TOWN NEWS.

The Grand Army boys will give their opening picnic and social in the Cheney hall Tuesday evening next and a jolly time is anticipated. The veterans always exert themselves to make matters pleasant for their patrons and have earned the reputation of being good entertainers. The admission fee is 25 cents as usual and an army supper is included. They expect to see all their old friends and many new ones.

We noticed this week in the Catholic cemetery, quite a nicely designed sarcophagus monument on the family lot of the late Patrick Dougherty. It is of light colored granite, and the gold letters give it a rich and pleasing effect. We understand that the work was executed by P. J. Brown, the well known monument dealer, at 78 Windsor street, Hartford.

Haling Brothers have bought the general merchandise business of George F. Day and are now running it on their own account. They will overhaul matters in general and in the course of a few days will be prepared to give the public some bargains, full particulars of which will be daily made known. Their new advertisement will be found elsewhere in this paper.

Probably no teacher of shorthand in New England has placed so large a percentage of graduates as Mr. C. C. Credman, of Credman's Shorthand school. Mr. Credman's former field of action as a teacher in Worcester, Mass., and most of his graduates are in that city and Boston, where they are holding fine positions. In selecting a school, it is well to inquire whether or not its pupils retain good positions.

B. C. Apelin has been to New York and bought a number of articles in the way of holiday presents that will be appreciated by people who have no money to squander and want to get the greatest value for their cash, besides purchasing something for their friends that will be of practical service to them long after the holidays are past. See his new advertisement in another column.

The masquerade ball given by Fenonia Lodge, D. O. H. in Apelin's opera house last Tuesday evening was a very pleasant affair. An enjoyable time was had, a number of novel features were introduced and the lodge paid all expenses. The entrance of the prince and princess, carried by the bride and groom, was a very attractive feature and they were very rich and attractive costumes.

Captain J. York of the Salvation Army died of typhoid fever in Boston this week. He was married to Lieut. Edith Berkeley in Waterbury, Oct. 29. He was but 27 years of age. He will be remembered as having been stationed here for a short time last Spring. He was an intimate friend and fellow countryman of Captain Snyder. He was stationed in Boston at the time of his death.

TOWN NEWS.

Additional local news on pages 4 and 5. Next Wednesday will be Christmas day. Clarence M. Wilcox of Newport, R. I. was in town yesterday. Clinton Bissell of Yale college is home for the Christmas vacation. Harry Burke is home from Yale college for the Christmas holidays. Leroy Hagenow of the Baltimore Medical college is enjoying his Christmas vacation at his home here. Fred. Jones and James White are no longer in the employ of H. G. and R. Cheney. The infant son of W. J. Burke died yesterday afternoon and was buried today.

M. F. Tushley is still a very sick man, but is thought to be holding his own and hopes are now entertained of his recovery. Mr. Williams, who is employed in the store at Backland, is very ill, and is threatened with typhoid fever. Dr. Bradley is treating him. T. P. Aitkin's new building on Main street is being rapidly pushed and he expects to be able to occupy it about the new year. Herald Strong is reported to be in a dying condition, at the residence of his sister, Mrs. Mary Treat of School street. He is suffering with consumption.

The Sons of Temperance will have an election of officers in Cheney hall this Friday evening. The temperature dropped down to three degrees above zero in this vicinity last Tuesday morning. From a temperature of three degrees above zero on Tuesday morning, the streets were running with slush from melting ice and snow by Wednesday noon. The son of Wm Rogers of Prospect street is quite ill with influenza trouble and is under Dr. Bradley's care. He is about fourteen years of age. The American Mechanics will give a fine entertainment, drill and dance in Apelin's opera house this Friday evening. You are all expected to be present. Mrs. Walter Elliott of School street left town last Saturday for Fall River, where she is visiting her daughter, Mrs. John Fox.

They are working on half time at H. E. Rogers' east mill, beginning last Monday. It is expected that this Friday evening and open again on Tuesday morning, Dec. 31. The school will be in session on New Year's Day, as this is not generally observed as a holiday hereabouts and the shorter vacation will enable the school to close earlier in the heat of next June. Holiday trade is now booming and our merchants are kept busy supplying customers. The business prospects in this town are considerably improved over last year at this time and the outlook for the coming year is still brighter, so that taking it all together, people are feeling better natured and this helps business very much.

Mrs. Wm Carroll of 41 Woodland street died last Sunday aged 67 years. Her funeral took place last Tuesday morning, a requiem high mass being sung by Rev. R. C. Gragan, in St. Bridget's church. Interment was in the Catholic cemetery. Thomas J. Scott, the new undertaker, was funeral director. Deceased lived with her daughter, Mrs. Michael Manning, from whose residence the funeral occurred.

Thomas J. Scott is here now and attending to his undertaking business at 207 Main street, opposite the Catholic church, where he can be found at all hours of the day and night. He wishes the public to know that night calls will be attended from the time he is called as possible but he is suffering greatly from his injuries. Irving L. Holt of Thomaston, Conn. succeeds Albert Beecher as A. H. Skinner's order man. He comes very highly recommended, having had experience in the business, and with a large line to sell from, should build up a good trade. Richard McClellan of New York City and Miss Mary Gillin of this place will be united in marriage by Rev. J. S. Wadsworth, at high noon on Christmas Day. The young couple will make their home in New York City.

You can save money by buying toy's at Geo. F. Day's old stand. Christmas cards and booklets. Large variety at Cheney's Store. Books! Books! Don't miss the low prices on books at Cheney's Store. B. F. Ball has a choice line of cigars, tobaccos and smokers' supplies in general, for the holidays. Give him a call.

Miss Cynthia M. Cheney died last Wednesday at the residence of Edgar T. Hale, 41 Main street. She was 78 years of age. Her funeral took place this Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment was in the East cemetery. Watkins Brothers were funeral directors. Calling Brothers are having a marked down sale of various goods, as can be seen by their new advertisement in this paper, which they are selling at and below cost. Last Monday evening Sunset Blechak elected the following officers: No. 10 grand, Mrs. Charles Ratenberg; vice grand, Mrs. W. S. Hutchins; recording secretary, Joseph Hardick; financial secretary, Grace Russell; treasurer, Mrs. W. B. Lull.

The town court has fallen into a state of immobility, so to speak. There were no cases on trial here since last week. Monday, this is an excellent record, all things considered. The steamer of the Hartford and New York Transportation company have discontinued their trips on the Connecticut river for the present season, owing to the close of navigation by ice. Due notice will be given of resumption. James Taylor of Pittsburg, Pa. is here for the holiday vacation, with his parents on Cottage street. He has been recently and will endeavor to recuperate here. Cars started to cross the Hartford bridge last Monday. The bridge is being strengthened and it is expected that it will be all right until Spring, unless a heavy January thaws in and breaks up the ice. The regular meeting of Orford Lodge No. 54, A. O. U. W. will be held in Cheney hall next Monday evening, instead of next Thursday evening. Election of officers for the ensuing year will then take place.

Rev. J. A. Biddle's new book entitled "Social Regeneration" can be purchased of Harry Carter at Widdow's drug store, as he has the agency for this town. The book is one of the best columns some weeks ago, but it was not on sale at that time, by Mr. Carter. The new time table that went into effect on the New England railroad last Sunday is very convenient for people here, and causes very general dissatisfaction among patrons of the road. It is hoped that another change will soon be made for the better.

The ninth district school will close for the Christmas holidays this Friday evening and open again on Tuesday morning, Dec. 31. The school will be in session on New Year's Day, as this is not generally observed as a holiday hereabouts and the shorter vacation will enable the school to close earlier in the heat of next June. Holiday trade is now booming and our merchants are kept busy supplying customers. The business prospects in this town are considerably improved over last year at this time and the outlook for the coming year is still brighter, so that taking it all together, people are feeling better natured and this helps business very much.

Secretary Carlisle's Treasury Report Submitted to Congress. WOULD RETIRE THE GREENBACKS

The annual report of the Hon. John G. Carlisle, Secretary of the Treasury, has been submitted to Congress. The Secretary estimates a deficiency for the fiscal year of $47,000,000, due, he says, to the Supreme Court, which has declared the income tax unconstitutional.

Recently a court tried a bright, promising boy of fifteen, who had been charged with the robbery of a jewelry store. The boy was acquitted, and his father, who had spent nearly a life among the Indian schools, says that the teachers frequently have to interfere on account of the severity of the sentence.
