TOWN NEWS AND NOTES.

Have your heard anyone say that Haling Brothers are selling 40 cakes of soap for $1.00? Read their new advertisement in another column of this paper and you will learn the facts in the case.

Excavations for the new Catholic church over north are now made, and contractors are now at work figuring on the building.

James Brockway died in Buckland last week aged 85 years. He came from Unionville recently to Buckland. He formerly resided here and owned a farm but was a paper maker by trade.

Architect Jackson has given the following contracts for work on the new building of Samuel Burgess. For excavations, stonework, brickwork and plastering, to P. Gorman, for carpentry, to Joel E. Hawley, for painting and decorating, to Ed. Gustafson, and for plumbing, the contract has not been given out as yet.

Walter Conch has had his blacksmith shop moved and completed to his carriage shop. The grounds in front will be leveled up and the place will present a much better appearance than heretofore.

King David Lodge, I. O. O. F., have leased the entire upper floor of the new building to be erected by C. E. House and J. W. Hale, and it will be fixed up in the latest and most approved manner and take rank among the best lodge rooms in the state. Every necessary accommodation will be provided in the dining banquet hall, kitchen and all accessories, parlors, cloak and ante rooms etc.

George W. Fisher of Hartford and Mary M. Brown of Vernon were married by Rev. R. C. Gragan last Wednesday afternoon, the ceremony taking place at the parsonage residence. A wedding reception followed at the residence of the bride's parents, Thomas and Mrs. Brown. The young couple will reside in Hartford.

The South Manchester W. C. T. U. will hold their annual free will offering meeting, Sunday evening, May 10th at 7:30 o'clock, at the Center church. An interesting program has been prepared consisting of a short address, some original papers, recitations and music. All holding envelopes will please return them before, or at this meeting. It will be a public meeting and all are cordially invited to attend.

Lyman W. House has disposed of his house at the corner of Charter Oak and Spruce streets, to Arthur E. Bowers. The arrangements were made through the agency of R. M. Rhye, in whose hands the property had been placed for sale. Mr. House was in town this week closing up the affairs.

Bishop Tierney of Hartford was the guest of Rev. R. C. Gragan last week Friday. He inspected the work now being done in erecting the new Catholic church here and also in Vernon, both of which are under Father Gragan's jurisdiction, and expressed himself as being highly pleased with the progress made and the plans in hand.

Lizias S. Brown Maomber of this place was granted a divorce by Judge Robinson, in the superior court this week, from her husband, Warren Maomber of Taunton, Mass. They were married here over 20 years ago. She was given charge of their son, Clifton B. He is 15 years of age. The divorce was secured on the ground of desertion, her husband having deserted her over five years ago.

Mark Cheney has fixed up and sodded the sloping bank at the old homestead near Wells street on Main and improved the strip along the sidewalk south of the dry brook very much. It is a nice piece of landscape gardening and adds to the beauty of the grounds very much.

President Chapman expects to have the opening of the extension of the tramway to Buckland, Oakland and Talcottville, take place at the time of the opening of the new temporary bridge across the Connecticut river. He will open Laurel Park at the same time. He does not deem it conducive to the public safety to open the Park before the bridge is ready.

The large sign board on the Quins place in Oakland, belonging to R. C. Apel, was destroyed by fire last Monday night. The sign was so large and bright that people became alarmed, thinking it was a building on fire. The school bell was rung, the factory whistle blown and the people turned out, but as the sign board stood in the open field, it was simply consumed and that ended the excitement.

James Hamill, the harnessmaker at No. 3 School street, has had a platform placed in front of his shop where he will make a nice exhibit of his horse goods heretofore. He will have a new sign and new awning, and will be able to make a very nice display. In his new advertisement elsewhere in this paper, he invites the attention of horsemen to his new line of summer goods, just in.

The manufacturer of Bon Ami is now being carried on by Childs & Childs instead of by the J. T. Robertson company, although the business is conducted over north the same as heretofore, excepting in the matter of ownership. J. T. Robertson being in charge. The J. T. Robertson company will continue to make their soaps in the same building also, by renting quarters from Childs & Childs. The new arrangement went into effect May 1.

Spontaneous combustion was the cause of starting a fire in the rag room of the Oakland Paper Company's mill last Tuesday evening about half past seven o'clock. The discovery was made by the watchman, who gave the alarm and neighbors came promptly to the rescue, and with the very excellent equipment of the mill, for fighting fires, the flames were soon subdued. It was luckily discovered before much head way was made and this serious result were averted.

Frederick Wind died suddenly last Sunday of asthma. He lived with his daughter, Mrs. Chas. Ratenburg and, although he had asthma for a long time it was somewhat with it a great deal at times he was not confined to his bed at all. In fact on Saturday and Sunday he did chores about the house the same as for some time past, and had not any immediate thought of death. He was 72 years of age, was a native of Denmark and an uncle of Hans Wind the blacksmith. His funeral took place last Wednesday afternoon, services being held in the Danish Lutheran church, Hartford.

Michael Garland of Woodbridge street died last Sunday at the advanced age of 80 years. His funeral took place from St. Bridget's church last Wednesday evening, where a requiem high mass was offered up by Rev. R. C. Gragan. Interment was in the Catholic cemetery. Mr. Garland came to this town from New York city a number of years ago, bringing $10,000 in hard cash with him, most of which he invested in real estate here. This was the result of his own individual effort and saving. His son, Robert Garland survives him and resides here.

E. L. G. Hohensthal has been chosen as superintendent of the South Methodist Sunday school, to succeed R. N. Stanley, resigned. He will enter upon his new duties next Sunday. TOWN NEWS AND NOTES.

NEW BALL GROUNDS. New base ball grounds are to be opened on the Olcott place on the line of the tramway, at the junction of Adams and Olcott street.

The bushes will be cut off, the field plowed, and rolled down hard and smooth, and a quarter or third mile bicycle track will be laid out also.

The following local players have been engaged: H. O. Bowers, pitcher; Robert Holland, catcher; Chas. Behmfield, first base; Patrick Moynihan, second base; James Sullivan, short stop and probably others will be engaged. The remainder will be secured out of town.

Harry E. Olcott is manager and back of the club is putting about $1000. into the venture, hires the players, pays all expenses, except to furnish, and has the right to the people here, and the proceeds will be his. It will be convenient and inexpensive, and being on the line of the tramway, doubtless will receive strong and enthusiastic support from people here, as this is a good base ball town and the local pride in our home players is almost sure to assert itself now, as it has always done in the past.

The question of which side of Olcott street the grounds are to be located on is not fully decided at this writing, but it is probable, be closed in a couple of days J. B. Olcott owns the land on the north side of the junction of Adams and Olcott streets and Walter H. Olcott owns that on the south side. Harry E. Olcott would prefer the site on the north side, if it can be secured.

GRAND CONCERT COMING. On Thursday evening, May 21, 1896, at eight o'clock, a grand concert will be given in Cheney hall, for the choir fund of St. Mary's Episcopal church, on which occasion the following artists will appear in a select and refined musical program.

Mrs. Martha L. Ronitson, soprano, Plymouth church, Brooklyn, N.Y.; Miss Marion Williams, of Hartford, violinist; Mr. S. M. V. base, Mr. P. H. Parf's cathedral, Middletown; Mr. A. W. Briggs, organist. Lovers of music will find in this concert a rare treat. Mrs. Ronitson is well known in the musical world hereabouts and in London, and as this will be his first public appearance here in concert, he should be given a most cordial reception, and furthermore, the cause for which these people give their services, viz, the benefit of the choir fund, should appeal to all lovers of music in town.

GEORGE F. AND MRS. DAY.

Last Monday the deeds of the Lyman W. House place were transferred from Arthur B. Bowers to George F. and Mrs. Day, jointly, and in equal parts. They intend to occupy it themselves and with that end in view, will over-haul it from cellar to roof, will put in steam heating, hot and cold water, lavatories, bath, room, closets and all modern sanitary arrangements and conveniences for health and comfort, will raise the upper part and put on a Mansard roof, run a large veranda about the house and make the place as comfortable, substantial and cozy as any one can wish for.

They will also fix the grounds up in first-class shape and on the whole spend about $1000 in beautifying and benefiting the property.

They were offered a large advance on the purchasing price of the place, but have decided not to accept it and will keep it and establish themselves therein permanently, as soon as the necessary arrangements, alterations and improvements can be made which will be about the first of July next. They have already rented the tenement which they now occupy.

There are about three quarters of an acre of ground in the homestead and situated as it is on the corner of Charter Oak and Spruce streets, it will make a fine site for a church, school or other building and house when fixed up in the manner described in this article.

MISS HULDAH KEENEY PASSES AWAY. Miss Huldah Keeney entered into rest Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock, at the ripe old age of 84 and a half years. She enjoyed good health until recently, when rheumatism set in and this was followed by gout, the disease passing to her brain and rendering her unconscious for the past week, except at intervals, when she would have a short revival of her senses and could recognize her nephew, Captain A. B. Keeney, when all others were as strangers to her.

Her funeral will take place this Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the South M. E. church, at which organization she was a devoted member. Rev. J. S. Wadsworth will officiate. Interment will be in the East cemetery.

Miss Keeney was a native of this town and lived all her life in the home now occupied by Captain A. B. Keeney, until a couple of months ago, when she went to live with the Captain's mother, as his sister there constantly, taking care of the old lady.

This same house was the birthplace of her father and also of her grandfather. Her father died at the advanced age of 87 and a half years.

THE LARGEST YET. The entertainment and Leap Year Ho given by the Ladies Auxiliary of the A. O. H. in Cheney hall last Wednesday evening, was the largest social event of the season, and one of the most enjoyable as well.

The entertainment program mentioned in these columns last week was well carried out and a very pleasing feature of the evening, many who went as spectators merely did not take part in the dancing, found that the entertainment furnished much pleasure, and the dancers enjoyed it as well.

MACADAM AT LAST.

The work of macadamizing Main street was started last Wednesday and is now being pushed along as rapidly as possible by Contractor Ley and a gang of workmen.

They began at the south terminus of the first half mile and are working towards the tracks of the New England railroad.

State Highway Commissioner C. Sternberg of West Hartford was here yesterday, inspected the work and expressed himself as being highly pleased with it.

The selection have wisely employed John M. Williams to look out carefully for the town in the building of this road, and he will give his whole time and attention to the work, and as he is thoroughly capable, there is no doubt that he will see to it that everything is done according to agreement.

The work that was done in the building of macadam roads in Southington, Essex and Berlin last Fall is now going to pieces, and hence Governor Coffin commands that local inspectors be appointed to see that the work is executed as it should be.

The State commission however cannot appoint such inspectors as there is no provision in the bill for paying them, and in being done here, by having their selection employ a capable inspector, who can see that their roads are built in a proper manner.

It is but fair to Contractor Ley to say that, he did not do any of the work named in these towns, and Commissioner Sternberg says that his work is all right, in as far as known, but still Inspector Williams is the right man in the right place and the town's interests will be well guarded while he is on duty.

RETIRED ON A PENSION. A John Dougan, who has been in the employ of Cheney Brothers for the past 34 years, and held the position of foreman of the dye house, has been retired from service on a pension of $13 a week, for the remainder of his natural life and also by the option of taking a trip to Europe at the expense of the corporation.

Mr. Dougan's health is not good and his eyes are partly failing him, so it was deemed advisable to put a younger man in his place. He will probably visit his native health in the north of Ireland, after he rests a spell.

He is one of the few employees remaining who have served as many years in the employ of Cheney Brothers, and this is a fitting recognition of his long, faithful and efficient service, and is very creditable to his employers, whose kindness and generosity are proverbial hereabouts and who stand ever ready to reward those who have labored in the ranks as long and as well as has Mr. Dougan, whose skill in his calling they found very valuable to them.

DEATH OF MRS. THOMAS M. TROTTER. Mrs. Thomas M. Trotter died last Saturday, after a lingering illness with consumption, of about a year and a half. She suffered patiently, always brave, but finally grew weary of the struggle and passed peacefully away at 10 o'clock, surrounded by her friends and family.

KILLED THE HORSE. Cornelius Sullivan had his horse taken up to Mr. Miller, the horse trainer at Hiram Grant's barn, last Wednesday, to have the animal's teeth "floated," and the horse being of a nervous temperament, it was deemed necessary to "hobble" him in order to keep him quiet during the operation.

TOWN COURT. Patrick Dannebar of Burdette entered the restaurant of B. F. Ball last Friday, when intoxicated, and ordered a dinner. He could not eat it, when brought forward and refusing to pay left the place, after abusing members of the family and making a nuisance of himself generally. He was taken into custody by officer Symington, placed in the lockup over night and on Saturday morning brought into the town court, where he was charged with drunkenness and intent to defraud a restaurant keeper. The charge of intent was denied, but he was fined $2.00 and costs for drunkenness, and as he did not produce the necessary cash, he was taken to jail to await trial, the whole bill amounting to $12.30.

THE PAVILION IS GONE.

The young people who were in the habit of attending dances at Jefferson's Pine Grove in the past and expected a renewal of same this year will be disappointed, as the pavilion burned to the ground last Monday morning. It was evidently the work of an incendiary.

The fire was discovered soon after it was a quarter past one o'clock in the morning, owing to the alarm being given by Mr. Jefferson's dog, and the neighbors came to the rescue, but as there was no water in the grove, they could do nothing but stand by and see it burn.

A GREAT EVENT.

When it is once known that over one sixth of the entire population of the United States are enrolled in the Sunday-schools of our country, the problem of Sunday-school organization, equipment and teaching comes to be a national one.

The greatness of this fact being realized, no one can longer be indifferent to what is being done for the success of this work. It is, therefore, interesting to know that for nearly forty years an organization has existed, increasing in size and influence yearly, for the prosecution of this work.

More than sixty States, Territories and Canadian Provinces are organized, and are holding district meetings and annual conventions and conferences to increase the efficiency and improve the work of the schools.

Once in three years all these bodies join in a Triennial International Convention, to which each of the States and Provinces send their delegates. Seven such conventions have been held already. The eighth is to be held in Boston, in Tremont Temple, June 28-30. It will be possible, therefore, for all of New England to come into closer touch and into personal relation with this great system of Sunday-school education.

In this convention, legislation affecting directly the population of the United States and "amends will be enacted. In this particular its legislative function will have a wider scope than the Congress of the United States or the Dominion of Canada.

New England is honored with this great convention and will give it a hearty welcome. A CURE FOR HEADACHE. As a remedy for all forms of Headache, Electric Bitters has proved to be the very best. It effects a permanent cure and the most dreaded habitual sick headache yields to its influence. We urge all who are afflicted to procure a bottle, and give this remedy a fair trial.

The old Doctor Mills place, so called, at Highland Park, lately owned by Thomas J. Hayes, Jr. of Meriden, who was formerly employed by Case Brothers at The Highlands, was sold last week to Mrs. Johannah Risley, wife of John Risley, of Highland Park. The place is occupied presently by Horace G. Brown and he expects to move out in a couple of weeks at which time Mrs. Risley and family will occupy this place several years ago and paid $1,000 in cash for it. He is engaged in the clothing business now in Meriden.

James Joyce Sr. who has been employed in the dye house at the silk mills here for the last 15 years, was dismissed last Saturday night. He is 76 years of age, but has a stick to his work as closely as any a younger man. His son James Jr. owns a ranch in California, in the vicinity of Los Angeles, that is set out in plum trees and as these are just coming into bearing this year, the old gentleman thinks he may move out there and work on the ranch, as he is naturally a very active man and cannot be unemployed. He expects his son James Jr. to come East next September. It will be remembered that the latter holds a lucrative position in the employ of the Pope Mtg. Co., with headquarters in San Francisco.

A very pleasant time ensued at the residence of Wesley B. Porter last Tuesday afternoon and evening, the occasion being the seventy-first birthday anniversary celebration of his mother, Mrs. Mary E. Porter. The surprise of the evening was the unexpected arrival of Mrs. Clappose Hastings of Akron, Ohio, on the foot car again. Nearly all the guests who attended Mrs. Hastings' wedding here last Thanksgiving were present and all had a delightful time. A banquet was served, congratulations were extended and general good cheer abounded on every hand. The arrange ments were made by Mrs. Wesley B. Porter and carried out smoothly and pleasantly in every particular.

Principal F. A. Yerplanck of the local district school, will sail from Boston Monday, June 29, 1896 on the steamer Servis for a European tour and expects to leave Liverpool, August 19, on the homeward trip. He is fortunate in securing passage on the Servis, as the vessel is chartered by the United States and Honorable Artillery of the Ordnance for thirty-one days. How- ever London and Paris, Rev. Mr. Dismore, formerly of Willimantic will be Mr. Yerplanck's immediate companions on the voyage and other acquaintances on the vessel among the Boston gentlemen, that will be especially noticeable. He goes as much for study and observation as for a good time and will take notes and views of the trip.
