Publisher's Notice. Most of our readers, heretofore at least, are well aware of the fact that we were burned out last Monday night...

We will fill our orders for everything in our lines as well as we can, until we get established on our feet again.

We take this opportunity of acknowledging our gratitude to the friends who labored so faithfully and successfully to save our fortunes for us by keeping fire away from our stock, in as far as possible they manifested a most friendly spirit...

We also extend to our daily friends our sincere thanks for the innumerable expressions of sympathy that have been showered upon us from all sides, and which we are exceedingly grateful for.

We were surprised and delighted to receive the telegram given below, from Henry B. Hale, editor and proprietor of the Hartford Herald.

To J. Flood, South Manchester, Conn., November 29, 1898.

My sympathy. May have use of my office plant if you wish.

I afford as much pleasure to inform our readers that Mr. E. M. Huntington of Huntington's Business College, 30 Asylum street, Hartford, is making a special conveyance from the city on Monday and will return to his office on Tuesday and attend to the requirements of his school.

T. A. Donahue, V. S. requests us to state that the boys of Frank D. Barnes, which was ordered killed by Human Agent Thrall as notified in issue of Nov. 25, 1898, has been located by the officers. Mr. Donahue's opinion, however, a written statement on his own signature, of his version of the case in detail which all interested persons are invited to call on.

J. W. Hale of the Boston Store has taken a three months' contract for the first page of the News, which has been occupied by W. H. Cheney's Sons since the first started, and George R. Wright, the School street shoe dealer, has a three months' contract for the advertising space on Page 1, used by W. H. Cheney for his drug store advertisement, from the first issue of the News.

We cannot speak too favorably of the heroic work done by our volunteer firemen at the big fire last Monday evening and at the premises with which they got into action considering the heavy ground, rendering the street impassable. It was a very calm night and this fact, coupled with the good work of the firemen, confined the flames to the Cheney block. The conditions for more extended conflagration were very favorable.

Keene's is the place to buy your Christmas goods as the dealer honest and square. All goods guaranteed at Keene's.

We aim to please the public no matter how much trouble it gives us for we like to please everybody. Yours, C. H. Keene.

Call at Keene's and see those ladies twenty five years old who are making a movement, for Fifteen Dollars. They are a big bargain, never offered to the public before. We have only a few left at this price, as we have sold large numbers of them.

Snow showers were in great demand Monday and many dealers had to close their doors. J. E. Morton, who sold a large stock and up to six o'clock Monday night had gotten rid of 60.

CZAR'S PEACE PLAN.

There are probably not less than a score of men walking about New Orleans today who are decorated under the name of 'detectives'.

The book which is admitted, corrected to the gospel of peace has been published in Petersburg.

A surprising number of women went to the fire. The night was so bright and pleasant that scores of women and girls went to the fire without coats.
