

THE VOLUNTEER BOILER. Does not heat your cellar because it has Three Jackets: Sheet Iron, Asbestos, Galvanized Iron. We are agents for these boilers here. HIBBARD & STANNARD, No. 61 North Main Street, Manchester, Conn.

REMEMBER. If you think it is too late to order a Winter Overcoat for this season, then remember it will come in handy for next Winter. The Overcoat that we make here is selling right along for $25.00, but will go now at $20.00. We are dealing with many clothing houses in New York and one of the largest of them wants to sell all this cloth for the Winter season and we are selling it almost at half price just to make room for Spring and Summer clothes. That's why we get our cloth so cheaply and that's why we can sell you a $25.00 overcoat now for $20.00.

DID YOU EVER GET A BARGAIN? NOTHING SUCCEEDS LIKE SUCCESS. The success which is gained by studying The Chandler Practical Shorthand is really marvellous. There is certainly no other system of shorthand in use so simple and practical. Teaching in both shorthand and Typewriting at the Chandler Shorthand School is unexcelled.

Rolston & Brooks FINE GROCERIES, 241 Main Street. WE WANT ROOM. We haven't room enough for all the goods we are carrying and in order to reduce our stock of PARLOR STOVES we will give a REDUCTION of 10 PER CENT from regular retail prices.

WRIGHT & PETERSON, Stove Dealers, Plumbers, Steam Fitters, Tinners, Roofers, etc. No. 11, School Street. G. E. HARVEY, Year Orders Solicited. CHESTER CHURCH STREET.

THE GOOD NEWS GRAND RANGE. Is the King of All Ranges. If you want one call on Hugh Moriarty, 294 Main Street. I will be very much pleased to show it. Yours truly, HUGH MORIARTY.

THIS SCHOOL PRODUCES stenographers who are able to secure and retain exacting and responsible positions. Bright young men should consider the study of shorthand as a means of getting a start in life. We always have many more calls for male stenographers than we have graduates to recommend.

TOWN NEWS AND NOTES. Alexander Massey of Parker street, who formerly drove the taker cart for Frank Green, and who suddenly and mysteriously disappeared from his home a few weeks ago, came into town last Monday night in the midst of the great snow storm, and put up at the Cowles hotel for the night as traveling on foot to his home from Depot square was almost impossible.

Conductor Benjamin F. Cowles paid no attention whatever to the great snow of last Monday. In spite of it all his face was wreathed in smiles, and he had a hearty handshake for all his friends; the occasion being the arrival of a new born daughter on that day. The sturdy Miss had considerable of an event to mark her first appearance on the stage of life. It will be a landmark by which her parents will remember the great snowstorm.

The Ladies' Guild of St. Mary's church are to give a Klondike supper with a sale of pictures in Cheney hall next week Thursday evening. The supper is in the care of Mrs. W. H. Cheney, Mrs. John S. Cheney, Mrs. Tinker and Mrs. Bartlett. Miss Alice Sauls has charge of the novel decoration which gives it the name of Klondike. It will be served from 6 to 8 o'clock. The price of tickets is 25 cents.

WORKMEN INSTALL. The officers of Orford Lodge, No. 58, A. O. U. W., were duly installed on Thursday evening of last week and a collation was served, at which all enjoyed a social hour, brief remarks being made by a number of those present. The lodge is in a promising and flourishing condition and is doing excellent work in providing insurance for its members at a very reasonable cost. One feature of the Order that is highly commendatory is that, as soon as the necessary proofs are furnished at headquarters, a draft for the $2,000 is sent forthwith. There is no delay of 90 days, no reductions for that, or the other, no life, and so but about it. Nothing but the solid cash.

A PECULIAR INJURY. James Tanner of School street has been unable to leave his bed for the past three weeks, owing to an injury to one of the ligaments of his ankle. He was returning from Hartford several weeks ago and got off the car at Pine street to walk to the silk mill where he was employed. He had gone several rods from the car and was walking on a level and smooth path, when he heard a noise and felt a severe pain, as though he had received a violent blow in the ankle, from a stone. He looked about quickly to see who had thrown the stone, but saw no one. The pain was so intense that he fainted and had to be assisted home, where he secured medical aid, and after a time went back to his work, but found he had to give it up and has been under the doctor's care ever since.

DISTRICT DIVISION 3. OF T. The annual meeting of District Division No. 3, Sons of Temperance, was held last week and choice was made of the following officers for the coming year: District worthy patriarch, George E. A comedy drama entitled, "The New Partner," is to be presented by local talent in Apple's opera house Tuesday evening, Feb. 15, for the benefit of St. Bridget's parish. The following persons will take part in the play, E. J. Toomey, Everett Mansfield, John Gill, James Murry, W. P. Smith, Daniel Sullivan, Thomas Hickey, Robert Fox, and the Misses Mary Toomey, Margaret Fanning, Mary Sullivan and Julia Tanner. After the performance, dancing will ensue, for which Keating's orchestra will furnish music and W. P. Smith will prompt.

The Flak Jubilee Singers have appeared before the public in this town a number of times and have always given most enjoyable entertainments, which have been uniformly well received. Their next visit will be on Friday evening of next week, February 12, when they will appear in the North Methodist church and will give another of their soul-stirring concerts. Tickets for reserved seats can now be purchased at Rose's drug store, or North Main street. We understand that the tickets are being sold rapidly. The concert will begin at 8:15.

The statement frequently published that there are only 400,000 Jews in the United States, the Atlanta Journal has long believed to be away below the fact. Conclusive evidence that this is an underestimate was supplied at the meeting of the American Jewish Historical society in New York.

How many people know that the United States produced last year one-fourth of the world's gold, or about $60,000,000 worth? And Colorado is credited with about one-third of this as her share.

One of the most surprising discoveries of the century has just been made by Professor W. M. Flinders Petrie, the great Egyptian excavator. He built the pyramids and the obelisks, and he found in many other collages.

One of the most gratifying signs of the times so far as this country is concerned is the growing spirit of benevolence and generosity, observed at the Atlanta Constitution. During the past year, which is better remembered for the hardships which it entailed upon the masses than for sought else, there were larger sums of money devoted to charities of various kinds.

There are 106 different kinds of typewriters made in the United States, but only one kind of a successful typewriter.

During prosperous times the sugar crop of Cuba averaged 1,000,000 tons annually. The total product of 1895-96 was 225,321,221 of 1896-97 the product was 312,321, a deficiency this year as compared with last year of 13,170 tons. The shortage is only one of the penalties of war.

SCIENTIFIC SCRAPPS. A full-grown man exhales 17 ounces of carbonic acid gas every twenty-four hours.

Cashmere Again Popular. Cashmere is perhaps of all dress goods considered the smartest, but it has been almost entirely displaced by the more durable and lighter for heavy winter weather.

Old Lady's Cap. The foundation for a well-shaped cap is an oval of heavy-starched net of grayish white. Over this the outside can be shirred.

Tulle a Rival of Straw. Tulle will prove a strong rival of straw in the early part of the coming season. The most novel ways of using it are not in quiltings or puffs, as last year, but in layers, one over the other, until it acquires opacity, and then it is either stretched smoothly over a firm shape, or arranged in the form of a beret, with the loose ends of the tulle separate, like the leaves of a book, and each one bordered with extremely narrow satin ribbon or a row of gossamer.

She Trains Race Horses. Miss Loretta Elliott of Orient, Me., is the owner of many fast horses, which she raised and trained herself in her father's stable.

Responsible for Bird Slaughter. The fashion which certain fond women are trying to introduce, of wearing a whole nest of bird feathers on their bonnets, is probably the most vulgar and offensive, even from the artistic point of view, that has been foisted upon the public since the day of the Greek band.

How It Feels to Fall From a Height. F. R. Richmond, the architect, is now able to be in his office, but his hip, which was broken close to the hip by a fall September 1, is still weak, and it is not yet possible to get down on a stepladder without the aid of his hands.

Stokers' Cramps. Dr. Randolph M. Myers read a paper before the last meeting of the Medical Society of the District of Columbia on "Cramps as Affecting Stokers." During the time he was ship surgeon he never saw an American stoker; they were usually young men from the European continent.

Salt Water for Extinguishing Fires. It is proposed to put in special water-pipes in New York for extinguishing fires, the salt water to be used by the fire department.

Japanese Furniture Polish. A polish that hails from Japan is said to be very fine for furniture, as well as floors. It consists of one pint each of lard and oil, and two ounces of white soap and two ounces of spirits of turpentine.

Watering House Plants. I am satisfied that not one person in twenty is aware that too much water is more dangerous to the plants than too little. Some persons are tedious and have the idea that to take a watering pot in hand to supply the needs of plants is an easy duty, and that to give a dash here and there is all that is needed.

Gasoline Used in China to Kill Tigers. In the Smithsonian institution in Washington one of the most interesting exhibits is a tiger skin, which was obtained by the Chinese to kill tigers in the jungle district.

Recipes. Brown-Bread Soup—Boil stale brown bread to a smooth jelly with water and a little milk; when it is allowed to cool, add a little butter and make it creamy, a little butter and palatable seasoning of salt and pepper, and serve it hot.

Apple-Soup—Boil together to a pulp equal quantities of peeled apples and bread, sweetening them and adding a little sugar. For each pint of apples, use a half-teaspoonful of salt and a small tablespoonful of finely chopped parsley.

Potato Sauce.—Parsley freshly boiled potatoes and slice them. Have one pint. Put one ounce of butter in a pan to melt. Put in the potatoes and the parsley. Honey and a little salt. Dish and sprinkle with half-teaspoonful of pepper, a third-teaspoonful of salt and a small tablespoonful of finely chopped parsley.

Revolutionary Scholars. Rev. George Channing wrote an account of the school of his youth, which he attended just after the revolution. Girls and boys attended together the primary school and sat on seats made of round blocks of wood of various heights, which were furnished by the parents.

Old Lady's Cap. The foundation for a well-shaped cap is an oval of heavy-starched net of grayish white. Over this the outside can be shirred.

Tulle a Rival of Straw. Tulle will prove a strong rival of straw in the early part of the coming season. The most novel ways of using it are not in quiltings or puffs, as last year, but in layers, one over the other, until it acquires opacity, and then it is either stretched smoothly over a firm shape, or arranged in the form of a beret, with the loose ends of the tulle separate, like the leaves of a book, and each one bordered with extremely narrow satin ribbon or a row of gossamer.

She Trains Race Horses. Miss Loretta Elliott of Orient, Me., is the owner of many fast horses, which she raised and trained herself in her father's stable.

Responsible for Bird Slaughter. The fashion which certain fond women are trying to introduce, of wearing a whole nest of bird feathers on their bonnets, is probably the most vulgar and offensive, even from the artistic point of view, that has been foisted upon the public since the day of the Greek band.

How It Feels to Fall From a Height. F. R. Richmond, the architect, is now able to be in his office, but his hip, which was broken close to the hip by a fall September 1, is still weak, and it is not yet possible to get down on a stepladder without the aid of his hands.

Stokers' Cramps. Dr. Randolph M. Myers read a paper before the last meeting of the Medical Society of the District of Columbia on "Cramps as Affecting Stokers." During the time he was ship surgeon he never saw an American stoker; they were usually young men from the European continent.
