BUILDING AND REAL ESTATE

PENTECOSTAL PARSONAGE.

Duly authorized representatives of the Pentecostal church purchased a large building lot from James Trotter last Monday at the southeast corner of Huntington street and Wadsworth avenue and propose to erect a parsonage there during the present season. Cheney Brothers have very generously helped them with a substantial contribution and during the next few months members of the church will interest themselves in the matter of raising more funds to carry on the good work. The location is a good one and also very healthy and when equipped with a nice building such as is contemplated will be an ornament to the neighborhood. It is intended to have it ready for occupancy before winter sets in.

SYMINGTON PLACE SOLD.

Ephraim Symington of Paterson, N. J. was here last Saturday and sold his homestead on Birch street to James Mc-Cann. Mr. Symington returned to his home in Paterson on Monday. That closes all his real estate interests in South Manchester. The cottage is ocenpied presently by Mrs. William Crawford, and the sale will not interfere in any way with the present tenant, as Mr. McCann is a single man and made he purchase merely as an investment. Edward Elliott of Orchard street purchased a building lot this week from James Trotter. It is located on Wadsworth avenue, next east of his brother
