Persons who eat heartily of cheese in the evening, should take some active exercise before retiring and thus give the food an opportunity to digest, before going to sleep. In this way, they are apt to avoid trouble. The children's ages are respectively, two, four, six and nine years.

Seemed as if the horse was dead about a week when found, as he was covered with snow and ice. He had a light har ness on him but there was no sign of any wagon, buggy or carriage about and in fact a vehicle could not have been brought to where the animal lay.
