TOWN NEWS.

TOOK HIS OWN LIFE.

A tragedy occurred here on Christmas evening the life of which never happened in the history of this town before and the occurrence was in an incredibly short time after it happened.

The facts in the case as nearly as we could gather them, are these: George Mallon of 19 Pearl Street, met Fred Williams, a colored man, who was on St. Grayson, on the street, and was making a tour of the town paying and singing for invited him to enter into the choir, Mrs. Mallon meaning to prepare and give him some thing to eat.

The darkey played and sang, and ate and was making merry as he had been doing all day long. Mrs. Mallon and a young man were enjoying the sport and invited some of their little friends in to join them, among others being the little daughter of Thomas Ryan of No. 22 Pearl Street.

After Mrs. Mallon had given Williams something to eat, she went over to Ryan's and was speaking with them about the darkey and his playing, when all of a sudden Ryan said something about the darkey being a nice, rascal, and being after him, and rushed upstairs.

Special Town Meeting. Notice is hereby given that there will be a special town meeting at South Manchester, Conn., on Friday, January 1st, 1896, at 7 o'clock in the afternoon at Town Hall.

APPROPRIATE THEIR PASTOR.

A nice Christmas program was rendered by the Sunday school children of the South M. E. church on Christmas evening, under the direction of R. N. Stanley, superintendent, consisting of singing, recitations, etc.

President Chapman, Superintendent Snow, Conductor Fish and a number of other trainway people rushed to the spot and it was seen that the man was not dead, but still held the deadly weapon firmly grasped in his right hand.

This was taken away from him and he was turned over on the stoop of the building, while Deputy Sheriff Hall, Seltman Watkins and Doctor Tinker were summoned, by telephone.

Word was sent to Mrs. Ryan of what had occurred, and she arrived with all possible speed to the scene of the tragedy, her cries, lamentations and sobs inspired the doctor to do something.

A lady and board secretary a stretch car and he was borne to his residence. Rev. D. A. Haggerty was called in and administered the last rites of the church to the dying man. He was so weak that he could not sit up, but he would speak and sing softly before he died.

At the time Williams was shot, Mrs. Mallon was sitting close by and felt the force of the powder in his face. There were no other persons in the room when Mrs. Mallon shot him.

From a letter written by Rev. J. Gunderson, of Dinwiddie, Va., we are permitted to make the extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost miraculous in the case of my wife."

In the Swedish Lutheran church Christmas exercises were held at half past five in the morning on Christmas Day, as is the usual Swedish custom, on at 10:45 a. m., and at 7 p. m.

TOWN COURT.

Michael Cunningham was charged with intoxication and breach of the peace at the South M. E. church on Christmas evening, under the direction of R. N. Stanley, superintendent, consisting of singing, recitations, etc.

There was one feature of the exercises that was not set down in the program and was a good deal of surprise. Along towards the close of the exercises Superintendent Stanley called upon Edward E. Agard saying that he should be heard at that time.

This was taken away from him and he was turned over on the stoop of the building, while Deputy Sheriff Hall, Seltman Watkins and Doctor Tinker were summoned, by telephone.

Word was sent to Mrs. Ryan of what had occurred, and she arrived with all possible speed to the scene of the tragedy, her cries, lamentations and sobs inspired the doctor to do something.

Faithful to the Last.
A touching little story of a dog's devotion comes from Chicago. The poor old woman lived in a little house, with no other companionship than a white bulldog. A few days ago she died, and the dog, which she had not appeared, and, fearing she was ill, they looked in at the window and saw her dead body lying on the bed. The faithful dog lay across the door and refused to let any one in the house. For a long time no entrance could be effected, as they hesitated to shoot the dog; but at last one of the best acquainted neighbors got a piece of meat and enticed the almost starved beast into an outchicken, where he was shut up. The dog seemed to realize that he had been tricked, and, leaving the meat, whined most piteously at the door until the corpse of his mistress had been taken away.—New Orleans Item.

A Worthy Whittman.
Dr. Marcus Whitman is one of America's country heroes. He is remembered in an Indian measure now pending in the Senate. He was born in Walla, Wash., November 29, 1847. The story of his life was written by Washington and his interview with Daniel Webster, then Secretary of State, has become a legend. He saved our country the great Northwest, and of which three States, rich in resources, have been carved, and especially the record of his self-forgoing zeal, hardihood and real heroism, form a thrilling chapter in our country's history.

The thought of establishing a college in honor of Whitman's memory originated with Rev. Dr. Ellis, a missionary of the Presbyterian denomination, who had been in Walla a year the whole country has been aroused to do justice to the memory of one who added three stars to our flag.

A Chicago philanthropist, Dr. D. K. Pearson, has offered $50,000 on condition that $150,000 more be raised before January 1, 1896. The friends in the State of Washington have responded with a magnificent liberality. The late Mrs. J. B. Whitman, of the East, added $50,000, others, mainly in the East, added $50,000. The National Association of Manufacturers contributed $100,000. The Board of Education of the city of Chicago contributed $100,000 to the fund last week. It is the desire of the committee that the National Association of Manufacturers and Pennsylvania be asked to contribute to the great good to be accomplished by an educational institution of this character.—Farm, Field and Forest.

UPHOLD BY THE SENATE.
The Venezuelan Commission Bill Quickly Passed.
SLUMP IN WALL STREET.

Announcements Proposed by the Committee on Foreign Relations Are Voted Down, and the House Bill is Passed Without a Dissenting Voice—Comments of the Foreign Press—Brazil Congratulations.

Without amendment, and without a dissenting vote, the House bill providing for the relief of Ferdinand Hitt, was passed by the United States Senate.

It was reported in Washington that a new cabinet was being formed.

AMAZON OF THE TRIBUNATES. This opening a double route to the sea. Besides this, the large size of the lake, which is the only one of its kind in the world, and the fact that it is the only one of its kind in the world, and the fact that it is the only one of its kind in the world.

There are three kinds of soil in Venezuela—agricultural, grazing and woodlands—of which only 300 square miles are under cultivation.

MESSAGE OF EMERGENCY.
The President Again Appeals for Financial Legislation.
HE ASKS IMMEDIATE ACTION.

President Cleveland has again appealed to Congress for the enactment of legislation for the relief of the Treasury and the assistance of the National credit. The heavy withdrawal of gold from the banks, and the consequent suspension of specie payments, have rendered it necessary for the President to suspend the operation of the gold clause in the United States currency.

He says, His Grace St. Francis and his Co. Present Any Sacrifice of the People's Interests or Impairment of Public Credit.

shall we whip
Whip a poorly nourished horse when he is thoroughly tired. He may go faster for a few rods, but his condition is soon the worse for it. Better stop and give him food. Food gives force. If you are thin, without appetite; pale, and easily exhausted, why further whip the body? Apply Scott's Emulsion, a more permanent food. Build something which will take up the tissues and supply force to the muscular, digestive, and nervous systems.

Scott's Emulsion of Cod-liver Oil, with hypophosphites, meets every demand. The cod-liver oil is a food of great value. It produces muscular, digestive, and nervous force without the aid of any whip. Every gain is substantial. The hypophosphites give strength and stability to the nervous system. The improved appetite, richer blood, and better flesh come to stay.

Just as good is never as good as Scott's Emulsion.

Glenwood Ranges

Have been tried, and tried again and have never been found wanting. You will find plenty of them among your neighbors. Ask their opinion of them. They will tell you they are the best they ever used.

GLENWOOD PARLOR HEATERS.

They cannot be made any better and the manufacturers would not do anything to lower their standard or value, as they take their position among the best in the land. They cannot be excelled in Beauty, Construction or Operation.

I have also those Handsomely Ornamented, Nickel Trimmed, Acorn Parlor Stoves.

If you are thinking of having your house heated, call and let me tell you something about what I have done, right here in this town, with the Glenwood Hot Air Furnaces.

TOWN NEWS.

Christmas Day was celebrated with much merrymaking at the home of John Lunden. All the members of his family were present, as were also guests from Pennsylvania, Georgia, Bridgeport and Gladstone, as well as neighbors and friends here in town. A genuine old fashioned New England Christmas feast was enjoyed and a very merry Christmas time. Dr. United States Marshall Emory F. Siding of Bridgeport was among the guests.

Advertisements from Manchester, Conn., Dec. 23, 1895. Miss Mary Burke, Miss Cowles care of Mrs. James Martin, Emory & Co., Mrs. Clara Lunden, Miss Mabel Owen, Miss Sarah Tapley, CHARLES F. BALCH, P. M.

Louis Montgomery left for New York yesterday where he joined the Wesleyan Glee and Glee Club and will accompany them on their southern tour. They will give a concert at the Lyceum, N. Y. this Friday night, then take the steamer for Norfolk, Va. They have concert books for the following dates and places: Portsmouth, Dec. 20; Norfolk, Dec. 31; Old Point Comfort, Jan. 1; Newport News, Jan. 2; Richmond, Jan. 3; Baltimore, Jan. 4 and 6.

Advertisements from South Manchester, Conn., Dec. 24, 1895. Miss Sarah Black, Mrs. Edna G. Brown, Samuel Caldwell, J. E. D. H. Jones, Andrew Eckhart, Mrs. Johnson, Miss Emily Leland, Miss Anna Olson, Mrs. Mary O'Connor, Mrs. Eliza O'Connor, Mrs. Peterson, Mrs. Joseph Bond, Web Warren, A. W. Williams.

RODAN H. JONES, P.M. Peter Peterson, who was taken to the Hartford hospital last week to be treated for the cancerous growth on his chest, is recovering rapidly and is now able to take about two doses of food. It will be some time, however before he will be able to go to work.

Peter Vincent wishes the general public to know that he is at work once more, having recovered from his illness, and is now ready to repair harnesses in good shape and for very little money. He is at his work at 127 Main Street. He is at the old stand in George F. Day's building, Charter Oak Street, 12-37.

GRAND BALL NEW YEAR'S EVE. St. Mary's A. Society will give a grand ball in Ayres' opera house on New Year's eve, and have almost completed the necessary arrangements. Persons wishing to dance the old year out will find this an opportunity to do so. A good time can always be depended upon when this society undertakes anything of this kind. Coates' orchestra will furnish music, and Prof. J. A. Carr will play piano. You can show your interest in the cause of total abstinence by being present at the grand ball New Year's eve. Advt.

JERRY WAS IN LUCK. A portion of the temporary bridge at Hartford was swept away with the pressure of high water and floating ice on Monday morning about one o'clock.

Jerry Hayes, formerly of Highland Park but now of Hartford, was the man with the team that carried the water pipes across the bridge just before the break occurred.

It will be remembered that the officer was not able to return over the bridge to the east side of the river before the break took place.

It was a close call for Jerry, but with his customary good luck, he got out of it all right and enjoyed his Christmas turkey at his home on "The Highlands," "as hale and as hearty as ever he was."

S. O. F. The quarterly election of officers by South Manchester Division No. 1 of Temperance resulted in the choice of the following, which will be installed Jan. 4 by D. G. W. Howard 1. Tryon, W. P.
