TOWN NEWS.

Rev. Thomas Siman and family are spending their Thanksgiving in Boston. They will return next week.

Mrs. R. J. Smith of Springfield, Mass. will preach in the town hall at 8 and 7 p. m. next Sunday. All are cordially invited to attend.

The poor box in St. James church was broken and pilfered of its contents last Friday night. Entrance was effected by breaking out a couple of small lights, turning the catch and raising the window. A very small amount of cash was realized.

Thomas Linton's best team ran away last Monday morning and crashed into E. C. Bishop's buggy, at the store of C. D. Strickland & Son, smashing it considerably. The horse tore down the hill to O. E. Mannell's market, where they were stopped.

ROBERT PALMER IMPROVING. Our readers will be pleased to learn that R. O. Cheney's condition is very much improved.

The title has been slowly turning in his favor for the past few days and now, his physicians and relatives have every hope of his ultimate recovery.

NEW STORE. Thomas P. Aitkin, the plumber, steam fitter, tin, sheet iron and copper worker who has occupied a store in the Spencer block on Depot Square for the past 16 years, is about to break ground for a new two story store building to be erected on Main street near Goetz's bakery.

Robert Palmer has the contract and will build the work as rapidly as the weather will permit and as soon as the building is ready, Mr. Aitkin will occupy it with his store business.

STEAMER SPRINGFIELD. TO BE WITHDRAWN. The steamer City of Springfield of the New York line will be withdrawn December 1. The steamer Hartford will continue regular trips until the close of navigation, leaving Hartford at 4 p. m. Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays. The leaving time from New York will be as usual, 9 p. m.

A glance over our local columns this week will show that Thanksgiving did not bring joy to several families in our midst, as the Unwelcome Messenger Death has visited their homes and turned them into places of mourning and tears, rather than of rejoicing and merry-making, as would be expected under proper circumstances at this time. In several of our homes there were vacant chairs at the table yesterday and loved ones were not present in their accustomed places to join in a Thanksgiving feast.

LECTURE ON PALESTINE. The next lecture in the Palestine course will be given by Rev. J. N. Wadsworth in the South M. E. church next Sunday evening, beginning at seven o'clock and the subject will be 'The Mount of Olives.' The Assumption of Our Lord, Eugene T. Foster will render the following selections after the lecture: Marche Pontificale, Lemaens; Pastoral in F. Wey; Vespers to King Manfred; Recluse; Carmina; Raft; Postlude in E. Flat, Roeder.

Persons who are interested in hearing the narrative of how the Mount of Olives appears to day, told by one who has been there, recently, and knows whereof he speaks, will do well to attend, as Mr. Wadsworth's personal experiences and observations are quite interesting.

Seats are free and all are cordially invited.

SEVERAL DIED. Edward McGrath, who lived near Woodland Park, was found dead in his bed last Sunday afternoon, about 3 o'clock, by his daughter, Mary McGrath. He lived alone and his daughters were in the habit of going there frequently to assist in keeping things in order for him and ministering to his wants, and this is how Mary came to discover that he was dead.

Medical Examiner Parker was summoned and cited pneumonia as having caused his death.

His funeral took place Tuesday morning, services being held in St. Bridget's church.

The bearers were John and Frank Sullivan, and Wm. and James Rutledge. Interment was in the Catholic cemetery.

He was 78 years of age and leaves four daughters, Misses Julia Sullivan, Mrs. James Rutledge, Mrs. John Malone and Miss Mary McGrath.

CARD OF THANKS. The children of the late John Hunsford wish hereby to publicly express their thanks to and appreciation of the relatives, neighbors and friends, who so kindly came forward and sympathized with them in the sad and sudden death of their dearly beloved father, and did all in their power to offer such comfort and consolation as was possible under the very painful circumstances.

TOWN NEWS.

The reception and entertainment by the American Mechanics of this town and the Royal Legion of Hartford, which is to take place in Apple's opera house on the 30th of this month, promises to be an attractive affair. Military are expected to appear in uniform. Dancing will be continued until 1.30 a. m.

Miss Annie B. Groswood are now employed by W. B. Cheney, packing Listerized Tooth Powder. Mr. Cheney has secured Messrs Park & Tilford of New York for his agents in that city and they will give it a heavy boom. It is already having a large sale.

C. Tiffany, our well known jeweler, is making a very handsome display of holiday goods this year. He gives some account of his stock in the new advertisement in this paper and to its contents our readers are referred, as it will be of service in determining what to select for a Christmas present. But one half of the story is not told in the advertisement. You must go there and see for yourselves.

If anyone doubts that Watkins Bros. are in a position to do the piano business of this town, let him step into their store now, and see the display of these goods they are making at this time. It is the finest they ever exhibited and deserving of the approbation and patronage of our townpeople.

The newly elected officers of the Ladies Auxiliary of the A. O. U. W. were chosen last Sunday as follows: President, Mrs. Ellen McCann, vice president, Miss Scallons, recording secretary, Alice Cheney, financial secretary, Mrs. Patrick Ryan, treasurer, Nellie McGinn. These officers will meet at the first regular meeting in January by County President Kelleher of Hartford.

The fall text of the president's message to congress, will be found on page 2 of THE NEWS, and persons who do not take a daily paper, and there are many such, will find a considerable amount of reading matter on our inner pages, week after week, that will be interesting, entertaining and instructive. Talma's sermon is given in this paper every week, and will repay a careful reading. The feature alone is worth the subscription price of the paper.

Thomas J. Scott has started an undertaking business at 207 Main street, opposite the Catholic church in South Manchester and has all the equipments necessary to carry on the business in the first class form. He is a practical embalmer, has had a large experience with the well known firm of Scott & Smith on Church street, Hartford, and is fully qualified in every way to attend to every necessary detail. Mr. Scott will be pleased to meet any one requiring his services and will give prompt, careful and courteous attention to all.

Beginning Wednesday January 1, 1896, the mails for the several post-offices in this town will be carried by the Train way Company instead of the New England Railroad company as at present. This will dispense with the services of Chas. A. Jones, who brings the mail from the station to South Manchester and return. John Gorman will, in all probability, continue to carry the Highland Park mails as heretofore and the mails need still be carried to the Green by heaver, as the troley cars do not run there as yet.

Laban Adams, proprietor of the West Side Store on Pine street, corner of Pleasant, is making a fine strike on corn at present. He will give you your choice of three well known brands of patent flours for $4.50 a barrel. He also has the choicest sweet mixed pickles in town. They are fine. He expects that you will call and get some, or order them brought to you.

H. M. Blythe's annual holiday announcement appears in another column and to its contents our readers are respectfully referred. As is well known, Mr. Blythe always carries a good stock of novelties suitable for Christmas presents, his is the original variety store, he keeps his stock fully up to the times and patrons may be sure of finding a nice assortment of the latest and best of the market affords.

I haven't any gold filled watch cases that I can warrant for 25 cents, nor do I have gold filled watch cases, of the very best material, that I can warrant for 20 and 25 cents and watch movements that contain 15, 17 and 19 jewels.

WINTER IS HERE.

A snow storm set in early yesterday and continued through the day and greater part of the night, covering the ground to the depth of about six inches. The ground is frozen hard and in good condition for snow.

The snow plows were out yesterday on the sidewalks, for the first time and a few sleighs have been skimming along today.

Travel on the tramway was somewhat interfered with yesterday, but this morning everything is going along the same as usual.

The electric power was called into requisition yesterday and cleared the tracks to its good shape. It has two 50 horse power motors and can push a very heavy load. It was sent out several times during the night also.

"TONY." The Manchester Dramatic Club will present the comic drama "Tony" in Cheney hall Friday evening, Dec. 13, with the following cast of characters. Tony Warren, a many-sided character, who has an honest heart beneath his ragged coat. Fred Stave, Wary Wayside, his henchman, "too tired to work."

Albert Funk, James Barclay, hard hearted and vindictive. William Crawford, Philip Warburton, a social leader. William A. Naylor, Judge Van Cramer of the Supreme Court. Henry Northton, Warden Barrows, of Sing Sing prison. Dr. F. A. Street, Jackson, the negro footman.

Richard Malkin, Lena, the reputed daughter of Judge Van Cramer. Miss Clara Parker, Mrs. Van Oringer, the Judge's wife. Miss Bertha Stave, Miss Sedley, who takes pleasure in being disagreeable. Miss Gertrude Johnson Kelly, with a soul above such.

Miss Eva Malkin, The young people have been carefully rehearsing this play and will endeavor to give the public an agreeable and diverting entertainment.

NOW FOR THE MASQUERADE. The opening masquerade ball of the season will take place in Apple's opera house next Tuesday evening, and Enoch, the customer will be there on Monday and Tuesday to supply costumes and masks. Coats' orchestra will furnish music. Admission will be 50 cents each, and 25 cents for children. Reserved for maskers until the usual time, when all will be permitted to join in the dance. Real horses will take part in the procession and a number of new comical features will be shown that have never been seen in town. Chas. A. Sperber is chairman of the committee of arrangements. Frank Goetz is floor director and will be assisted by a number of gentlemanly aids. Special toilet cases will carry patron's worth after the ball.

MRS. FALLOW'S DEATH

Jane Shearer Fallow, widow of the late John Fallow, died at the residence of her son James, at 5.45 a. m. last Wednesday, aged 79 years four months. She had been feeble for a long time and since her husband's death, which occurred about a year and a half ago, had the constant attendance of her daughter, Mrs. Agnes Williams. She had a general breaking down in health as well as old age, which united in bringing on her end.

Her funeral will take place this Friday afternoon. Services will be held at the residence, 65 Main street, by Rev. E. P. Pharoan at 3 o'clock. Interment will be in the Buckland cemetery.

The bearers will be her two sons, James and Guy Fallow and her two grandsons, George Fallow and Robert Williams.

She leaves four children, James Fallow and Mrs. Agnes Williams of this place, Guy Fallow of Hartford and Mrs. Keller of Princeton, Pozza County, Illinois. She was a native of Glasford, Lanarkshire, Scotland, had resided in this town for the last 42 years, was a devoted member of the North Methodist church, a woman of retiring disposition and very fond of being at home.

This characteristic prevented her from moving about among the public and consequently her acquaintanceship was somewhat limited, but she was a devoted friend and kind neighbor to those with whom she had dealings.

Chester D. Fiske has resigned his position as city editor of the Hartford Telegram and taken a more lucrative and responsible position as managing editor and director of the Willimantic Journal. Mr. Fiske was formerly editor of the Rockville Journal, has had editorial experience on the New York Evening Sun, and also on the Hartford Post. He is well and favorably known by the newspaper fraternity of the state and has the best wishes of his fellow laborers in the journalistic field.
