TOWN NEWS AND NOTES.

The first thunder storm of the season roused here last Friday afternoon and the drenching rain that accompanied it did much good in extinguishing the forest fires and starting the grass and leaves etc. in the spring. The lawns are now clothed in their soft and pretty carpets of velvet green and look very inviting indeed.

Colonel Wm. F. Cody, better known as "Buffalo Bill," has given up the show business and taken a position in the journalistic field at Duluth, Minn., where he owns and operates a news paper known as the Duluth Press.

Wm. R. Palmer and bride, who was formerly known as Miss Frances Ford, were married in Seagovet, Me. at the bride's home and have come here to live.

Wm. J. Reinisch has bought out the undertaking business of John M. Tohey. Mr. Reinisch was formerly employed by B. C. Apel, and since then has served at the undertaking business in Hartford and also in Southington, from which place he comes here at this time.

During the thunder storm of last Friday evening the barn belonging to O. H. Hollister was struck by lightning and set on fire. The upper part was burned to a considerable extent, but the prompt and effective work of the fire ladders saved the lower part of the building. The damage was estimated to be about $800, and was fully insured.

C. W. Strong is here this week packing up his household effects and shipping them to Nyack, N. Y., which he proposes to do tomorrow. He will leave next Monday and his family will follow the latter part of the week. He has secured a good position there, having full charge of a paper mill where boards of various kinds are manufactured.

James M. Burke has taken the agency for the McCann bicycles. They are strictly high grade wheels, are made at Everett, Mass., and rank among the best wheels in the country. They have olive green frames and are as attractive in appearance as any. They are made for both ladies and gentlemen.

The Ladies Auxiliary of the A. O. U. will give a Leap Year Hop in Cheney Hall, Wednesday evening, May 13, 1896. Mrs. Wm. O'Connell is chairman of the committee of arrangements and the following ladies are assisting her: Mary S. Connors, Annie Moriarty, Maggie Fraher and Annie Dwyer.

At the annual meeting of Taber Chapter Eperth Lodge, held last Tuesday evening, the following officers were chosen: George W. Ferris, president; Mrs. E. E. Hunt, first vice president, spiritual department; Lillian Franklin, second vice president, department of mercy and help. Owing to the illness of the honor the other officers were not chosen and the literary social, correspondence and finance officers will be elected at the next meeting.

R. M. Rood drove his little trotting horse "Young Daniel" to Williamsfield last week and the little fellow must have been overheated, as he took sick in the Thrall City and in spite of the best veterinary care obtainable, died on Friday night. The little fellow owned by Rood stock, was an unusually good roadster and first-class family horse. He had entered in a number of "oat races" at Woodland Park on various occasions and was well known to horsemen hereabouts.

The following ladies are in charge of the May Year Sociable to be given by the Harmony club, Wednesday evening, May 6, 1896. Committee of arrangements: Minnie McDonough, Margaret Moriarty and Annie Holloran. Directress, Maggie Holloran. Assistant directress, Ida Carter and Nellie McGinn.

Renben H. Smith succeeds this week Earl Douglas Church as editor of the "Religious Herald." Mr. Smith was for five years pastor of the Waterbury Free-Will church, May, Danabine, Lilla Sullivan, Eva Brasill, Sade Hayes, Julia McGinn and Nellie Maloney. Some novel and pretty features will be introduced.

Advertised Letters, South Manchester, Conn., April 21, 1896. Mrs. Wm. Carr, Sarah M. Clements, James Crockett, Geo. B. Clarke, Rachel Flavell, Mrs. James Dowd, Wm. Green, Wm. Law, James McCann, Dennis Murphy, J. F. Milburn, Patrick Murphy Jr, S. G. Phillips, C. H. Taylor, Merritt Welch.

The old covered bridge across the Connecticut river at Enfield, has been ordered closed, as it is considered unsafe for travel, and there is not demand enough to warrant the owner, Wm. D. March, of Chicago, to repair it. It will be probably be permitted to decay and tumble into the river. The first bridge was built there in 1808. This was carried away by ice in 1831, and the following year the present structure was built.

James M. Burke has taken the agency for the McCann bicycles. They are strictly high grade wheels, are made at Everett, Mass., and rank among the best wheels in the country. They have olive green frames and are as attractive in appearance as any. They are made for both ladies and gentlemen.

Stephen J. Dunn was graduated at the Baltimore medical college last Wednesday, and now has the title of M. D. attached to his signature. He has worked hard and long and faithfully for this distinction and has fully earned it in every particular, as by his habits of industry and frugality he has earned and saved enough to pay for every dollar of his tuition fees employing his time during vacation, etc., at some useful and honorable occupation, whereby he could bear the expense of his own education. He is highly deserving of the success which he has won, and his example could be emulated with much profit by many young men in this and every other community.

There was a large attendance at the funeral of Charles A. Robinson last Sunday afternoon. Rev. J. E. Wadsworth officiated. The Sons of Oxford, Manchester turned out in a body, and furnished the following bearing: Dr. P. A. Sweet, John Robinson, Wm. Sigfus, Joseph Orrok, Wm. Palmer and Charles Irwinson. A number of floral offerings were presented, among which were a pillow bearing the word "Sympathy," a floral triangle, the emblem of the Sons of Temperance, wreaths, cut flowers, etc. A quartet from the South Methodist church choir furnished music.

The Holt Manufacturing Company of Hartford, of which Wm. C. Brown of this place was secretary and one of the largest stockholders, made an assignment last Monday to Andrew F. Gates and the schedule filed by the secretary with the probate court, shows the assets to have been $1,481.43 and the liabilities $1,257.44. An unsuccessful effort was made, a couple of years ago, to locate the concern in this town. A hearing on the application of a trustee of the Holt held at the probate court in Hartford tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

TOWN NEWS AND NOTES. James L. Barrett bought George F. Day's favorite and trustworthy family horse "KITTY," at private sale and also a new sidecar carriage, with harness, robes and all equipments.

Dr. U. M. Weideman expects to publish in the near future, a pamphlet entitled "The Physiology of Overwork in connection with the Shorter day," a compilation of letters written by him, and printed in the Paterson, N. J. Labor Standard and other papers, of recent date.

Captain Lena Lindstrom of Sandvick, Sweden and Lieutenant Bertha Johnson of Gothenburg are in charge of the Swedish Salvation Army corps in Hartford.

There was but a small turnout of Salvationists here last Sunday evening, owing to the fact that the brass band and a number of members of the Army went to Hartford to attend the big meeting in Doctor Twitchell's church on Asylum avenue.

The republican national convention will assemble in St. Louis on Tuesday, June 16, 1896. A new building is being erected for that purpose, which will accommodate 18,000 people including 200 delegates, 600 ministers of the press and a large body of telegraph operators.

James Trotter has purchased the estate of the late Charlotte Huntington, including the homestead and 20 acres of land on East Center street near Main. He will divide it up into building lots and try to build it up as he has West Center street near Main.

Loren and Mrs. Davis celebrated their twentieth wedding anniversary last Saturday evening. A number of neighbors and friends united in the festivities and presented them with a decorated china tea set and a silver berry spoon. The representation speech was made by Rev. E. P. Phareson.

Mrs. Robert Gardner and her two children of Boston, Mass., are here on a visit to Mrs. George Joyce of Oak street. It is expected that Mr. Gardner will arrive here Saturday to visit relatives. He is a brother of Thomas Gardner and is engaged in the insurance business.

Almoner G. Hayes had a bout with the measles but is out again. His eyes are weak however, as are those of many others who have had the disease. A number of persons, who have had the measles, find it necessary to wear smoked glasses to protect their eyes against the dazzling rays of the bright April sun.

Word has been received here from Paterson, N. J. that a son was born to James and Mrs. Smith of that place last Thursday. Mr. Smith formerly resided here, where he is well known and has many friends who are congratulating him on the arrival of his first born. Mother and child are getting along nicely.

The new steamer "Middletown" of the Hartford & New York Transportation Company came up to Hartford for the first time last Tuesday.

The auction at Geo. F. Day's yesterday attracted a fair number of buyers and most of the odds and ends about the place were disposed of. He has four horses left yet and a number of carriages, which are that will be disposed of by private sale. He is well satisfied with the result and feels that he can handle the rest of the stock at his right.

The Teachers' Association will hold a meeting this Friday afternoon in the eighth district school building and the following subjects will be discussed: "Language, Primary," Miss Dawson; "Language, Grammar, Grade," Miss May J. Blake; discussion, led by Principal F. A. Lillis; "Opinions on Vertical Copy Books" essay, "Busy Work," Miss Nellie T. Jacobs; discussion, led by Miss Belcher.

Samuel Richardson's infant child has recovered from an attack of diphtheria. Health Officer Bradley furnished the apartments thoroughly last Saturday and the quarantine was removed. It is hoped that no further spread of the disease will occur, and every precaution should be taken to prevent it.

The young men who were fortunate enough to secure an invitation to the Leap Year Social of the Harmony Club, which is to be held in Orford hall next Wednesday evening, are sure to have a delightful time, as the ladies are planning to carry out the event in very nice form. The affair will be strictly private and the invitations are limited and have all been placed.

Ben B. Wilcox, the well known horse man, has taken a position with Cheney Brothers, in charge of their handsome team of heavy, black draught-horses. He had been foreman in Geo. F. Day's livery stable, but as Mr. Day has gone out of the livery business, Ben had to seek employment elsewhere and he soon found it.

It is clearly in evidence that "The Gathells" are "played out" in this town, as they have played to small audiences three times at the south end and once north, the last attempt being last Friday evening when they gave an entertainment in the North Congregational church, under the auspices of The King's Daughters. But they are skillful musicians nevertheless.

The funeral of Mrs. Chas. H. McKee took place last Saturday afternoon, Rev. Thomas Simms officiating. The quartet of the Center church sang "Nearer My God to Thee" and "Jesus Lover of My Soul". The bearers were O. Tiffany, A. H. Skinner, C. G. Watkins and A. L. Bidwell. Interment was in the East Cemetery. Deceased was 49 years of age.

A considerable amount of the board fencing around Woodland Park was burned last Saturday by a fire that started near Hilliard's pond. A number of persons assembled and by dint of hard work succeeded in saving the building etc. The park corporation have had rather "hard sledding" for a couple of years past, and this loss adds to their trouble and is felt all the more keenly.

Mrs. Ann Ramsey has taken charge of the boarding house at 12 Wells street, and the prospects are that it will be run in good form, as she comes from East Glastonbury, where she has had considerable experience and gave excellent satisfaction. They were very sorry to have her leave there, but she moved here and took the Wells street boarding house, because there is a larger field here and a better chance for doing an increased business.

Ferris Brothers have placed their faithful and well known veteran gray horse "Ned" on the retired list. The old fellow is strong and in good health but is not quite enough for the demands of his business, and in view of his long and faithful services they wished to make his declining years as peaceful as possible, so they placed him in charge of a man in the western part of the town, with instructions to use him kindly, attend to all his needs and give him such moderate use as would be of service to the horse and pleasure to the keeper.

As James Rogers of Pearl street was using his horse and dump cart drawing earth at his home last Tuesday morning, the horse, not being used to a dumpcart, got frightened when the load was being dumped and ran away, coming down Spruce street as far as Spruce. He was stopped and caught by Nicholas Lalle before much harm was done. A part of the harness was broken and one of the shafts was hanging down and striking the horse on the legs at every bound. The animal was somewhat scratched and very much frightened, but no seriously injured.
