Cincinnati, Ohlo, to Mrs. Pinkham: "For a long time I suffered with chronic inflammation of the womb, pain in abdomen and bearing-down celing. Was very nervous at times, and so weak I was hardly able to do anything. Was subject to headaches, also troubled with leucorrhoea. After doctoring for many months with different physicians, and getting no relief, I had given up all hope of being well again when I read of the great good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was doing. I decided immediately to give it a trial. The result was simply past belief. After taking four bottles of Vegetable Compound and using three packages of Sanative Wash I can say I feel like a new woman. I deem it my duty to announce the fact to my fellow sufferers that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable remedies have entirely cured me of all my pains and suffering. I have her alone to thank for my recovery, for which I am grateful. May heaven bless her for the good work she is doing for our sex."

The explosion shook the immense structure te its foundations, and was heard several squares away. It occurred in a small room, tightly inclosed by heavy stone wans in the mbterranean basement, immediately be low the main entrance to the old Capitol milding. In this room was a five-hundredight gas meter, which was fed by a fourinch main. Very little gas is used in that part of the building, but at the time of the volosion the gas had not been turned of at the meter. The meter itself was wrecked and the g s pouring from the main caught fire. The flames originating from the explosion darted up the shaft of the elevator, which had been completely destroyed b the force of the explosion, and communieated with the record room of the Supreme Court, the office of the Marshal of the court, and the Supreme Court Library, Betore the flames could be subdued the priceless documents in the record room had seen almost totally destroyed, and serious damage had been done in the Marshal's room and some minor rooms in the immediate neighborhood. The library of the Supreme Court, located immediately beneath the Supreme Court room, was badly damaged by fire, smoke and water, water practically destroying the great collection of law reference books. The library contains about 20,000 volumes, and was used not only by the Justices of was badly injured by a stab which nearly the Supreme Court, but by members of cut his throat.
