

A Shoe For The Ladies.

The "GOODY TWO" shoes are now manufactured by George O. Sawyer of Hartford and are made to sell at $3.50 a pair. In order to introduce them to the ladies of South Manchester and vicinity I will sell them for $2.25 a pair from now until December 1st. Mr. Sawyer formerly sold this shoe in his Hartford store for $2.25 a pair, but is now manufacturing it himself and has improved the quality so as to make it a $3.50 shoe. Therefore, after December 1st the price of these shoes here will be $2.50 a pair. Call and see them and try a pair at the reduced price. I am sole agent for this well known shoe in this town.

Huntsinger's Business College

gives the highest grade of business college training, because we have plenty of the best teachers who give individual instruction. All unnecessary things are omitted from our course.

200 pupils in the Day School. The eighth teacher began work Monday, October 1st.

We placed 640 graduates in situations in the forty-six months and two weeks ending September 28th.

Tuition only $1 per month and no text books to buy; passenger elevator, etc. Call to see the college. New pupils enter every week.

E. M. HUNTSINGER, 30 Asylum St., Hartford.

BOUND TO OCCUPY A FRONT SEAT.

Walter B. Spencer passed his examinations for Yale college last week and was admitted without a single condition. This is an excellent showing for Mr. Spencer, and demonstrates clearly that he has put in some faithful work in his preliminary studies. He is sure to be a winner as he has the material in him for one, and if he pursues the course he is now following and displays the same perseverance and industry in his life's work as he is exhibiting in his studies, he cannot do other than succeed. No power on earth can keep that sort of a young man from going to the front and occupying a prominent position in the land wagon.

A. W. GREENE HERE.

Mr. A. W. Greene of Ansonia, N. Y., came to town last Tuesday and is expected to remain hereabouts for at least a few weeks. He is going to dispose of his pretty homestead on Main street here. He will have no trouble in doing this as he has had about a dozen applications for it already. It is one of the very few desirable residences, or residential sites that can be purchased on Main street at the present time. Mr. Greene has not decided fully as yet where he will locate, but he does not think that he will pitch his tent in Northern New York. He says that the weather there is quite cold already; that sharp frosts are occurring almost nightly and that the climate is altogether more frigid than he can endure in the winter time.

COUNCIL NEXT WEEK.

The council which is entrusted the work of disuniting Rev. Thomas Stims from his pastorate of the Center Congregational church in this place, will assemble at the Center church next Wednesday at 3 o'clock for the purpose of attending to that duty. This body is composed of ministers from the surrounding Congregational churches and also one layman from each of the following places: Vernon, Rockville, Wapping, Bolton, South Windsor, Glastonbury, South Glastonbury, Hockanum, East Hartford and the South Congregational church in Hartford. Rev. Mr. Robbins and Rev. Mr. Forbes of Hartford will also take part in the deliberations. These gentlemen have served as pastors here. Rev. Mr. Stims' resignation will take effect next month.

CHORAL SOCIETY.

The second meeting of the Choral Society was held in the Center Church Wednesday evening. Mr. H. E. Brewer was elected president and Mr. W. H. Robbins, secretary and treasurer. The music committee consisting of Mr. James Hutchison, Mrs. Farley, Mr. Robert Cadman, Miss Balgait, and Mr. George Trotter were elected together with the president and secretary to settle all business pertaining to the society. It was voted to have an entrance fee of fifty cents and to hold rehearsals in Cheney Hall. The meeting next week will be held in the Center church as usual. The day evening, October 12, at eight o'clock. Mr. Brewer will be the conductor.

WORKING OVERTIME.

Owing to the tremendous demand for velvets at the present time, the operatives of the velvet department in Cheney Brothers silk mills are working twelve hours a day, and even at that rate are scarcely able to keep pace with the influx of orders for these goods. We trust that the good work may go bravely on. It will in part compensate for what the working people here lost during the business stagnation that extended four or five years ago, as all remember when in many cases they even half time could be had. He wants no more such times as were thrust upon us during those fatal four years preceding the advent of the present National administration at Washington.

ANNUAL MEETING.

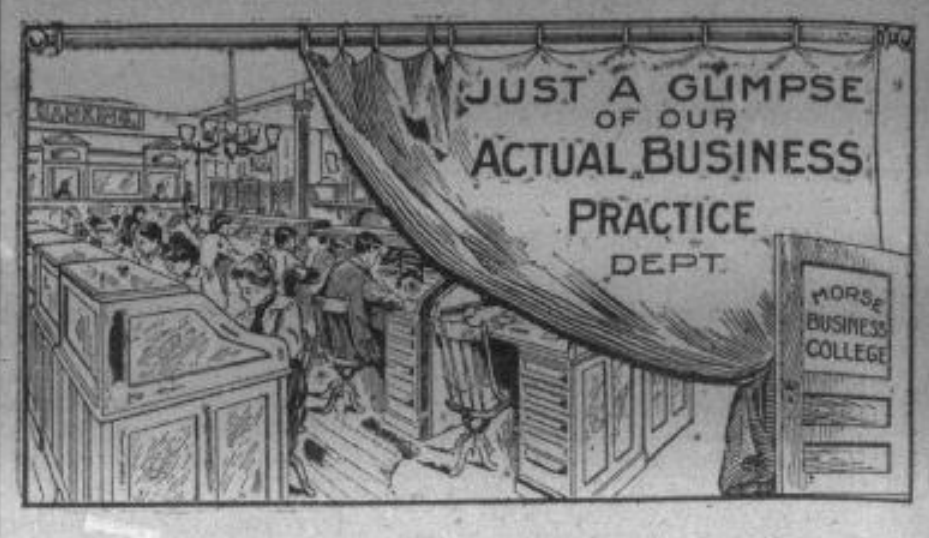

The annual meeting of the South Manchester W. C. T. U. will be held in the parlor of the Methodist church, next Tuesday afternoon, at three o'clock. Officers and superintendents will prepare written reports for this occasion. Plans: blankets laundered, 15 and 25 cents; American Laundry. Mattresses, spring beds and pillows at Caltra's.

FOUND—Leather neck halter. Owner can have same by proving property and paying for this advertisement. E. D. Lynch, Milkman, Manchester, Conn. 293. You will find anything in lamps and lamp supplies at the House Furnishing Co.

FORESTERS FAIR

THE ARMORY, OCT. 23, 24, 25, 26, 27.

AHEAD of ALL PREVIOUS RECORDS.

Never in the history of this institution since it was founded as a Bryant and Stratton school in 1866 have we had such a prosperous opening as during the month just passed. Both day and evening sessions are patronized by a large number of pupils. Many are from Connecticut and some from distant states and territories. Our seems to be the winning feature. There is nothing like it in the state and few commercial schools in the whole country come anywhere near having the elegant equipment, experienced teachers and realistic systems of instruction as do we. It thoroughly interests young men and women long after school hours and gets excellent results. Our price $12.50 per month seems larger than that of smaller schools, but it is much cheaper when you come to consider our immense advantages. With us you learn by experience, you do some duties as you will be required to do again in business, then you furnish all books and supplies free.

THE NEXT BIG FAIR.

ARMORY OCT. 23-27.

Beautiful Decorations Will Transform the Hall into a Fairy Land—Brilliant Lights Music Sweet, and Dazzling Surroundings.

The public will bear a good deal about the Foresters' big fair during the next three weeks. Up to this time comparatively little has been said about it, although more than half a hundred men and women have been actively at work on its committees for the last two months. The arrangements for the fair are being made, and from now until the fair opens the attention of the people in this vicinity and for miles around will be drawn daily to the attractions of the coming fair.

Arrangements are so far completed that it is possible to give a fairly definite outline of the attractions of the fair. Although fresh novelties are being introduced each week, the fair will begin Tuesday, October 23, and will close the following Saturday evening. In giving this fair the Foresters simply submit a business proposition to the community. They are conducting it on business lines, not on charity. For every dollar they receive they will give an equivalent value of 100 cents. The season tickets are sold at so low a price that they will be giving good value in admission to the Armory the first eight days of the fair. But the ticket holder secures not only admission to the hall but also other valuable considerations. There will be nothing "small" in the Foresters' methods of money making at the fair. On the contrary they will give patrons an unusually large return for their money.

A view of the Armory when the fair opens will be worth the price of the season ticket, for the large hall is to be transformed into a dazzling scene of beauty. The Armory will not look like the same hall when the fair opens. Designs are being considered by the New Haven Decorating Co., one of the largest decorators in New England. The walls and ceilings will be artistically hidden with fabrics in delicate tints. The booths will occupy the alcoves on either side of the main floor. The entire wing will be devoted to refreshments. In the west alcove there will be booths for the sale of temperance drinks. Dancing will be enjoyed each evening and a good stage entertainment will be provided. Local and out-of-town talent will appear in minstrel, character sketches, farces and specialties. The program will be announced in these columns later.

SOCIAL GATHERING.

A party of fifty young people assembled at the home of Miss Fanny Hand on Main street last Saturday evening where they were entertained with vocal and instrumental music, dancing, games and general merrymaking. Refreshments consisting of ice cream, cakes, confections, lemonade, coffee, etc. were served, making a delightful and an enjoyable occasion all around. During the evening James Pickles took several flash pictures which will be highly appreciated by all who were present, as souvenirs of the pleasant gathering at the pretty home of Miss Hand.

BROKE HER WRIST.

While riding her bicycle last Monday afternoon, Mrs. Leroy Dutton of Spruce street was accidentally thrown to the ground and in the sudden fall broke her left wrist. She was attended by Dr. Moore who set the broken bone and made Mrs. Dutton as comfortable as possible under the circumstances.

DANCE AND BASKETBALL.

The Young Men's Social Club will give a dance in the Armory Thursday evening, October 18. The dance will be preceded by a game of basketball between the Foresters of Rockville and the South Manchesters. The game will be called at 8 o'clock. The dancing will begin promptly at 9 o'clock. Bude's orchestra will furnish music. The young men intend to run a first class dance in every respect and hope to receive a share of the patronage of the dance going people.

BOY ALMOST KILLED.

Winifred Clark, son of Philip and Mrs. Clark of South Main street, 25, attempted to climb over a wagon that was passing by the South school about 2:30 yesterday afternoon, and losing his hold fell to the ground. The rear wheel of the heavy double truck, which was loaded with wood, passing over his abdomen and groin, inflicting injuries that may prove fatal. It is not known yet just how badly the child was hurt. Doctor Healdy and Dr. Watson were called in and did all they could for the little fellow. He is between six and seven years old. The driver of the team passed on and was not recognized. We are informed that he did not try to do anything to help the child whatever.

THE DOUBLE DEALING OF MRS. SMITH.

When my dear husband died two years ago, leaving me with little money and an invalid daughter, it was between me and the north wind had been suddenly removed. Fortunately, our house, with its pretty garden at the back and a decent fire, was left to me; and there was a steady demand for our front and back parlors, and the little room that had answered for a library, or dressing room. Lodgers came and went, and very cheerfully added their sovereigns to the fire growing sum which I was to do you think I am as empty as a shell.

THE DOUBLE DEALING OF MRS. SMITH.

I got to my feet, but weakly sank into my chair again. By this time I had taken a look at each other, and there came a little cry from Miss Hardy. "Philip—Mr. Ivy?" "There was such a confusion of exclamations that I could distinguish nothing for a few moments. Finally came a few sentences in a hoarse, clear, but slightly trembling voice: "I am here because I am at work. Papa died a year ago. He lost all his money, and he couldn't get over it. I am as poor as you are now." "Thank Heaven!" said Mr. Ivy fervently. "At the last papa was very sorry for—everything. He told me to look after you. But you had gone—I did not know where, and I—"

THE DOUBLE DEALING OF MRS. SMITH.

Two villagers, having concluded their errand in Jerusalem, had started out at six o'clock to-day, on their way to Emmaus, the place of their residence. They go with a sad heart; Jesus, who had been their admiration and their joy, had been with them and broken heart, they pass on their way a stranger sorrow. They tell Him their sorrows and their bitterness of soul. He in turn talks to them, and notices not the objects they pass and before they are aware have come in front of their hearts. Do without them and succeed anyhow.

REAL ESTATE AND BUILDING ST. JAMES CHURCH NOTES.

Mrs. Catherine Singleton of Spring street has purchased a building lot on Alexander Trotter on Jackson street and has men at work now building a double tenement for her. There will be four rooms on each side. There are many young people in town who would be glad to get desirable four-room tenements. Such small tenements are in demand. E. L. G. Hohenbush has the contract and P. Gorman is doing the mason work. The building will be pushed to completion at once and it is intended to have it ready for occupancy before winter sets in. Mrs. Singleton intends to occupy one side of the tenement herself. It may be news to many to learn that Jackson street is a new short street running east from Madison avenue.

James Tedford moved into his new residence on Madison avenue last Monday and William Crawford of Pearl street is occupying the other half of the building. It is a splendid tenement, has all modern equipments and is a very comfortable home for any working man. Mr. Tedford has also purchased a building lot near Mr. Trotter on Jackson street, at the rear of his new double tenement.

John Newman of Center street sold a building lot near his residence on Center street to William C. Joyce, the barber, and another to William Chambers, the latter of North Manchester. Both intend to build at once.

George W. Ferris has started work on his new residence near the corner of Pine and West Center streets. Joel E. Hawley is the contractor. It will be a 16-room house and will be one of the handsomest and best residences in South Manchester—among working people.

Alexander Trotter has had a tenement built on Jackson street himself and has sold a building lot to Joel E. Hawley on same. The latter has two more lots to be disposed of on the entire tract that Mr. Trotter purchased at that point a couple of years ago. Every lot almost has been built upon and all are occupied steadily by a good class of tenants.

Gustav Schreiber has the contract to build a six-room cottage for Mary and William Thiminsier on Olcott street, west of the old McKee place and P. Gorman began the work on the cellar this week. The Thiminsiers intend to occupy the building as soon as it can be gotten ready. It is intended to have it ready for their occupancy before winter sets in.

Mr. Schreiber is also building a six-room cottage for Ernest Jacob on McKee street and intends to have it ready for Mr. Jacob and family by Thanksgiving, or early in December.

MOVED TO MASSACHUSETTS. J. D. Henderson and family moved to Huntington, Mass., yesterday, where Mr. Henderson has a situation as general superintendent for Chapin & Gould, paper manufacturers. They have a two-machine mill, which is kept running day and night and employs about 150 hands. They manufacture bonds, lines and other high grades of writing papers, and are doing a very prosperous business. Mr. Henderson's many friends here wish him unbounded prosperity in his new position.

DIED IN IRELAND. Word was received here recently of the death of William Luton in Portland, Ireland. He leaves a widow and two children. Mrs. Luton was better known here as Miss Emily Aikens. They went to Ireland about two years ago, in the hopes of prolonging Mr. Luton's life, as he was in a feeble condition. The change of climate, however, did not have the desired effect and he yielded up his spirit. He was a weaver and was employed here in Cheney Brothers silk mills. Mr. Luton's parents reside in Portland and Mrs. Luton's mother is there also.

MORSE BUSINESS COLLEGE

THIS COLLEGE was founded in Hartford in 1860 as one of the chain of Bryant and Stratton Colleges. It is the third oldest commercial school in America. Among all other business colleges of the United States as well as with parents and business men of Connecticut Morse has the reputation of being a high grade, reliable trustworthy educational institution. It has all and more than its circulars describe and picture. It never makes extravagant claims in any way, but aims to look every student's case squarely in the face and advise and work for his best present and future interests. Its advertisements placed in positions, although the college principals from the first have made special efforts to secure valuable situations for graduates, and, as a result, many of these same graduates are to be found directing and controlling large commercial enterprises all over the country. Years of unceasing labor have been devoted to bringing this college up to its present high standing of excellence, and one of the strong evidences of its sterling merit is the fact that it is to-day educating the sons and daughters of former students showing that patronage once secured is continued into successive generations.

VOL. 8, NO. 33. SOUTH MANCHESTER, CONN., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1900. THREE CENTS.

LEFT WIFE AND THREE LITTLE CHILDREN. NELSON FIELDS OF CHARTER OAK STREET ABANDONS HIS FAMILY AND LEAVES THEM IN DESTITUTE CIRCUMSTANCES. WITH ONLY 25 CENTS IN CASH AND A NUMBER OF UNPAID BILLS.

Took Every Dollar of His Wages With Him Besides a Gold Watch which he has chased for his wife recently—He Also Took His Bicycle, After Collecting Over $19. on It For Raffle Tickets.

Nelson Fields, who up to last Saturday had been employed by the Brookside Paper Company, attending one of their engine heaters, is a town for paragon unknown. A wife and three children are here beseeching the aid of the public to help them, as he has left them, and did not tell her he was going away.

A letter was since found in the pocket of a working coat which he left behind stating that he would never return to her. In this letter he advised Mrs. Fields to put the child-in in the County Home and requested that she be kind to his children. The two oldest children are girls, about 8 and 6 years respectively, and are children of Fields' first wife. Mrs. Fields has an infant child.

All are absolutely destitute and are depending on the charity of friends and neighbors. Mrs. Fields is so much distressed by this unfortunate affair that she does not know what course to pursue.

Fields took his bicycle with him. For some time past he had been selling tickets on the bicycle, with the understanding that he would dispose of it by having a raffle. He is said to have collected about $19 in this way.

Some time ago he bought Mrs. Fields a gold watch, but this he was very careful to take along with him when he left.

He came here about three months ago from East Glastonbury, where he had been employed by the Crosby Manufacturing Co.

Mrs. Fields was known as Miss Battle Payne before she was married. She is a daughter of Samuel Payne of Glastonbury. She resides on Charter Oak street in one of the houses of the Brookside Paper Co.

Besides the fact that Fields left his wife and children in this destitute manner he has also left a number of bills due merchants and others in town.

He is about 30 years of age and was well able to support his wife and children, but he has been so disposed. No reason for his departure is known here. He told no one of his going away, in as far as we know.
