Alex McClure of the Philadelphia Times mays: "The two boldest men he knows are John Wannamaker of Philadelphia and Tilly Haynes of Boston. Both went to New York. Mr. Wannamaker took the Stewart property, the finest dry goods store in the world, and Mr. Haynes took the great Broadway Central Hotel, the largest in the city. But dry rot had event into both of these magnificent properties and no one dared to grasp them, until John Wannaa complete and unqualified success has prowned the efforts of both. Verily a good reputation is better than riches."
