Largest Gathering in Years.—Fine Program by Wapping Grange.—Excellent Sup-per by Ladies of Manchester

One of the largest gatherings that has place in a number of years assembled in Cheney hall last Wednesday evening, the occasion being the presentation of a program by Wapping Grange. Delega-tions were present from Wapping. An-dover, Bolton, Vernon, Tolland, Ellington, Hillstown, Glastonbury and even from Middletown. The entertainment of readings, recitations, vocal and instrumental music, all of which were well executed and happily received. were manifested on every opportunity of the good work done by the visiting grangers. A feature of the evening and one that was enjoyed immensely, parone that was enjoyed immensely, particularly by the younger members, was the very excellent grange supper supplied and served by the ladies of the the very excellent grange supper sup-Manchester Grange. The people pass me one by one

One friend alone is true to me

The sent nel of the town is he.

Both night and day his vigil keeps.

He stands alone as in his prime.
