TOWN NEWS.

FIRE AT CHARTER OAK STREET. Through the prompt work of neighbors a fire which originated in the lower tenement of E. T. Carrier's store building on Charter Oak street, was checked yesterday evening and the building saved.

The wife of a blowing a good breeze at the time and conditions were just right for a good big blaze, had it not been discovered early.

It is reported that Mr. Carrier was about home at the time and some of the neighbors and others who leave the silk mill before dark in the evening and by passing along and by active hunting around with pails of water, the fire was subdued before any very great damage was done.

The occupants of the tenement in question were at home, and Mr. Carrier had to be in a window in order to get at the fire.

W. J. Chappell was on the scene about as early as anyone and rendered yeoman's service in giving the alarm as well as extinguishing the flames.

It was a narrow escape from what might have proven a very disastrous fire.

SOUTH M. E. CHURCH NOTES. On the Sunday before Christmas Rev. J. S. Ward worth will preach a Christmas sermon and the choir will sing Christmas carols.

In the evening of the same day, at the regular Sunday service, there will be some vocal and instrumental music, under the direction of Miss Fort.

R. N. Stanley, who is chairman of the committee on entertainment, will direct a concert in the evening of the same day.

A reunion meeting of the Epworth League of this town, Burnside and Wapping will be held next Thursday in Wapping and it is hoped that a number from here will attend.

The meetings for revival in the East Glastonbury church are continuing with a great deal of interest. Rev. J. S. Wardworth has been there twice and members of the church here have also attended.

LECTURE ON RUSSIA.

Joseph L. Barber, the well known Hartford lawyer, will deliver his new lecture, "Little Things of Great Russia," Dec. 16 days, $1.00 per year.

It will be remembered that Mr. Barber delivered this lecture in Hartford recently and that it was pronounced a fine success.

As is well known here, he is a witty ready and pleasing speaker, a logical reasoner, a keen observer, and as he has lately returned from a tour of Russia it will be very interesting to hear him relate his observations on the customs and characteristics of the Russian people.

Reserved seats are now on sale at Tiffany's and Rose's and can also be had from members of the company.

The price of admission is 25 cents. There is but this one admission fee, but those who call early can have their choice of sittings.

TWO LIVES SAVED.

Mrs. Phoebe Thomas, of Junction City, Ill. was told by her doctors she had Consumption and that there was no hope for her, but two bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery completely cured her and she says it saved her life.

Mr. Thos. Eggers, 139 Florida St., San Francisco, suffered from a dreadful cold, approaching Consumption, tried without result everything else, then bought one bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful. It is such results, of which there are samples, that prove the wonderful efficacy of this medicine in Coughs and Colds. Free trial bottles of Cheney's Drug Store. Regular size 50c and $1.00.

TOWN COURT.

Enosh Williams was arrested in Coventry by Sheriff Hall last Saturday and brought before Judge Downs to answer to the charge of having stolen $50.00 from Annie Francis and an orchestra and a hat from Harry Miller. He pleaded guilty, returned the stolen goods, was fined $5.00 and costs, the latter amounting to $41.50, and was sentenced to jail for sixty days. All three men were colored. This is the man that was arrested on suspicion in Andover early last week and liberated by the constable before Sheriff Hall could reach there. The constable in question is unusually high owing to the amount of chasing he and his partner have done for him.

Lewis Turner, white, and James Hill, colored, were charged with intoxication and breach of the peace, both pleaded guilty, but no evidence was adduced to satisfy the jury that the charges were well founded and fines of $1.00 and costs were imposed upon each.

William Fitzgerald got himself up to Sheriff Hall last Monday as he had been on the lookout for him for several weeks past. He pleaded guilty to the charges of vagrancy and breach of the peace, was fined $5 and costs, as well as expending the day in jail for the former.

The popularity of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and the high esteem in which it is held here as to believe it to be an article of great worth and merit. We have the pleasure of giving the experience of three prominent citizens of Rockford, Conn., in the use of the Remedy. Mr. A. V. Trull says: "I have always received prompt relief when I used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and my cold." Mr. J. M. Hatcher says: "For three years I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in my family and its results have always been satisfactory." For Sale at W. B. Cheney's Drug Store, South Manchester, and C. H. Rose's Drug Store, Manchester.

LARGER THAN EVER. The grand military ball of Company G, C. N. G. will take place Thursday evening January 23, and promises to eclipse any effort in that line the boys have ever made.

Poppe's military band, under the direction of Frank R. Seltzer will give a concert and also furnish music for dancing, and Professor Ryan of Springfield will furnish the orchestra.

The ball of last year will be pleasantly remembered by all who attended, as having been a very pleasing social event.

It is often a mystery how a cold has been "caught." The fact is, however, that when the blood is poor and the system depressed, one becomes peculiarly liable to disease. When the body is taken up, then it will be impossible for him to be with it.

A reunion meeting of the Epworth League of this town, Burnside and Wapping will be held next Thursday in Wapping and it is hoped that a number from here will attend.

The meetings for revival in the East Glastonbury church are continuing with a great deal of interest. Rev. J. S. Wardworth has been there twice and members of the church here have also attended.

The child of the Junior Epworth League are fitting out a Christmas box to send to the Epworth League in Providence, R. I. It will contain dolls, toys, cloth, books, etc. to be given to poor children who have no parents or relatives to furnish such things to gladen the hearts of which hearts at the Christmas time.

Holiday Novelties. ATTENTION.

I will be in line as usual this year with a first class stock of novelties for the holidays, will have an up-to-date line in Cheney hall Wednesday evening, Dec. 16 days, $1.00 per year. It will be very interesting to hear him relate his observations on the customs and characteristics of the Russian people.

Reserved seats are now on sale at Tiffany's and Rose's and can also be had from members of the company.

The price of admission is 25 cents. There is but this one admission fee, but those who call early can have their choice of sittings.

R. M. BLYTH'S

Original Variety Store, 307 Main Street. A. E. Kilpatrick, of Filmore, Cal. had the misfortune to have his leg caught between a cart and a stone and badly bruised. Ordinarily he would have been laid up for two or three weeks, but says: "After using one bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm I began to feel better, and in three days was entirely well. The peculiar soothing qualities which Chamberlain's Pain Balm possesses I have never noticed in any other liniment. I take New Discovery completely cured her and she says it saved her life."

Mr. Thos. Eggers, 139 Florida St., San Francisco, suffered from a dreadful cold, approaching Consumption, tried without result everything else, then bought one bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. I WISH TO SAY.

That I have been on the road in this immediate vicinity those many years selling jewelry, the people know that I have always sold them right.

It is my intention to keep right along in this business. I am not working for a few day only, but am building up a reputation for myself for the future.

My goods are all of the best quality and I sell them at a low price. I will be in Child's block, School Street, Main, every Saturday and Tuesday evening until further notice, with a nice line of watches, silver rings, etc. and will be pleased to have all my friends give me a call.

Chas. H. Keeney, Jeweler, Buckland, Conn.

OLD PEOPLE. Old people who require medicine to regulate the bowels and kidneys will find the true remedy in Electric Bitters. This medicine does not stimulate the system, but acts as a tonic and alternative, acting gently on the stomach and bowels, and giving tone and vigor to the system.

Electric Bitters is an excellent aperient and purgative, and is the best family medicine.

It is a narrow escape from what might have proven a very disastrous fire.

TOWN NEWS. The Grand Army boys will give their opening ball and social in the Cheney hall Tuesday evening next and a jolly time is anticipated. The veterans always exert themselves to make matters pleasant for their patrons and have earned the reputation of being good entertainers. The admission fee is 25 cents as usual and an army supper is included. They expect to see all their old friends and many new ones.

We noticed this week in the Catholic cemetery, quite a nicely designed sarcophagus monument on the family lot of the late Patrick Dougherty. It is of light colored granite, and the gold letters give it a rich and pleasing effect. We understand that the work was executed by P. J. Brown, the well known monument dealer, at 78 Windsor street, Hartford.

Haling Brothers have bought the general merchandise business of George F. Day and are now running it on their own account. They will overhaul matters in general and in the course of a few days will be prepared to give the public some bargains, full particulars of which will be daily made known. Their new advertisement will be found elsewhere in this paper.

Probably no teacher of shorthand in New England has placed so large a percentage of graduates as Mr. C. C. Credman, of Credman's Shorthand school. Mr. Credman's former field of action as a teacher in Worcester, Mass., and most of his graduates are in that city and Boston, where they are holding fine positions. In selecting a school, it is well to inquire whether or not its pupils retain good positions.

B. C. Apelin has been to New York and bought a number of articles in the way of holiday presents that will be appreciated by people who have no money to squander and want to get the greatest value for their cash, besides purchasing something for their friends that will be of practical service to them long after the holidays are past. See his new advertisement in another column.

The masquerade ball given by Fenonia Lodge, D. O. H. in Apelin's opera house last Tuesday evening was a very pleasant affair. An enjoyable time was had, a number of novel features were introduced and the lodge paid all expenses. The entrance of the prince and princess, carried by the bride and groom, was a very attractive feature and they were very rich and attractive costumes. Captain J. York of the Salvation Army died of typhoid fever in Boston this week. He was married to Lieut. Edith Berkeley in Waterbury, Oct. 29. He was but 27 years of age. He will be remembered as having been stationed here for a short time last Spring. He was an intimate friend and fellow countryman of Captain Snyder. He was stationed in Boston at the time of his death.

C. E. HOUSE. 241 Main Street, South Manchester, Conn. Additional local news on pages 4 and 5. Next Wednesday will be Christmas day. Clarence M. Wilcox of Newport, R. I. was in town yesterday. Clinton Bissell of Yale college is home for the Christmas vacation. Harry Burke is home from Yale college for the Christmas holidays.

Medical college is enjoying his Christmas vacation at his home here. Fred. Jones and James White are no longer in the employ of H. G. and R. Cheney. The infant son of W. J. Burke died yesterday afternoon and was buried today. M. F. Tushley is still a very sick man, but is thought to be holding his own and hopes are now entertained of his recovery. Mr. Williams, who is employed in the store at Backland, is very ill, and is threatened with typhoid fever. Dr. Bradley is treating him. T. P. Aitkin's new building on Main street is being rapidly pushed and he expects to be able to occupy it about the new year. Herald Strong is reported to be in a dying condition, at the residence of his sister, Mrs. Mary Treat of School street. He is suffering with consumption. The Sons of Temperance will have an election of officers in Cheney hall this Friday evening. The temperature dropped down to three degrees above zero in this vicinity last Tuesday morning. From a temperature of three degrees above zero on Tuesday morning, the streets were running with slush from melting ice and snow by Wednesday noon. The son of Wm Rogers of Prospect street is quite ill with various troubles and is under Dr. Bradley's care. He is about fourteen years of age. The American Mechanics will give a fine entertainment, drill and dance in Apelin's opera house this Friday evening. You are all expected to be present. Mrs. Walter Elliott of School street left town last Saturday for Fall River, where she is visiting her daughter, Mrs. John Fox. They are working on half time at H. E. Rogers' east mill, beginning last Monday. It is expected that this Friday evening and open again on Tuesday morning, Dec. 31. The school will be in session on New Year's Day, as this is not generally observed as a holiday hereabouts and the shorter vacation will enable the school to close earlier in the heat of next June. Holiday trade is now booming and our merchants are kept busy supplying customers. The business prospects in this town are considerably improved over last year at this time and the outlook for the coming year is still brighter, so that taking it all together, people are feeling better natured and this helps business very much. Mrs. Wm Carroll of 41 Woodland street died last Sunday, aged 67 years. Her funeral took place last Tuesday morning, a requiem high mass being sung by Rev. R. C. Gragan, in St. Bridget's church. Interment was in the Catholic cemetery. Thomas J. Scott, the new undertaker, was funeral director. Deceased lived with her daughter, Mrs. Michael Manamy, from whose residence the funeral occurred. Thomas J. Scott is here now and attending to his undertaking business at 207 Main street, opposite the Catholic church, where he can be found at all hours of the day and night. He wishes the public to know that night calls will be attended from the time he is called, as far as possible but he is suffering greatly from his injuries. Irving L. Holt of Thomaston, Conn. succeeds Albert Beecher as A. H. Skinner's order man. He comes very highly recommended, having had experience in the business, and with a large line to sell from, should build up a good trade. Richard McClellan of New York City and Miss Mary Gillin of this place will be united in marriage by Rev. J. S. Wadsworth, at high noon on Christmas Day. The young couple will make their home in New York City. You can save money by buying toy* at Geo. F. Day's old stand. Christmas cards and booklets. Large variety at Cheney's Sons. Books! Books! Don't miss the low prices on books at Cheney's Sons. B. F. Ball has a choice line of cigars, tobaccos and smokers' supplies in general, for the holidays. Give him a call.

TOWN NEWS. Miss Cynthia M. Cheney died last Wednesday at the residence of Edgar T. Hale, 41 Main street. She was 78 years of age. Her funeral took place this Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment was in the East cemetery. Watkins Brothers were funeral directors. Calling Brothers are having a marked down sale of various goods, as can be seen by their new advertisement in this paper, which they are selling at and below cost. Last Monday evening Sunset Bazaar elected the following officers: No. 10 grand, Mrs. Charles Ratenberg; vice grand, Mrs. W. S. Hutchins; recording secretary, Iphigene Hardick; financial secretary, Grace Russell; treasurer, Mrs. W. B. Lull. The town court has fallen into a state of immobility, due to the fact that there were no cases on trial here since last week. Monday, this is an excellent record, all things considered. The steamer of the Hartford and New York Transportation company have discontinued their trips on the Connecticut river for the present season, owing to the close of navigation by ice. Due notice will be given of resumption. James Taylor of Pittsburg, Pa. is here for the holiday vacation, with his parents on Cottage street. He has been recently and will endeavor to re-convert to the faith. Cars started to cross the Hartford bridge last Monday. The bridge is being strengthened and it is expected that it will be all right until Spring, unless a heavy January thaws in and breaks up the ice. The regular meeting of Orford Lodge No. 54, A. O. U. W. will be held in Cheney hall next Monday evening, instead of next Thursday evening. Election of officers for the ensuing year will then take place. Rev. J. A. Biddle's new book entitled "Social Regeneration" can be purchased of Harry Carter at Widdow's drug store, as he has the agency for this town. The book is one of the best columns some weeks ago, but it was not on sale at that time, by Mr. Carter. The new time table that went into effect on the New England railroad last Sunday is very inconvenient for people here and causes very general dissatisfaction among patrons of the road. It is hoped that another change will soon be made for the better. The ninth district school will close for the Christmas holidays this Friday evening and open again on Tuesday morning, Dec. 31. The school will be in session on New Year's Day, as this is not generally observed as a holiday hereabouts and the shorter vacation will enable the school to close earlier in the heat of next June.
