DEATH OF MISS COLE.

Miss Rachel Emily Cole, third daughter of A. W. Cole of Manchester, Green, ended her life Sunday night while suffering with melancholia, by drinking poison. The family discovered what had taken place about ten o'clock and immediately dispatched a messenger on a bicycle for a doctor.

Dr. Gillam was first found and hurried to the scene, but the poison had by that time been absorbed so thoroughly that it was impossible to save her life. He administered such remedies as would allay her distress and about one o'clock the vital spark departed. Miss Cole had been suffering with erysipelas and other troubles for some time past and melancholia took possession of her finally, with the result noted above.

Her funeral took place last Tuesday afternoon and a large number of sympathetic friends were present to express their profound sympathy with the bereaved family. Rev. Thomas Simms officiated.

The burials were held at the East cemetery. Loving friends literally covered the casket with beautiful cut flowers as silent tributes of their affection for the young lady whose life terminated so sadly. Miss Cole was 23 years of age and an expert performer and instructor on the piano, but nervous prostration caused her to discontinue her work several months ago.

Her father did all he could to restore her to health and spirits but was not successful. He and the other members of the family have the deep sympathy of the public in this town generally, as they are among the oldest, and most respected families here, where they have all been born and spent their lives.

The concert and dance given in the Army last Saturday evening by the South Manchester Military Band orchestra, singing by a male quartet and New Britain, violin solo by Miss Pervan and of baritone solos by Mr. Frederick H. Kenyon, both of Hartford, were well attended and proved a fine success.

GOLIATH was much surprised when

David hit him with a stone. He said that such a thing had never entered his head before!

So you may be surprised when we tell you that low-priced coffee isn't really low-priced.

It wholly lacks flavor. And it takes a lot more of it to produce satisfactory strength.

One cent a cup is all the cost of Chase & Sanborn's Seal Brand Coffee by actual test.

And that is the finest coffee grown! Did you ever try it?

COMPLIMENTARY BANQUET

On rising to his feet the lieutenant said that he was a fighting man and not a speaker, but that as he was on leave of absence he would say a few words.

He referred to the fact that before 1888 not much was known in this country about the Philippines, but that now they form a very important part of our possession.

TWO TOWN MEETINGS HELD LAST MONDAY.

unanimous in adopting the report as read, except perhaps in reference to the clause recommending an increase in the number of assessors from two, as it now stands to three.

The special town meeting immediately assembled and C. E. House was chosen as moderator with Sanford M. Benton as clerk.

The question was raised as to what powers the meeting then assembled had in considering the new recommendations brought up by the report of the committee, and after much discussion it was agreed that the adjourned annual town meeting could not act on the report further than to accept it.

An report was made to take up the report of the committee section by section and act upon same, but this met with strenuous opposition on the ground that the meeting as then composed had no legal right to do so.

It was explained that the committee had no legal standing, that the best they could do was to go about town, examine the taxable property and make a schedule of rates for the new board of assessors to be elected next year.

Mr. Watkins' position on the lantern bill had been sought and he stated that if an individual rode a Cleveland wheel he would be in favor of permitting that person to ride without a lantern as the wheel runs so light it does not make any, but for all other wheels he would recommend having a lighted lantern both in front and at the rear, in order to prevent rear end collisions, as well as to see.

He was asked to say something to the committee who had drawn up the document, as their duties naturally ended with the adoption of their report.

PARSONS' THEATER.

"THE DOCTOR'S WARM RECEPTION."

Winona Little Akersstrom completely fills her theater in the colony, each week, Dutch maid which she plays in the touring comedy, "The Doctor's Warm Reception," which will be at Parsons' Theater next Tuesday, Nov. 20.

The production has far surpassed her well known ability in the comedy. Her art is ably aided by a particularly strong company of comedians, recently with prominent attractions in the largest cities and an evening of uproarious fun is assured, with songs and dances galore.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence M. Brune and Melbourne MacDowell will present the great dramatic sensation "Theodora" at Parsons' Theater. This masterpiece of the world's most famous author has made a hit almost unprecedented in the annals of stage history.

Every feature of performance, in the matter of scenery, costumes, startling effects and competency of the company, numbering 150 people, have received unbounded commendation. The personal triumph scored by Mrs. Brune in the title role, has established this young and beautiful actress among the foremost emotional artists of this decade.

The engagement in this city is for one night only, Wednesday. The interest caused by this play is indicative of a worthy audience to witness what will doubtless be one of the theatrical events of the season.

"THE CADET GIRL." Seven weeks in New York, three weeks in Philadelphia and six weeks in Boston is the record of "The Cadet Girl" up to Nov. 10th. After two weeks in New England in one and two night stands it goes to Brooklyn for a week, thence to Chicago for another run. The great organization will be taken through New England, with Dan Daly still at the head of the company and George A. Schiller, William Cameron, W. Probert Garrison, Charles Daney, Charlie Dow, Harry Dodd, Charles H. Bowers, Arthur Etherington, Adelaide Ritchie, Toby Claude, Catherine Lewis, Elma Floyd, Hattie Moore, Maude Thomas, Mildred Woods, Tessie Moore and a large chorus of some fifty stage beauties with two car loads of scenery and costumes. Manager A. H. Chamberlain scarcely expects to meet expenses in New England tours, but he prefers to keep his organization intact and employed even at a loss. "The Cadet Girl" comes to Parsons' Theater on Thursday evening.
