanum, Paris green and morphine. This peculiar prominence of poison as the means of committing suicide is not confined to this instance, it prevails all over the United States. In two-thirds of reported cases the pistol and poison are the agencies in use. Last year there were 1,739 cases of poisoning, 1,594 of shooting. This year to date the poisoning cases exceed the shooting, being 1,218 to 1,161. The extraordinary increase which has taken place only during the last two years, apart from the pathetic case of 14—four poisoning is the most appalling of all forms of death—shows that the use of which self-destruction is able to procure poison, and with the least possible restrictions as to construction of architecture and cost of style.

According to the Melilot Record some English ladies, residents in China, have started a society to put a stop to the practice of binding the feet of young girls. Chinamen, who regard the practice as a mark of civilization, are being urged to join them. The new society is to be organized in the formation of a Natural Waist Society, to put an end to tight-lacing.

Our mills here are located in various parts of the country in proximity to the forests whence the supplies of wood are obtained.

Although the eight-hour working day is still clamored for in France, it appears from the report of the labor commission for 1894 that the ten-hour day for children under sixteen prescribed by the law of November, 1892, has proved impracticable. Although the law was complete in time to eleven hours has not been abandoned, yet by the chamber, the inspectors have been instructed to act upon it as if it were law, by prosecuting no cases of infringement in which the hours worked do not exceed eleven. There were in 1894, 2,931 reports against factories which were closed for violation of the law, the result being that about half the large mills in which adults had worked twelve hours, or even more, have reduced the hours for all their employment to eleven.

The record of Sunday suicides in Chicago, according to the Tribune of that city, was most extraordinary. Seven persons—five men and two women—made the attempt to end their lives, and five of them succeeded. The youngest of the group of unfortunate was a girl of 18. Her health was the cause of one, named as yet by the coroner, who was committed to a domestic infirmary of two, melancholy of one and liquor of two. It is noticeable that four out of the seven used poison as the agency of self-destruction, the poisons being carbolic acid, laudanum, Paris green and morphine. This peculiar prominence of poison as the means of committing suicide is not confined to this instance, it prevails all over the United States. In two-thirds of reported cases the pistol and poison are the agencies in use. Last year there were 1,739 cases of poisoning, 1,594 of shooting. This year to date the poisoning cases exceed the shooting, being 1,218 to 1,161. The extraordinary increase which has taken place only during the last two years, apart from the pathetic case of 14—four poisoning is the most appalling of all forms of death—shows that the use of which self-destruction is able to procure poison, and with the least possible restrictions as to construction of architecture and cost of style.

BY CHANCE.

I don't know exactly why Jack called me "Governor," but I suppose it was because I was some years older than he was, and because, when he was a boy, I had made him kites and showed him how to spin tops, and perhaps because I used to help him out of scrapes, either with his teacher or some playmate too large for him to lick. At all events, I got a good name, and he was to bear it for the rest of his life.

TOWN NEWS.

John G. Wooley delivered a magnificent temperance lecture in Cheney hall Sunday evening. Before a crowded house, took the broad platform that the liquor traffic, the world over, ought to die and maintained his position with logic, strength, truth and eloquence. Hugh Moriarty has finished the plumbing and steam heating of Dr. Weldon's apartments and the doctor is now comfortably ensconced in his new quarters, which have been decorated and furnished in luxurious fashion and fully up-to-date. Johnnie Sullivan has left the mill and entered the employ of Dr. J. N. Parker and his brother Frankie goes to the place of James Sullivan who will matriculate at the Baltimore Medical College next Tuesday.

The clergymen of the town held a conference in the town hall last Friday, to talk over the no-license question and take necessary measures to create an interest in the subject and arouse voters to the importance of keeping the town in the no-license column. Miss Maria Wadsworth died last Saturday at the ripe age of 82 years. She was buried in East Hartford last Monday. Rev. Thomas Simms officiated, at the residence of her brother, Daniel Wadsworth, with whom she lived. Cards are out announcing the coming marriage of James Trotter and Alice Lovy Johnson. The ceremony will take place at the residence of the bride's parents, James A. and Mrs. Johnson, 31 Eldridge street, Wednesday Sept. 9, at 5 p. m. Rev. J. A. Dills will officiate. Ernest and Bennett Hartley will attend Huntington's night school beginning next Monday evening. They will go and return by the trolley each evening. The trolley thus affords this accommodation that was not within the reach of other young people heretofore. A number of others are planning to attend night school in the city.

An effort will be made at the coming town meeting to pass a vote increasing the salary of the secretary of the board of school visitors, as it is thought that the present salary is not commensurate with the services required of that official in the faithful execution of the duties of his office. Mrs. Susan Coleman died of heart disease in New York last Sunday. Her remains were brought here for burial and services were held in St. Bridget's church, Wednesday morning, Sept. 20. C. Grace officiating. She was a resident of Manchester Green, was 75 years of age and at the time of her sudden death was visiting with her daughter, Mrs. James Scullion. Henry Burke went to New Haven Wednesday and was successful in passing all his examinations for the Yale law school, which he will enter for a two years course. He has been studying hard all summer and is very happy over the successful outcome of his labors.

We are now enjoying the Harvest Moon. This term, harvest moon, is applied to the full moon which comes nearest to September 21st, when the moon rises on several consecutive nights more nearly at sunset, than any other moon of the year, and is especially favorable for harvesting work in the evening. W. S. B. Maine and his sister, Miss Annie Maine, of Monroe, Highland, Mass. are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Maine. They arrived last Saturday and will spend the week here, and afterwards will visit friends in Quarryville. Mr. Maine is doing some sketching meanwhile, as he is a landscape and marine artist. Orford Lodge will celebrate its third anniversary on the evening of Nov. 14. Each member may bring one lady. A musical and literary program will be given and this will be followed by a banquet. At the meeting last evening Fred Brock was initiated. The lodge has 75 members in good standing now.

COMING WEDDING. Selma Olive Gustafson of School street and Arthur Frederick Server are to be married by Rev. W. P. Anderson in the Swedish Lutheran church on Wednesday Oct. 9 at 2:30 p. m. A reception will be held for relatives of both families only. The young people will enjoy their honeymoon in The Rose of New England.

SOUTH M. E. CHURCH NOTES. The class meeting this Friday evening will be led by Wm E. Keith. Rev. Jacob Betts of Glastonbury will occupy the pulpit on Sunday morning, and the Sunday evening service will be in charge of E. L. G. Hohenhalt. Edward E. Agard will lead the prayer meeting Wednesday evening, Oct. 2.

IMPROVING THE STREETS. The Tramway Company has widened Center street from Main nearly to Church street, and back the poles and made some excellent improvements along there that are appreciated by people who make it their habit, as well as others. They are also laying a stone gutter on the west slope of the hill just beyond the McKee switch.

DESERVEDLY POPULAR. For seven years our readers have been familiar with the name Huntington. There is but one Huntington in Conn., and but one Huntington's Business and Shoemaking College. As a worker Mr. Huntington is indefatigable, and has gathered about him a force of seven teachers of marked ability and forcefulness. No pupil can go to this school without being instructed and permanently benefited. Every feature of the course is up-to-date and nearly all the teaching of this school has been individual since its opening seven years ago. Over 2000 pupils have been trained in this school since its organization. Its attendance at present is over 105 pupils in the day session, and new ones coming in all the time.

FINED FOR ASSAULT. Robert Edgar sr. was brought before the town court yesterday morning charged with assault on Sarah McCreary. He pleaded guilty, was fined $25 and costs, the whole amounting to $38.03, all of which he paid and was discharged.

ZEBA B. REED'S MANDAMUS. Zeza B. Reed wishes all persons to know forthwith, that he will not sue any woman for any person who will vote for license. He believes that liquor should not be sold in this town, or elsewhere, and holds that he is in conscience bound, now and forevermore, to positively refuse to sue wood for any person who votes to legalize the sale of intoxicating liquors.

A GOOD REPUTATION. As an evidence that this is in the main a remarkably well behaved community, it may be observed, right here, that the local court has had but one case in nearly three weeks. Not many towns having a population of between nine and ten thousand can produce such a record, particularly during such intensely and unusually hot September weather as has been dealt out to us recently.

RESIGNED FROM TOWN BOARD. Rev. Thomas Simms resigned from the board of school visitors yesterday. His term was good for two years more. At the coming town election there will be three vacancies on the school board. John S. Cheney has withdrawn from the board, by resignation, but his term would have ended at the coming election and the term of C. Grace officiating. She was a resident of Manchester Green, was 75 years of age and at the time of her sudden death was visiting with her daughter, Mrs. James Scullion.

W. C. T. U. CONVENTION. The twenty second convention of the Women's Christian Temperance Union of Connecticut will be held in the Pearl street Congregational church, Hartford, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, Oct. 1, 2 and 3. A cordial invitation is extended to all. Mrs. E. E. Hunt is the delegate from the local branch, and will be present, as will also Mrs. M. J. Boyce, the president and Mrs. H. N. Stanton, who is the superintendent of evangelistic work. WILL CARLETON WAS HERE. Will Carleton, the well known post-author, delivered his famous lecture, The Drama of Human Nature in Cheney hall last Wednesday evening and entertained a select, appreciative and fair sized audience most delightfully. He recited many of his well known ballads in a manner that will long be remembered with pleasure by those who had the good fortune to hear him. It was a rare treat.

WILL EMPLOY LEGAL HELP. The Tramway Company has decided to build the extension of their road to the Vernon town line themselves and in doing so will employ Manchester men as far as practicable. They are also giving work to local help, as far as they can, in building the road. These two pieces of work will employ many of our townspeople during the next two months and place a good many dollars in circulation in our midst, something that every one here will be glad to learn.

EVER SINGLE. Prof. E. H. Morse bought out what was known as the Hamann College and T. W. Hamann retired, the college has rapidly grown better and larger until now it can be safely said that the Morse enterprise under the name of the Hartford Business College is by far the best disciplined and best attended school of commerce in the state. The enrollment of September 10, this year was larger by several than it was on October 10 of last year and many of our young men and women are booked to commence October 1st.
