Secretary Long Will Proceed With the Construction of Cruisers. WASHINGTON, D. C. (Special) .- Congress has authorized the construction of three first class battle ships, three first class armored cruisers, and six protected cruisers, and has, in the same act, declared that none of these ships shall be built except the six protected cruisers. Secretary Long says that it will be im-possible for the Navy Department to continue to build any of the battleships, because it is not possible to procure armor at the figure provided, that is, $300 a ton; but there is no such restriction in the case of the six smaller cruisers authorized to be
