TOWN NEWS.

OVERDUE OF LAUDANUM. Eliza A. wife of Henry A. Griswold of 11 Oakland street, had been suffering with nervous troubles for some six weeks past and owing to her advanced age, 70 years, was in a very feeble condition.

She was under treatment and had a medicine that was used to steady her nerves.

On Thanksgiving Eve, she seemed to be worse than usual and during the night took two doses, in her efforts to invite sleep, but all to no avail.

She became so much agitated that, about 2 o'clock, she took a dose of laudanum, in hopes to find case in that.

When she returned to bed, her husband smelled the drug and enquired if she had taken laudanum, and she said she had.

He then asked how much and she told him that she had not taken very much. He was nervous however and got up to investigate.

He found the bottle and as it had been in the house for five years and had not been used, it could be plainly seen how much she had taken, and it was a good sized dose.

He told her that he thought she had taken too much and she herself soon began to feel the effects of the deadly narcotic and tried to shake it off.

The other members of the family were then aroused. Dr. Whiton was called in and all everything was done to save her life, but all to no purpose.

In spite of their efforts she continued to sink and died at about seven o'clock in the morning.

She will be buried tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon.

Services will be held at the residence, by Rev. C. H. Barber, at 2 o'clock; but at her own request, the funeral will be private.

She was a lady that was highly respected in the community. She leaves a husband and one daughter, Mrs. Whitmore E. Emmons. Interment will be in the Buckland cemetery.

BELCHER-CRAIG. On Wednesday, Nov. 27, at the residence of John P. and Mrs. Craig of Pleasant street, Miss Janet C. Craig and Frank E. Belcher were united in marriage. Rev. Thomas Simms officiating.

The bride wore a gown of white tulle and silk and was attended by her sister, Miss Jean S. P. Craig, who wore pale blue organdy.

Dean E. Belcher, brother of the groom, acted as best man.

A large number of near relatives and friends were present, when a happy and most enjoyable evening was spent.

After the ceremony, a sumptuous repast was served by Habenstein of Hartford.

It is needless to state that the wedding presents were numerous and very valuable. Mr. and Mrs. Belcher have gone on a short tour through the New England States.

FOR SALE. In order to settle up the estate of the late James Hickey I will offer at private sale the premises known as No. 10 with No. 10, Westchester, Conn. It is handsomely located.

WIDOW-MORIN.

St. James church was crowded at nine o'clock yesterday morning, to witness the marriage of Helen Joseph Widon and Miss Marie Louise Morin. Rev. D. A. Haggerty officiated.

The bridesmaid was Miss Marie L. Widon, sister of the groom, and Ladger Morin, brother of the bride, was best man.

The bride was attired in a handsome gown of white heronetta, with pearl and chiffon trimmings.

The bridesmaid was gowned in cream heronetta, beautifully trimmed.

Among the many elegant and useful presents, was a fine looking and useful dining room outfit, presented by the shopkeepers of the bride.

The wedding breakfast was served at the bride's home, 32 Birch street, and was attended by relatives of the contracting parties. The happy couple will take up housekeeping at once.

Mrs. W. M. Meek who resides at Camp tonville, Cal., says her daughter was for several years troubled at times with severe cramps in the stomach, and would be in such agony that it was necessary to call in a physician. Having read about Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy she concluded to try it. She found that it always gave prompt relief. It was so necessary to give the second dose. It has not only cured also of every ailment. She says, "I also doctor kids. In my opinion, they every day should have a bottle of this remedy. It is so necessary to have Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, in the household."

MUSTER, INSPECTOR, DANICE. In the midst of a driving wind and rain storm last Tuesday evening Company G, C. N. G. held its annual muster and inspection.

Captain C. P. Carter of Glastonbury, who also bears the rank of adjutant, was the inspecting officer.

Sixty one out of sixty three men answered to the muster roll.

Colonel Burdette and Major Hickey were the highest officers present in uniform.

The colonel presented Captain Biswell, Quarter Master Sergeant House and Mustard O'Brien with "Faithful Service" badges. In a few well chosen remarks.

The badges are of bronze, consisting of a bar surmounted by an eagle and a pendant. The bar bears the words "Faithful Service." In the center of the pendant are the words "Faithful Service" and below, the initials "C. N. G."

The pendant is a cross and circle design combined, with the coat of arms of the state of Connecticut in the center and a wreath around the circle.

On the reverse side is engraved the name, title and residence of the owner.

Major Hickey has one of those badges of similar design, but as his represents 15 years of faithful service, the eagle is of silver.

Similar badges are to be given for 30 years of faithful service, but those will have a golden eagle.

It is held that he thought she had taken too much and she herself soon began to feel the effects of the deadly narcotic and tried to shake it off.

The other members of the family were then aroused. Dr. Whiton was called in and all everything was done to save her life, but all to no purpose.

In spite of their efforts she continued to sink and died at about seven o'clock in the morning.

She will be buried tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon.

TOWN COURT.

John Hartnett was up before His Honor last Friday morning charged with drunkenness, breaching of the peace and assault.

He amused himself by striking Mrs. Thomas Keating on the nose, blacking her eye and using foul and abusive language to her.

His locality could not even be controlled in court.

He is an old offender and, in view of the present offense and his past record, was sentenced to 30 days in jail, fined $7 and costs, the whole amounting to $18.36. He did not have the lucre with him.

Alonso Stoughton was charged on the same day with intoxication and being disorderly, in front of the Corlies hotel.

He explained to the court that he was simply celebrating his sixty sixth birthday, that he had taken a little much whisky, and feeling unwell, he had been in an exuberantly happy spirit, gave vent to his joy by singing a few songs; that he had never been arrested before, and humbly implored the court's mercy.

Judge Rogers thereupon imposed a nominal fine of $2 and costs, the whole of which, amounting to $11.12, which he cheerfully paid and went on his way rejoicing.

Dr. Ladrop of St. Charles church was arrested on Main street near Wells on Wednesday afternoon, by Chief of Police and placed in the lock-up.

Dr. Ladrop is a well known and highly respected citizen, and was arrested on the charge of being drunk and disorderly.

He was released on bail and is expected to appear in court on Monday next.

MUSTER, INSPECTOR, DANICE. In the midst of a driving wind and rain storm last Tuesday evening Company G, C. N. G. held its annual muster and inspection.

Captain C. P. Carter of Glastonbury, who also bears the rank of adjutant, was the inspecting officer.

MULCAHY-STEBBINS.

Win Mulcahy of Hilltown and Miss Louise Stebbins of this place, were united in marriage in St. James church last Tuesday morning, by Rev. B. A. Haggerty, in the presence of a large circle of friends.

The bride wore a handsome gown of cream lace-trimmed, with orange ribbon and carried a white bouquet.

The bridesmaid was Miss Mary Kennedy of Popponock. She was dressed in cream albatross, with steel trimmings.

John Hartnett of Windsor was the best man.

The reception was held in Grange hall in Hilltown, after which the bride and groom left for a brief wedding tour to New York, and a shower of rice, old shoes etc. On their return they will reside in Hilltown.

The wedding presents were as follows: Lemons set, M. Spelman, Hartford; the room, and folding chairs, Mrs. Frances O'Neil and family, rug, Annie and Katie Mulcahy, folk paper, Mrs. Spelman, picture, Dennis Maroney, picture, Mary Seely, silver spoon, Jesse Rogers, theopon imposed a nominal fine of $2 and costs, the whole of which, amounting to $11.12, which he cheerfully paid and went on his way rejoicing.

ATTENTION. I will be in W. E. Gleason's store, No. 11 School street, South Manchester, every Tuesday and Saturday evening, beginning Tuesday, Dec. 3, and until further notice, with a good line of Jewels and Silverware, including Watches, Chains, Rings, Pins, Charms, Knives, Forks, Spoons, etc., and will be pleased to have my friends and the general public call and see my goods and give me a share of their patronage, as I will do as well for them, both as to price and quality, as anyone.

All orders for Jewelry or repairs will receive prompt attention, if directed to me at Buckland, Conn.

CHARLES H. KEENEY.

NOTICE. Dr. G. ANDRE.

Physician and Surgeon.

Office Hours: 10 to 12, and 5 to 7.

COMPARISONS ARE ODIOS.

They are not taking dictation, they are not taking speed work on two written, they are not taking real life, they never dream of such a thing as comparing in their hand.

We mean every word we say and we are prepared to back up every statement. Hundreds of us across sea to support this system are ready. Our pupils will be in the position of comparing in their hand before people of other systems can read their own names. Call and have a show to your own eyes for the real thing.
