DON'T STUMBLE

through the world.
 Let some good fairy of an optician fit you out with some eyes. Don't be ashamed to wear glasses. It will give you an intellectual look, and then how nice it will be to be able to recognize friends across the street, and by returning their bow to explode the idea that we are of a haughty and unkind nature. If we fit your glasses, you will have no trouble with them or with your eyes. We would be pleased to have you come to us whenever you need our services. Eyes examined free by our Graduate Optician.

WOMAN'S WORLD.

A DIANA OF THE SIERRAS WHO DRESSES IN BLOOMERS. Happiness of College Women—Sweetness of Southern Women—Evolution of Southern Women—Spreading Discontent.

FACTS ARE STUBBORN.

If South Manchester people are not convinced by Local Testimony they Differ From Other People. Our readers must have noticed in the past two years how 'cures' have multiplied in the newspapers like mushrooms in a meadow following the Plethoras of 'cures' the general public have turned remarkably skeptical.

JACOBS—McFARLANE.

Charles E. Jacobs, formerly of this place, and Miss Marion McFarlane, daughter of Peter and Mrs. McFarlane of Manchester, were married on New Year's Day at 5 p. m. the ceremony being performed by Rev. E. P. Christman at the bride's home on Main street.

Robert McFarlane, brother of the bride was best man, and Miss Clara Sykes of Winsted was bridesmaid. The bride was attended in white lawn dress trimmed with white satin and chiffon and carried a bouquet of bridal roses. The happy couple will live in Hartford for the present.

UNCLE TOM AGAIN.

Shove's Uncle Tom's Cabin Company will be the attraction in Apol's opera house Thursday evening, January 13. It is said to be the best Uncle Tom's Cabin Company on the road. Crowded houses greet them everywhere. They have two brass bands, and a steam calliope. They bring their own street parade, together with the bloodhounds, dogcatchers. There are 40 people in the company. The parade will take place about noon. Watch for it. Admission, 25, 35 and 50 cents.

DIED SUDDENLY.

Patrick J. Hayes of Highland Park, died at his home on Monday afternoon at one o'clock last Monday afternoon and apparently without an instant's warning. He was in the employ of his brothers and had been so for a quarter of a century, attending to the garden and the stock and the like and doing odd chores about the premises in general, as called for. He attended to his duties last Monday forenoon the same as usual and as he was very well, Mr. Hayes and his wife, Mrs. Hayes, who were in the city, did not know of his death until they were notified by the doctor at his home, where he could keep more comfortable. He ate his dinner with the other men in the mill and was well at that time, and in doing so, people from the respective towns would turn out, pay their admission fees, be on hand to see their favorite wife, and thus insure a large attendance and successful meet. It was suggested that a new act, more than a sufficient inducement or attraction to bring people out, that it was a book number and had outlined its requirements, that new methods were required, and that new conditions were very favorable for the corporation to make some money, if the members would take hold and work together.

WOODLAND PARK AFFAIRS.

The annual meeting of the Manchester Driving and Agricultural Corporation which took place at the Corlies hotel last Friday evening, was not as satisfactory a ceremony as those things usually are.

It was found that the indebtedness of the corporation was $1,470 and there was no money to foreclose the mortgage. This caused some of the members to look for a method of liquidating the indebtedness, and a number of them carried twenty acres in the park, with barns, sheds, enclosures, grand stand, running water and other equipments, that the whole had cost about $7,000, that it was not necessary to foreclose the mortgage, that the interest could and would be paid, that members were willing to guarantee payment of interest for five years at least, that what was needed was different management of the park, that instead of spending several hundred dollars to bring a fast horse from Buffalo to the race, as had been done last year, it would be better to get an arena for the several surrounding towns, such as Glastonbury, Berlin, Gilman, etc., put up at price some suitable modern farming machinery adapted to the needs of the particular community for which it was designed, select some energetic man to take to work to put up with it the local interest, and that in doing so, people from the respective towns would turn out, pay their admission fees, be on hand to see their favorite wife, and thus insure a large attendance and successful meet.
