American Women All Right, Every now and then I hear some man say that very few really handsome women, few women with genninely pretty faces, are to be met on Broadway or Fifth avenue in an afternoon. A man who says that has liver complaint or has been disappointed in love, I can see a stylish, dashing looking woman coming a block off, and when I walk out here or in any American city I have to keep my eyes on the jump to get a glimpse of half the beautiful women that pass by. American women walk so well. Don't you believe any of this twaddle in foreign papers about our women walking awkwardly. Their walk is grace itself compared with that
