WONDERS NEVER CEASE.

Everybody had an idea that Uncle Sam and John Bull were waiting for a chance to try at each other's throats, but now it seems they have discovered that such is the best friend the other ever had. Time works wonders. It isn't so long ago that nobody—not even outsiders—would have believed that we would ever be able to make such extremely smart clothes as such moderate charges.

Huntsinger's Business College

is a HIVE OF INDUSTRY, and fulfills all its pledges. It is an ambitious school and works for the pupils' interests both in the school and out of it. It is a well-disciplined institution and is nearly three times as large as any other business college of Hartford. Seven teachers devote their entire time to teaching. There are no "figure-heads" upon our faculty. We teach "ACTUAL BUSINESS PRACTICE FROM THE START," and the course is right up with the times. Its graduates are superior to those of other business schools and are a success in business. It teaches the Business and Shorthand Courses as thoroughly as they are taught in Boston and New York. It placed 238 graduates in situations the past 14 months.

OPENING NEXT MONDAY. HUNTSINGER, 98 ASYLUM ST., HARTFORD, CONN.

TOWN NEWS AND NOTES.

THE TEACHING AT HUNTSINGER'S.

Thoroughly trained teachers insure thoroughly trained pupils; don't forget that Normal school educators teach in the best methods yet discovered for that most important of all work, training the minds of the young. They command everywhere the best positions and the best salaries. Huntsinger's Business College employs only this class. Like Mr. Huntsinger himself they are experts in the different branches of business instruction. Their work has been tested, and pronounced the best. Huntsinger's graduates have the call over all competitors.

The greatest obstacle to business college success in the past has been the fact that far too many men with a smattering knowledge of business methods and neither preliminary preparation nor natural capacity for teaching have advertised themselves as principals and instructors in what they were pleased to term business colleges. Their pupils were their victims, and their employments embarrassed the business college system. Failure must be the attendant of such institutions. Not even modern science can grow grapes from thorns or fig from thistles. Connecticut is not the place for 1898 the time to win success by slurring Normal School Teachers.

Richard G. Rich of the First Vermont Volunteers, Infantry came home last Wednesday on a furlough. He expects to return to the regiment, which is located at Fort Ethan Allen, Vermont, next Monday. Orders have been issued from Washington to have the regiment mustered out of the government service. B. T. Lyons and Albert Wilkinson have purchased the P. E. Belcher & Co. drag store on Pine street and are operating it. They opened their doors yesterday. Mr. Lyons is here in person for the present. He also conducts a drug store in Torrington and is a stockholder in a daily newspaper there. Rev. A. H. Howland, pastor of the Pentecostal church, will preach in the tent at the Center at 10:30, 3:30 and 7:30 on Sunday. Services during the week on Wednesday and Friday evenings. Open air meeting at the Park building on Monday evening. Sunday school at 2:30 Sabbath afternoon.

Rev. J. A. Biddle writes us from Saratoga, N. Y. that he has had a nice and refreshing vacation and will be home Friday, Sept. 2. On Sunday Sept. 4 he will have Sunday School at 9:30 a. m., Holy Communion with sermon at 10:45 a. m. and evening prayer and sermon at 7:00 p. m.

Rev. W. J. McGurk announced last Sunday that a mission by the Jesuit Fathers will be held in St. James church beginning Sunday, Sept. 4. These missionaries are very learned, and eloquent men, well versed in religious controversy and they will deliver a number of very able and instructive sermons during this mission.

Richard Malkin came here from Camp Alger last Monday. He returned Wednesday. His health is good and he says that no serious illness exists in Company G. The boys would rather be mustered out of Cuba or Porto Rico. Now that the war is over their love of home asserts itself and they would be glad to return. The South Manchester Division Sons of Temperance will run a trolley excursion to Lake Compounce next Wednesday, leaving Cheney's store at 7:45 a. m. All are cordially invited to join the party whether members or not. Those who intend to go are requested to send their names to Frank A. Pinney or Harry G. Anderson so that ample cars may be provided.

August Mahieu opened a grocery store at the corner of Pleasant and Pine streets last Monday and has laid in a line of nice new goods which he proposes to sell at low prices for cash and thus make it an object for persons to patronize him. He is not going to put a team on the road, but will make his prices so much lower that persons will find it to their advantage to go there and thus save money. His advertisement appears in another column.

Mrs. Mary King of Hartford and Wm. Knowers of this place attached the launch cart owned by P. J. O'Leary and also one said to be owned by W. H. Grant last Tuesday for debt. A writ of replevin was issued and the Grant cart taken away. It is now stored in B. C. Ape's sheds over north, Harry M. Burke is counsel for the plaintiffs and H. O. Bowers for the defendants. The case is returnable to the court of common pleas, Hartford, Tuesday, September 6.

About twenty of Fred B. Bartlett's young friends assembled on invitation at his home on Forest street last Tuesday afternoon and evening to help celebrate his sixteenth birthday and they had a grand time. A choice and dainty luncheon was served. Miss Zulu Doane rendered a number of pretty selections on the piano and added much to the entertainment of the guests. Her playing was admired and appreciated very highly. The time passed so pleasantly that the young people were scarcely aware of the howling thunder storm that prevailed. It was not permitted to interfere with their pleasure at all. They brought a number of attractive and useful presents which they gave Fred with their best wishes.

EIGHTEENTH ANNIVERSARY.

The eighteenth anniversary of the Swedish Society was celebrated in the Armory with a concert and ball on the evening of Saturday, September 17, 1898. TOWN COURT.

As David Woodhouse and Matthew Robb were returning home from church last Thursday night, they were run down by Jeremiah Sweeney who was riding his bicycle on the sidewalk at a rapid rate on Prospect street. They caught him and he tried to conceal his identity, telling Mr. Robb that his name was "John". Mr. Woodhouse however recognized him and they had him arrested. He was found guilty of having violated the ordinance prohibiting riding on the sidewalk and was fined $5.00 and the costs which were paid. This is the first case of prosecution here under this ordinance. Riding done on the sidewalks however should be stopped and can be if the right steps be taken.

GOLDEN WEDDING.

The golden wedding of Edgar T. and Mrs. Hale was celebrated at their home, 41 Main street, last Tuesday evening, in the midst of a driving thunder storm. The lawn and piazza had been prettily decorated for the occasion during the day but these had to be hastily removed as the howling wind and rain would soon have played havoc with them. Invitations had been sent out to 100 persons and the intimacy of the weather kept a number away. In spite of the storm however a goodly party assembled and were royally entertained. A wedding feast was served, at which Bass of Hartford catered, and congratulations were extended and a very enjoyable time ensued. A number of elegant and costly presents were brought, including a golden nugget from a friend in Colorado. Three of the guests who attended the wedding fifty years ago, were present last Tuesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Hale were married by Rev. Benjamin Phelps of Vernon, who died some time ago. The reception lasted from 8 until 9 and the storm raged during the entire period. Rev. E. P. Phareson delivered a congratulatory address and offered prayer. Miss Agnes Henderson played the piano and gave a recitation. The fact that so many people attended in spite of the storm was very complimentary to Mr. and Mrs. Hale and was highly appreciated by them.

TOWN NEWS AND NOTES.

He had been in the halls of legislation himself in the interest of certain areas and he knew those things to be true. He claimed that the last two governors had been elected by this cabal...

The Republican party do not need money. This state will give 50,000.1 forty with money. He then paid a glowing tribute to John Addison Porter and called upon the people to elect him as governor of the State of Connecticut.

W. C. Cheney moved that the two representatives be sent as delegates to the State Convention, and the vote by acclamation. This was promptly squelched without debate and the nomination and election of delegates by ballot proceeded on motion of F. E. Watkins.

Dr. W. R. Tinker was nominated but declined to allow his name to go before the caucus. F. A. Verplanck, F. W. Mills, C. E. House and A. W. Barrows were appointed as tellers.

On the first informal ballot 81 votes were cast, of which M. S. Chapman received 53. The election of M. S. Chapman was therefore made formal and unanimous.

There were 81 ballots cast on the informal ballot for second delegate of which James W. Cheney received 30. There was no choice, and in order to save time, F. E. Watkins moved that the man receiving the highest number of votes on the next ballot be declared elected.

M. S. Chapman opposed this, stating that a full and fair ballot must be taken never mind how much time was required. The motion was thereupon voted down and balloting proceeded.

On the second ballot, James W. Cheney received 51 votes out of a total of 81 and his election was made formal and unanimous.

W. C. Cheney then withdrew his name saying that one Cheney was enough on the delegation.

It took two ballots to elect the third delegate and the honor fell on H. O. Bowers. He received 53 out of 73 votes on the first ballot and 46 out of 74 on the second. His election was made formal and unanimous.

F. E. Watkins had 19 on the first ballot and 9 on the second.

AUXILIARY BAZAR.

The three night bazar of the Ladies Auxiliary of the A. O. H. opened in the Armory last night and in spite of the intensely hot weather was well attended.

The delegation is thus split squarely in two. As soon as the delegates were elected, M. S. Chapman stepped to the chair and asked a resolution in relation to the delegates just elected to vote in the state convention for the nomination of John Addison Porter for governor of the State of Connecticut as long as there was any chance to secure his nomination.

The delegation in this case was split. M. S. Chapman stated the question which was put to a vote was without debate and the result was doubtful, although it seemed that the ones had it.

Seeing the danger in which the resolution stood, M. S. Chapman promptly took the floor in its advocacy and made an extended appeal to the caucus to carry the measure to a successful issue, calling attention to the numerous newspaper reports as to the exercise of leadership by the Republican party at the time had arrived with regard to the call a bait as it tended to disparage the party.

He did not class the few faithful party workers in this town as being leeches or lobbyists. He said they would never age about as well as the rest of the eleven good honest men in the caucus.

He held that some of the members of the State Central committee were corrupt, that they went to the halls of legislation, held up bills and would not allow them to become laws unless their palms were oiled.

He solemnly declared that the Old Commonwealth of Connecticut demands that these men be called down and honest men be put in their places.

He had been in the halls of legislation himself in the interest of certain areas and he knew those things to be true. He claimed that the last two governors had been elected by this cabal...

He and God knew and everybody knew he had the right kind of man as governor that our soldier boys would not have been abused as they were.

He positively declared that he had not had a governor since Morgan G. Bulkeley occupied the gubernatorial chair.

The papers say that Mr. Lounsbury is to be elected by this cabal because he has a barrel full of money and would not have been thought of had it not been for the barrel.

SEER'S DIRECTORY.

The Geer's Directory for 1898, the 61st volume of this valuable work, has been issued. It closely resembles in style and general makeup its recent predecessors.

This new brought up to date and valuable addition is a list of the war revenue taxes, which is printed on page 759. In this volume has also been incorporated an index to the renumbering of Main street, giving both the old and new numbers, and the names of the new numbers, and the names of the old numbers.

The Ladies Auxiliary of Hartford are coming out by special trolley car in a body this Friday evening. An excellent entertainment is promised, as some of the performers are said to be professionals.

On Saturday evening the entertainment will be furnished by local juveniles, under the direction of Miss E. Keating. The program will consist of seven numbers, including a tableau.

The "Wonder" booth is first on the right hand side. The decorations are superbly beautiful with hydrangeas, gladioli, the white lily, and carnations. It is in charge of Mrs. J. J. O'Dowd and Miss Maggie Frier. They also will manipulate the tallies down.

The Candy booth will be found on the left hand side. The decorations are superbly beautiful with hydrangeas, gladioli, the white lily, and carnations. It is in charge of Mrs. J. J. O'Dowd and Miss Maggie Frier. They also will manipulate the tallies down.

SEER'S DIRECTORY.

The Geer's Directory for 1898, the 61st volume of this valuable work, has been issued. It closely resembles in style and general makeup its recent predecessors.

This new brought up to date and valuable addition is a list of the war revenue taxes, which is printed on page 759. In this volume has also been incorporated an index to the renumbering of Main street, giving both the old and new numbers, and the names of the new numbers, and the names of the old numbers.

The Ladies Auxiliary of Hartford are coming out by special trolley car in a body this Friday evening. An excellent entertainment is promised, as some of the performers are said to be professionals.

On Saturday evening the entertainment will be furnished by local juveniles, under the direction of Miss E. Keating. The program will consist of seven numbers, including a tableau.

Surprising to Everybody

Except Huntsinger's Business College.

Re-opened with twice as many pupils as any other business college of Hartford. Doing the best work and telling the truth is appreciated.

Huntsinger's Business College

is not only the best, but the largest in the State of Connecticut, the standard institution of its kind. Moreover, it has placed 430 graduates in situations the past 45 months, while other schools let the graduate do the best he can to find a place. New pupils enter almost every day. Now is the time to make arrangements for a seat.

Huntsinger's Business College, 30 Asylum St., Hartford.

TOWN NEWS AND NOTES.

HUNTSINGER'S LEADS, AS USUAL.

THE OPENING ON MONDAY is the seventh year that Huntsinger's Business College has led all the other business colleges in Hartford in numbers of pupils. This year was naturally expected. This school has trained over 4000 pupils and has an attendance at all times of at least twice as many pupils as any other business college of Hartford.

This school has attained this great popularity through a number of factors, chief among which is its honest dealing, its superior management, fine teaching and placing its graduates in good-paying situations.

Mr. Huntsinger has an able faculty of seven teachers who devote their whole time to the interests of the pupils. Huntsinger's faculty is made up of real persons and not figure heads. New pupils may enter this school on any day, as the instruction is largely individual.

The South Manchester base ball team that was defeated by the Capewell Horse Nail Company team on the Nelo grounds last Saturday, will play the same team in Hartford on Monday afternoon on the Holland grounds. The team on the Holland grounds is W. Martin and W. Aspinall.

Advertised Letters, Manchester, Conn., Sept. 1, 1898. Miss Annie Barnes. Miss Grace Crawford. Miss Eliza J. Taylor. Miss Mary G. Oakes.

CHARLES H. ROSE, P. M. At the State Convention of the Prohibitionists held in Hartford last Wednesday, E. H. Stanley of Highland Park was nominated for secretary of the State and E. L. G. Hohenthal of South Manchester received the nomination for member of Congress. Mr. Hohenthal was also appointed a member of the State central committee and of the district committee as well.

The Odd Fellows excursion to Fairview was not only a social but was a financial success as well. They paid bills amounting to over $500 and had a surplus of over $600 to place in their treasury. The boat cost $300, the train $110 and the land $75. There were other expenses besides. They have the greatest satisfaction of knowing that they pleased their patrons and gave them a delightful outing.

Wm. McCormack, who conducted a dry goods store on North Main street until recently, died from the effects of a shock last Wednesday afternoon. He was 69 years of age. His funeral will take place at 2 o'clock tomorrow, Saturday afternoon, from his late residence. Rev. C. H. Barber will officiate. Interment will be in the Center cemetery. He leaves a wife and one daughter, Mrs. Minor H. White of Vernon.

While Albert Schack of Buckingham was driving down Main street last evening his horse became unmanageable and in turning around into Charter Oak street dashed into the east window of the men's furnishings department of Cheney's store, breaking a large light of glass and cutting his (Schack's) head in several places. Dr. Parker dressed his wounds. He had a young woman with him. She was not hurt. He lost a pocket book and $80.00.

Teachers hall which has been practically deserted for the past two months will bristle with its wonted activity next week when the fifty or more teachers will return for the opening of the school next Tuesday. With the teachers and company of out of town at the same time this village seems rather lonesome. We know the teachers will return next week and we hope that Company G may return within a few weeks. Everybody would be glad to see them here and from all reports they would be very glad to see and abide with us.

CAUGHT IN WHEEL.

Little Annie Veitch, daughter of James Veitch of Church street, asked Ed. Ed. for a ride on his wheel last Saturday evening. Pollard was going slow and told her to get on behind. She got one foot on the step and tried to catch the one on the other side but her foot became entangled in the spokes and broke the great tire beside cutting her foot so badly that five stitches were required to close the wound. Dr. Bradley attended the little girl. She is 9 years old. She was bare-foot at the time of the accident.

TO BE MUSTERED OUT.

Orders have been issued by the adjutant-general of the United States army directing that the First Connecticut Volunteers be mustered out of the service as soon as the necessary transfer of property can be made and the muster rolls fixed and compared satisfactorily. This will probably require about ten days. They will then be brought to Niantic, given thirty days furlough and then be mustered out. Every body here will be glad to see the boys home and they themselves are anxious to be released.

SOUTH N. E. CHURCH NOTES.

Rev. Wm. McCreery will occupy the pulpit in the South N. E. Church next Sunday.

The Epworth League prayer meeting will take place at 6 p. m. on Sunday next and will be in charge of Miss Cora Forbes and Harry Agard. The class meeting on Tuesday evening Sept. 6, will be under the direction of Wm. Ferguson. E. L. G. Hohenthal will lead the prayer meeting next Thursday evening.

WORTHY OF NOTE.

Aaron Johnson, our well known Chestnut street grocer, has just secured an invoice of 5000 pounds of pure Java coffee at a figure that will enable him to sell it at the rate of four pounds for one dollar. This in spite of the fact that war revenue taxes have advanced the price of both coffees and teas. He is also selling his fine Ceylon teas at the old prices. There are some things which Mr. Johnson does in his dealings with the public that are worthy of note. He is always on the alert to secure the best goods in the market, to make the price right and to give the public the benefit of large and careful buying. He is also gaining public confidence by backing up his advertising in the letter and doing this in a plain and very commendable and is worth a great deal to any business man.

His ambition is to have the people know that when his name appears in an advertisement, that people will find the statements there made to be absolutely correct.

SUCCESS. There is no better word to describe our opening week. Some one has said that "to find out what the people really want and to supply that want is Success." It is surely true in our case. We learned that young people wanted an Actual Business Practice Training. We built up just such a system of instruction. We spared neither time, money nor pains to produce it and we've won Success. This last week we have not only enrolled more pupils than during any other week in our history, but we have of this number many from distant states. INDIVIDUAL INSTRUCTION characterizes every bit of our teaching.
