Windsor Castle is to be fitted with electric lights and bells of American manufacture. The English makers will doubtless condema Queen Victoria's course in ordering these improvements from the United States as inconsiderate and unpatriotic.

The average man has small compre bension of the cost of apparently little things. A railroad official in a recent lecture stated that it cost his road each year about $1000 for pins; $5000 for rubber bands; $5000 for ink $7000 for lead pencils-also that it costs nearly as much for stationery to carry on the business as for iron.

from doing that particular thing. The quotation from the old song that "A cloudy morning oft brings a pleasant day" was abundantly verified on this occasion, as the day was an admirable one for a land and water excursion such as was taken. The light rain was but of short duration and as the train sped beyond Hartford on the way to New Haven dry weather prevailed. The trip to Glen Island and back was made without a single mishap. The day was a delightful one taken as a whole. It was neither too hot nor too cold and everyone enjoyed the outing beyond our ability of ex-
