TOWN NEWS.

Newton H. Snow is having a furnace and a Magee Grand range placed in his residence.

About 30 young people assembled at the residence of P. A. Johnson on Maple street last Friday evening and tendered them a Welcome Home reception on their return from Sweden.

Rev. D. A. Haggerty announced last Sunday that the forty hours' devotion would open in St. James church at the 10:30 a. m. mass next Sunday.

The marriage of Rev. Nils Erik Kron and Miss Esther Vikberg, will be solemnized in the Swedish Lutheran church next Monday evening at 6:30 o'clock.

The Harvest concert held in the North M. E. church last Sunday night was largely attended. The exercises were well rendered.

Advertised Letters, South Manchester, Conn., Oct. 11, 1895. Miss Florence Cooley. James Flavel. Jeremiah Dwyer. David McCann.

"NIOBE" TO NIGHT. The Hartford Courant of this morning has the following notice of "Niobe" which was presented in Proctor's opera house last night and will be given in the Armory tonight.

Eleven clever actors and actresses gave the fantastic comedy "Niobe" at Proctor's last evening to an audience which was the greater part of the time convulsed with laughter.

Some thirty relatives and neighbors called on Mrs. Fred Brown at her residence, 127 Spruce street, last Friday evening and gave her a birthday surprise party.

Undertaker Maurice J. Toohy was prostrated Saturday night last with an aggravated attack of appendicitis. On Monday, Doctors Sullivan and McKnight of Hartford, assisted by Doctors Dooley, Weldon and Taylor of this town, performed an operation in which the worm-like appendix was removed.

He died this morning. In spite of the best medical attendance Mr. Toohy passed away this morning at his home, 6 William street.

He was 23 years of age, was the son of John M. and Mrs. Toohy, a native of this town and has always resided here. He went into the undertaking business a couple of years ago and was building up an excellent reputation for himself.

His death is a severe blow to his beloved parents and relatives, who are overwhelmed with grief and they have the profound sympathy of a large circle of devoted friends, who sadly join with them in their lamentation.

THEY ARE HUSTLERS.

Tentonia Lodge No 621, D. O. H., will give a social dance in Apoll's opera house Saturday evening Nov. 2.

This energetic young lodge is becoming very popular. The ladies are proving themselves to be hustlers, their first dance was a fine success and no doubt this one will be also.

A UNIQUE MONUMENT.

Eldredge & Adams, the well known monument builders of Rockville, have recently erected a unique monument for Edward Gregstone Sr., in the Buckland cemetery.

It is of the new ball design, is of Quincy granite, stands seven feet in height and weighs about five tons. The ball weighs about 1000 pounds, is over six feet in diameter, perfectly round, and highly polished.

A NOVELTY HERE. E. T. Carrier is putting in two new ranges with water front and boilers in the Wurtella house, near Couch's blacksmith shop, that is being generally overhauled by R. M. Blyth.

The idea of fitting up a tenement house with permanent ranges and hot water apparatus is quite new here and will be found very handy for some of our newly married couples, as it will enable them to get along without buying a kitchen range, while occupying that particular tenement.

I wish to state to the public that I am not the person that the Herald of Wednesday referred to as signing the application for Mr. Purnell.

There are two Wm Ferris's, Wm M. Ferris, sr. and Wm S. Ferris, jr. I was married and never shall sign an application for any one, and don't wish to be blamed when I am not guilty.

STEPPE-ORR. Joseph Steppe of Rockville and Mamie Orr of Wells street place, were united in marriage at the parochial residence by Rev. D. A. Haggerty last Wednesday evening.

The bride wore a gown of cream cashmere trimmed with lace, satin ribbons and orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of tea roses.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Wm and Mrs. Orr, 51 Wells street, in the house of his friend, Peter Amos Dunn, an insurance agent, who insures it. Niobe when brought to life manifests great affection for Peter Dunn which through his procreation gets him into lots of trouble with his wife and her many relatives.

Some thirty relatives and neighbors called on Mrs. Fred Brown at her residence, 127 Spruce street, last Friday evening and gave her a birthday surprise party.

The event was so well planned that Mrs. Brown was taken completely unawares. The merry-makers came well supplied with delicacies to tempt the appetite and enjoyed a bounteous repast.

He is also under obligations to her niece, Mrs. Ralph Pinney of Glastonbury, for the present of a lovely banquet lamp shade.

NOTICE. I wish hereby to inform my friends and the general public, that I have started in the jewelry business on my own account, will call upon all my old customers and had hope to have their patronage. As I will use them in the future as I have in the past, during my ten year's experience on the road for C. Tiffany.

H. H. HOLMES IN THE BAR

Trials Begun of the Alleged Greatest Murderer of Modern Times.

CONDUCTING HIS OWN CASE.

The Killing of Fifteen One of the Twenty-two Members of which Holmes is Accused—Court Refused a Postponement, Thereupon the Prisoner's Counsel Withdraws.

One of the greatest criminal cases of the century began at Philadelphia, Penn., when Herman W. Magder, better known as H. H. Holmes, the confessed life insurance swindler and the alleged murderer, was placed on trial in Court of Oyer and Terminer on the charge of having murdered Benjamin F. Pictel, Judge Arthur presided.

The President appointed Vanoy Lewis of Indiana Territory, Judge of the United States District Court for the District of Indiana Territory.

Domestic. In New York City, District Attorney Felton recommended the dismissal of Lewellyn D. Smith, a member of the Committee on the Resignation of the Governor.

Justice Beach decided, in New York City, that the State Department (the case) could not be printed on the official record of the proceedings.

Thirty million bushels of coal ready for shipment from the Pennsylvania district of Western Pennsylvania.

REV. DR. TALMAGE.

SUNDAY'S DISCOURSE BY THE NOTED DIVINE.

Subject "All Heaven Looking On." The subject of Dr. Talmage's opening sermon in Washington was: "All Heaven Looking On." He said that he felt as if he were in the presence of a great multitude of angels.

Dr. Talmage's discourse was a powerful one. He spoke of the greatness of God and the smallness of man. He said that he felt as if he were in the presence of a great multitude of angels.

HIGHEST OF ALL IN LEAVENING POWER.—LATEST U.S. GOV'T REPORT

Curious Chinese Benevolence.

In times of pestilence in China persons are permitted to witness grizzly displays of fireworks, the object being that their minds may be distracted thereby from the prevailing epidemic.

In large cities persons are provided in the hospitals with a special diet which is so prepared as to catch a man's attention. While thus engaged he discovers a gross in the grass on the bank of the stream. The Judge stopped, and, baiting his hook with a fresh grasshopper, made a cast to the unsuspecting bird.

TOWN NEWS.

Drake Post No. 4, G. A. R. will give a reception to the department commander, staff and officers of the department of Connecticut, at Cheney hall Tuesday evening Nov. 5.

The Young German American Club will give a social dance in Cheney hall, Tuesday evening Nov. 12. Coates' orchestra will furnish music. C. Foley will prompt. Admission will be 25 cents each person. This organization always gives very pleasant social events and this one promises to be fully up to the usual standard.

Manchester Tent No. 2, Knights of the Macabees, are making extensive preparations for their social dance in Apell's opera house on Thanksgiving Eve, Wednesday, Nov. 27. The following have been chosen as a committee of arrangements: Everett L. Mansfield, Joseph C. Carter, Chas. I. Balch, James H. Stannard and Michael O'Connell.

The elective officers of King David Lodge 1010 F. O. F. went into Hartford last night on an invitation, and were the guests of Connecticut Lodge. A delightful musical and literary program was enjoyed and a bounteous collation served roundly out a very enjoyable evening. The party reached home about midnight. The work of gathering up the leaves on the lawn is being pushed along vigorously at present, and they are being stored away to make bedding for cows, and horses and eventually, fertilizers, so that next spring they will be spread upon the fields and give new life to the products of gardens and farms.

When going to his work last Friday morning John Fletcher was taken with a hemorrhage and Dr. Weldon was called in. He is better now and his many friends hope earnestly for his full restoration to health as he is a young man that is highly esteemed in the community.

The license law will go into effect Tuesday Nov. 5, as per vote of this town and the various saloons will open on that date, excepting in cases where remonstrances have been entered, and these will require time for their final settlement, as there will be hearings granted, witnesses heard and arguments made on both sides.

A bean bake and social will be given in Cheney hall Wednesday evening Nov. 6, by John L. Olin Camp, and the various saloons will open on that date, excepting in cases where remonstrances have been entered, and these will require time for their final settlement, as there will be hearings granted, witnesses heard and arguments made on both sides.

Advised Letters, South Manchester, Conn., Oct. 29, 1895.

Mrs. Beane, Michael E. Connor, Mrs. Mike Fitchgerly, Mrs. Margaret Herron, Orange Hills (3), Mrs. Uley Hills, Miss Lillie Larson, (2), Wm G. Robinson, Edward Stevenson, Miss Lizzie Smith, Mrs. Gustav Schrimm.

BOLLIN M. ROOD, F. M. Thomas Curran, sexton of St. James church, received a telegram yesterday announcing the death of his brother William in Brooklyn, N. Y. He went yesterday afternoon. Deceased formerly resided here and was well known. He worked for Cheney Bros. and lived at the West boarding house. He had been a member of the New York police force for some years, but was discharged and placed on the retired list.

Frohsan Lodge No. 24, O. D. H. S. gave a pleasant social dance in The Armory last Saturday evening and enjoyed a very nice event. It was a characteristic family gathering, not large, but thoroughly pleasant, social and agreeable. The following gentlemen had charge of the affair: Edward Brink jr., Chas. A. Sperber, A. Kinschneider, John Lantzbach, August Thimley, Paul Schmidt, Herman Moller, A. Hanemann. Coates' orchestra furnished music. W. P. Smith prompted.

Ullie Akerstrom, who will be remembered as having presented "The Sultan's Daughter" here last Spring, will appear in the Armory Wednesday evening November 12. She is supported by a company of talented comedians and they have a repertoire of 40 songs or more plays, some one of which will be given here. Full particulars will appear later.

MCCORMACK-KIRK. James McCormack and Miss Bessie Kirk, both of this place were united in marriage last evening at St. Mary's rectory. Rev. J. A. Biddle officiated. Wm McCormack was best man and Miss Green of Center street was bridesmaid. The newly married couple will reside at 28 Maple street.

SAFELY OVER THE LINE. Frank Donlin, who escaped from Deputy Sheriff Geo. H. Hall last Monday afternoon, as he was about to be tried in the town court here on a charge of being a fugitive, was arrested by Miss Mary McLean, who safely located in Springfield, Mass. and has written from there to friends in East Hartford, where he boarded.

He is relieved much as much, received the necessary protection from the trainmen to carry him out of the state. The sheriff fired several shots at him as he sped away to the woods back of the car house, but did not stop his flight.

To Rent—Tenement, to suitable parties. Enquire of George H. Southwick, 28 Wells street.

REMONSTRANCES FILED.

Rev. D. A. Haggerty has filed a remonstrance with the county commissioners against the granting of a liquor license to Patrick R. Hayes for the American hotel, on the ground of unsuitability of the place, and also against Samuel Parsons on the same ground, as above, and on the additional claim that Mr. Parnell is an unsuitable person to have a liquor license granted him.

CHOIR FESTIVAL. The Hartford Archdeaconry Choir will hold their first Annual Festival this Friday, All Saints Day, at 7:30 p. m. in Christ church, Hartford. The service will be choral, and about 100 voices will take part. The music list will include anthems by Stainer, Barrett, Woodward, and Gounod. All are cordially invited.

FOOT BALL TOMORROW. The local high school team will play a game of football at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon on the South Main street grounds, with the Rockville high school team.

A. O. H. CELEBRATION. Some 26 members of the local division A. O. H. went to Rockville last Monday evening to attend the twentieth anniversary celebration of the order in that city and enjoyed a delightful time. The exercises consisted of a banquet, a musical and literary entertainment, speech making and a dance. The members here speak in glowing terms of the hospitality of their Rockville brethren and report having had a very enjoyable time. They reached home about 3 o'clock on Tuesday morning. Allen's four-horse bus was employed to carry the party over and back.

LECTURES RESUMED. Rev. J. S. Wadsworth will resume his lectures on Palestine next Sunday evening at 7 o'clock in the South M. E. church, taking for his theme "Calvary," "The Crucifixion." He will relate his own observations on the historic place as it appears to day.

PLEASANT UNION MEETING. There was a very pleasant gathering at the church parlor of the South Methodist Episcopal church, on Wednesday afternoon, the event being the entertainment of about thirty members of the Home and Foreign Missionary Society of the North Methodist church. Mrs. A. Willard Case, president of the home society, very cordially welcomed the ladies with an original poem, and Mrs. Colver of the North church responded thereto.

The Rev. Mr. Phareson offered prayer, Mrs. Sanford M. Benton, president of the foreign society, gave a report of the annual meeting of the Home Missionary Society, recently held in Williamstown, and Miss Mariette M. Loomis reported a continuation of their patronage in the future, and will endeavor to serve them faithfully and honestly as I have done heretofore.
