He went elimbing up from argument to argument and from antithesis to antithesis and from glory to glory and then sank down in exhaustion as he saw far above him other heights of divinity unscaled and exclaimed "that in all things He might have the pre-eminence."

Again, Christ was wonderful in His teachings. The people had been used to formalities and technicalities. Christ upset all their notions as to how preaching ought to be done. There was this peculiarity about His preaching—the people knew what He meant. His illustrations were taken from the hen calling her chickens logether, from salt, from candles, head on earth, side by side in heaven. The oddest thing in bric-a-brac is a little Italian vase made of red clay, upon which, with a little care, you can have the "green grass growing all around" in the utmost luxuriousness. All you have to do is to soak the vase in water for a day and then sprinkle timothy seed all over the outside. The seed sticks to the wet clay and sprouts, and in about ten days from the time you sow your seed you have a harvest in the form of a green jacketed vase that makes the most beautiful flower .The grass lasts for about a month if
