THE SURPRISERS SURPRISED

A large and merry party of young people from this place went to East Windsor Hill last Saturday evening to give a surprise party to Dr. R. C. Hannon, formerly of this place, but as they had not communicated their froliesome designs to the doctor, in advance, that entleman happened to be in New York City at the time of their call and thereore missed all the merriment that was n store for him.

The young people did not believe that he doctor was away when so informed by Mrs. Hannon and accordingly instituted a search of the premises, but all to no purpose.

The doctor however was the loser as
