THREE CENTS.

CHENEYS' STORE

WINDOW SHADES

25 cents, 38 cents, 50 cents. New lot this week.

CURTAIN DRAPERIES in a great variety from 5 cents to 40 cents a yard. We lead on low prices and nice styles for draperies.

SPRING DRESS GOODS. Some of the best values you ever saw in this line.

WASH DRESS GOODS. Our lines comprise elegant styles and the prices you will find, as usual, a little lower than elsewhere—quality considered.

New styles GINGHAMS, PRINTS and PERCALES.

For good qualities in Dry Goods, at the right prices, always go to

Cheneys' Store.

Curtain Muslins.

Look in our north show window and see the pretty and attractive display we are making of Curtain Muslins. The season is here now when these goods will be called for, as in doing your home cleaning you will find that many of the old curtains need replacing, and as our stock of these useful household goods is large and handsome one, you will find all the latest styles, and in using them, will find very much to the beauty of your home, at a very light expense.

Step in and ask to see them.

Boston Store.

Poor Mamma!

is an expression you often hear when people gaze upon the photo of their dead mother—their very best friend. We will make a Life Size Crayon Portrait of her, $5.

Framed and Complete in every detail, for

THE HOLTZ ART CO.,
61 Pleasant Street,
Hartford, Conn.

Children's Eyes.

A little care now may prevent them from wearing glasses all the rest of their life. It costs nothing to have the eyes examined—it may cost a great deal if they are not examined. We are careful and accurate. Bring the little ones in—examination free.

C. TIFFANY,
Jeweler and Optician.

TOWN NEWS AND NOTES.

Additional local news on pages 4 and 5.

The News enters upon the sixth year of its existence, with this issue. We will let our friends do the rest.

Walter Elliott of Pittsford, N. J., is visiting with relatives in town.

The Minervians will give a social in Cheney hall next Friday evening.

Robert and Mrs. Kerr of Eldridge street welcomed a new born son last Tuesday.

George D. Hunter of Sunset avenue bought a house and lot on Laurel street recently, and took possession of his new home last Tuesday.

Leroy K. Hagwood of this place expects to be graduated with the class of '98 at the Baltimore Medical College, April 21.

Gertrude, the daughter of John and Mrs. Douglas, has been suffering with pneumonia, but is now happily coming out of it all right.

Mark Cheney son of Mrs. W. H. Cheney of this place, surprised his friends last week by announcing his engagement to Miss Helen B. Clark of Plainfield, N. J.

Charles Krause, who fell and splintered a bone in his right leg recently, is getting along as well as could be expected. It is a painful injury however.

F. F. Tooby & Co. who operated the new meat market here recently, made an assignment in insolvency in New Britain last week. They carried on the most business there also.

Rev. I. W. Salmon of Christ church Hartford, will preach a Lenten sermon in St. Mary's church next Wednesday evening, March 9. All are cordially invited to attend.

Pussy willow, one of the earliest harbingers of Spring in this climate, has made its appearance and the school children have brought in quantities of it to school.

Next Sunday evening, March 6, Rev. J. A. Biddle will deliver the second in his series of sermons upon the life of St. Peter, the particular theme for that evening being "His Birth."

The Knights and Ladies of the Maccabees announced that they will give a concert and ball in Apat's opera house on Easter Monday night, with Waldie's orchestra of Hartford, and W. P. Smith prompter.

August Peterson of Collinsville has secured employment here and will move his family as soon as he can find a suitable tenement. He has entered the velvet department where he is learning to weave.

We are informed that the war between the Chinese laundrymen at this end of town has come to an end, at least temporarily, and that prices for laundrying shirts have returned to their usual figure—ten cents.

The attack of grip which John Logan had developed into pneumonia and he has been very ill. His case however is not considered critical and it is believed that he will pull through safely.

John and Mrs. Tynan are receiving the congratulations of their many friends on the arrival of their first born last Sunday, a sturdy youngster weighing ten pounds. Mother and child are doing nicely.

At the meeting of Company G last Monday evening, they voted to raise the quartermaster sergeant's salary from $20 to $40 a year. Quartermaster Sergeant A. C. House will doubtless appreciate this advance in his salary.

The demand for tenements seems to be good hereabouts, notwithstanding that the new buildings that have been erected during the past few years. Applications for tenements are made now as soon as the cellars are started, and sometimes earlier.

The newly elected officers of the Ancient Order of Hibernians for Hartford county are as follows: President, P. J. Silk of Hartford; secretary, John J. Hickey of Hartford; treasurer, John Burke of Thompsonville.

Navigation on the Connecticut river opened last Tuesday, when the New York boat made her first trip for the season to Hartford, arriving there at 7:30 o'clock in the morning. The boats leave daily and simultaneously from Hartford and New York.

Charles Cummings will give up his position as motorman on the crosstown line of the tramway and move back on his father's farm in Hilltown. His father is getting old and Charles will take hold and run the farm. He will find there a comfortable and pleasant home.

The Sons of Temperance will have a debate in Cheney hall this Friday evening, the subject of which will be, "Resolved, That the rich have greater temptation to do wrong than the poor." This is a good subject and is likely to develop an animated discussion. A large attendance is expected.

Well March did come in like a lamb sure enough. We are very thankful for that at all events, let the going out be what it may. We also appreciate the few days of sunshine given us at the close of February, following a week of almost constant rain, clouds, fogs and sleet.

There will be a social gathering of prohibitionists at the home of Edwin S. Brainerd, 157 Main street, next Monday evening, at which Rev. Ichabod Simmons, D. D. pastor of the First M. E. church, Hartford will deliver an address. All prohibitionists and all persons interested in prohibition, are hereby cordially invited to be present.

Advised Letters, South Manchester, Conn., March 1, 1898.
Alice A. Herne, Henry Lidholdt, Jr.
Wm. James S. Matchett,
Miss L. E. Osborn, Eugene Stodeth,
Blanch Tomney, C. Shouts, ROLLIN M. ROOD, P. M.

A large glass in the north show window of F. E. Belcher's drug store was broken to fragments about 1 a. m. yesterday by burglars, who attempted to enter the place, but were frightened away by one of the tenants in the block, who was awakened by the breaking of the glass and screamed. In as far as known, nothing was stolen.

The few days of sunshine that we had during the past week brought out the bicycles on the streets in good style. Washing could not be enjoyed out of town however, but the bicyclists lost no time in improving every opportunity there was on the most frequented streets, particularly on the macadam road.

The lecture given by Rev. J. H. James in the North Congregational church last Sunday evening attracted a large audience, several of the temperance societies at the north and being present. Mr. James delivered this lecture in the South Methodist church some time ago. It is a good one. He is a very interesting, entertaining and instructive speaker.

While walking on Pine street near Pleasant last Friday evening, Frederick Behrend of Hartford road slipped and fell, breaking a bone in his right ankle. He was taken to Dr. Bradley's office where the broken bone was set. The accident is likely to disable Mr. Behrend for several weeks. He has gone to the Hartford hospital for treatment.

There seems to be a big rush for $30 bicycles this year. Popular prices make $25 a sale in wheels as well as in most other things. There are a number of very excellent wheels on the market, of standard makes, that are selling this year for $30. The range in prices and styles is large however, and all tastes and purses can be readily suited.

The millinery parlors in Cheney's store are being renovated, preparatory to the Spring millinery opening and everything will be made bright and attractive for the Easter millinery display and work. Mirrors will be placed all around the room, just above the wainscoting and the ceiling and sides will be painted white. Miss Jennie Wallace, the very capable, courteous and popular milliner, retires from the service of W. H. Cheney's store and will be succeeded by Miss Dora Nahn, another equally capable lady. Miss Wallace has secured a position as milliner in Texas and will go there soon.

Try Hollister's coal. It is the best. 10 23 1/2

For Rent.—A four room tenement on Oak street. Enquire of W. S. Ferris.

When you want a good oil for either bicycles or sewing machines, go to Ferris Brothers. It's ten cents a bottle.

Someone can buy a nice six-room house, centrally located in South Manchester, by applying to John M. Shewery. It will make a cozy cottage home and the terms will be made reasonable.

More than fifty per cent of American freight is expected and imported on British ships.

Washington officials hold that the Japanese are entitled to be admitted to citizenship in every part of the United States, and have the privilege of the most favored nation laws, unless Congress shall pass laws to the contrary.

A Russian physician examined a number of students with regard to their health as affected by smoking. Of the smokers 16.9 per cent were found to have some affection of the respiratory tract, while only 10.69 of the non-smokers were thus affected.

There are floating stories occasionally of frog farms here and there, but all apocryphal. Forest and Stream says, if by farming he meant the artificial propagation of frogs as fishes are propagated in hatcheries, and reared through the successive stages from the egg to maturity.

Two years ago a Kansas colony consisting of about a dozen persons set out on their property and set forth with the proceeds to the Holy Land.

One of Germany's leading statisticians has come to the conclusion that in order to live long it is necessary to be married. Out of every seventy men who reach the age of sixty he finds that forty-eight are married.

The United States supreme court recently decided a case that may have a marked influence toward the development of a national system of government of schools.

The revised figures showing the extent of the American grain crop for the past year have just been given out by the United States department of agriculture.

While the figures represent but a partial view of the situation, they are nevertheless sufficient to indicate the extent of the grain crop in this country.

Political matters in Great Britain have begun to attract attention as they have not received in a long time, says Harold Frederic.

Russia is said to have crowded England out of the Bosphorus kingdom, and it is hardly probable that John Bull has planted his feet in that Chiusus shop, and it will require something more than diplomacy to remove him.

The butchers and meat dealers of Berlin complain that $7,664,000 worth of meats were imported into Germany in 1915, principally from the United States, and at prices with which they are unable to compete.

The latest advice from Peking brought news illustrating the arrogance of the European government, and the treatment of China.

While she found the cigar case, handed the newspaper and regulated the exact fall of the curtain which should be most agreeable to her brother's optical partialities.

She was certainly very pretty, this fair-haired blonde, with the complexion of sea-shell pink, the china-blue eyes, the dimples on cheek and chin.

"Dear Ellice," said Mary, plugging conspicuously into her subject, "where have you been all the morning?"

"Believe me, I am not asking from mere curiosity," pleaded Mary, "where have you been all the morning?"

"Certainly! Why shouldn't I go down the street and look at the corn ranches, farmers who raise corn prefer to let them have a monopoly on the breeding and raising of it."

"The girl with the pitch-fork on the top of her head," said Ellice, "is a very nice girl."

THE GOOD WE DO. The good we do with motives true will never be lost. For goodness is like a distant bird's nest, and it is not until it is empty that we know it was there.

The Conqueror of Junius.

"A regular Amazon!" said Junius Haven, strutting his shoulders. "On the very top of a load of hay, with a straw hat pulled down over her eyes and a pitchfork in her hand!"

"A man must believe his senses," said Junius. "I asked for Miss Jocelyn, and the ancient dame who was shelling peas by the kitchen window."

"There must be some mistake!" cried out impatiently Mary. "My Ellice Jocelyn is a princess among women, tall and slender and graceful, who plays the harp and writes delicious transcendental essays."
