The young men of St. James parish presented Father McCarthy with a handsome purse, on the occasion of his recent visit to this town, in token of the esteem in which he is held by them. During his stay of several months here, he became a great favorite with the young men, and is very much attached to them.

A large number of friends and admirers called on Mrs. W. P. Anderson at the Swedish parsonage last Monday evening and presented her with a handsome sideboard. They brought refreshments with them which they enjoyed and spent a delightful social time together. Mrs. Anderson returned from the West last week after being absent all summer. The sideboard was the gift of the Swedish Sewing Society.

Algot Johnson and Miss Grundhild Grundberg were united in marriage by Rev. W. P. Anderson last Saturday evening. The ceremony took place at the residence of Lambert Anderson on Charter Oak street. The wedding feast was served to a few intimate friends. The young couple will board with Mr. Anderson for the present. The groom comes from Providence and is employed by Ed. Gustafson & Son, the painters.

An effort is being made in East Hartford to have the schools of the town consolidated, by the abolition of all the school districts and the full assumption of the school affairs to be taken by the town. This question will in all probability be voted upon at their annual town meeting next month. The idea seems to be gaining in popularity in East Hartford.

The Young Men's Club of St. Mary's parish are planning to give a social dance in Cheney hall, Wednesday evening, October 7, 1896. Water's orchestra will furnish music and W. P. Smith will prompt. The Fairfield County Golf club will play a friendly game with the local golf club on Center street links at the rear of the Sherman place tomorrow Saturday afternoon. The local team will consist of the following players: W. B. Cheney, Mark Cheney, John P. Cheney, Thomas Cheney and a Mr. Stebbing of Hartford. It is intended to arrange for a tournament between the clubs of Hartford and Tolland counties.

John Hallisey, who fell a distance of 35 feet, while at work on the new St. Bridget's church last Friday, struck on his right side, breaking two ribs. His right shoulder, three fingers of his right hand, his ankle and his back are all hurt, but not seriously. He is under Dr. Dooley's care and is still confined to his room, but his physicians think he will come out of it all right. He is very lucky to escape so well, after falling from such a height.

When a school is the best. It would seem that a mere statement of this fact should be enough. For eight years we have been proving that Hunt-inger's Business and Short-hand College is the foremost—absolutely the best. Our attendance book shows that our superior teaching of our pupils bears it out, the success of our graduates in business bears it out—in fact the whole public has pronounced it to be emphatically the best. This school is not a luck number but an aggressive and progressive school. Its attendance is double that of any other business college of Conn., twice as many teachers and is every way a leader. Over 100 pupils now in attendance. New pupils enter every day. C. E. HOUSE, Clothier Outfitter, 241 Main Street.

POLLY'S MISTAKE.

"How, which one?" asked Polly, and she stood on tiptoe that she might determine the point. She was a plump Polly. She was a short Polly and the mantel-piece was a high one, so that there was no other thing to than to stand on tiptoe while she gazed at two faces and wondered, "Which one?"

LI HUNG CHANG. Some Facts of Interest About the Great Chinaman. He could have made himself Emperor of China. Perhaps two or three times a day, when Li Hung Chang is at home in his palace at Tien-Tsin, at his home, Lord Li, who acts as his secretary, brings the Viceroy some state document which necessitates his taking the brush and India ink used for writing in China and replying painting his elegant signature at the top-left-hand corner.

SCIENTIFIC SCRAPS. A low barometer almost invariably betokens a coming storm. Glycerine is derived from the by left after making soap, which for ages was considered of no use. Dropping or striking a steel magnet, or causing it to vibrate by any other means, diminishes its magnetism.
