THE PHOENIX MUTUAL LIFE.

Gratifying Statement for the Past Year. The fifty-first annual statement of the Phoenix Mutual Life Insurance Company of Hartford is printed elsewhere in this issue.

The Phoenix Mutual has been adding to its membership in the past few years from the various countries of the world. The surplus as figured in the statement is $684,728.81, but this is reached after putting in the assets at price-conservative value to be noticeably below the market and putting among the liabilities some that are such only in theory.

It is desired the surplus could be used and truthfully be put at a considerably higher figure. The company makes this interesting and suggestive showing of the growth of the business—

CHOICE MISCELLANY

Russia's Red Showing. The greatest financial disaster since the Russian revolution is being experienced in Russia.

It is in his last report that he has painted a gloomy picture of the industrial and financial condition of the country. He says that the Russian people are in their darkest days of war, bankruptcy and famine.

The metal industry, he says, are on the verge of ruin; the textile nearly as bad. In twenty years the productivity of the land has been reduced by one-fourth of the same area in America.

The number of houses has diminished over one-quarter. An acre produces less than one-fourth of the same area in America.

The Phoenix Mutual has been adding to its membership in the past few years from the various countries of the world.

The surplus as figured in the statement is $684,728.81, but this is reached after putting in the assets at price-conservative value.

It is desired the surplus could be used and truthfully be put at a considerably higher figure.

The company makes this interesting and suggestive showing of the growth of the business—

DELIGHTFUL CONCERT.

A delightful concert was given in Cheney hall last evening by Miss Ethel Florence Gray, violinist, Miss Lena Gogge, soprano, Will Carr, tenor and W. B. Waterman, accompanist.

The attendance was not large, but those who had the good fortune to be present, were delighted with the excellent music furnished.

Miss Gray's work on the violin was especially pleasing and demonstrated the fact that she is making excellent progress, that she is a faithful student, an indefatigable worker, and withal a musician of much merit.

"SAND HARBOR."

Campbell Conant K. C. has decided to present the beautiful rural play entitled "Sand Harbor" in Cheney hall, on Thursday evening, April 3rd.

The characters have been satisfactorily cast and rehearsals are in progress. The selections of parts are highly satisfactory, and are planned to produce the best possible results in the work.

There is a snow storm in the play and arrangements have been made with William H. Brady of New York to come here and produce the snow storm.

He is the owner of the process whereby the realistic effects seen in stage snow storms of the present day are effected.

No expense or trouble will be spared to make this a production which will rank among the best amateur efforts ever witnessed in this town.

The Knights are going into amateur theatricals with a view of continuing the work, and of developing the talent which local Council possesses in a marked degree.

They propose to demonstrate their fitness to satisfy local demands in that line, and from time to time will present well known and popular plays of great interest.

They are already in the outcome of their first venture. Ample notice of the progress of the work will appear in these columns from time to time.

RECEPTION TO GRADUATES. The graduates of the St. Mary's Sunday School, class of 1901, were tendered a reception at the Parish Hall, Monday evening of the class of 1901.

About 150 were present, including several members of the older classes, and a few other friends.

An address of welcome was delivered by William S. Hyde, on behalf of the class of 1901. Miss Minnie Marley gave a reading: Miss Eva Worthy played a piano solo; Miss Rachel and Miss Fannie Hand furnished a vocal duet; John Chambers favored with a recitation; Miss Maggie Crawford and Miss Minnie Marley sang; James Finnegan made a few remarks in response to a resolution; and the address was closed by George Trotter.

Rev. J. A. Bidde furnished a short talk on Sunday school work, and the Sunday school orchestra provided music. At the close of the musical and literary program a beautiful collection was served in the refectory. The occasion was a delightful and profitable one, and will cement strong bonds of friendship, the graduates of the 1900 and 1901 classes.

YOUNG MEN'S CLUB. There was a large attendance at the rooms of the St. Mary's Young Men's Club last Sunday afternoon, the occasion being the address by Rev. J. A. Bidde on his experiences among the miners in Colorado. He told of the difficulties which a missionary encounters among the sturdy miners, who are of a religious turn, and who are generally uncouth and of a rough and tumble texture. He spoke of their love for gambling, and of the evil influence which surround camp life in the West. It was an interesting discourse and the young men were delighted with it. They tendered the speaker a hearty and unanimous vote of thanks, and expressed the desire to hear him again in the club room.

APPLY-GREER. Harry Apply and Miss Sarah Greer were married in St. Mary's church last Tuesday afternoon by Rev. J. A. Bidde, and the church was crowded with the friends of the bride and groom. Miss Jennie McCormick was bridesmaid and Arthur Apply was best man. A wedding feast was served at the Oxford hotel, about fifty persons joining in the festivities. Dancing and general merriment continued throughout the evening. The bride and groom left on the 5:30 p. m. train for Manchester, where Mr. Apply has a farm of 200 acres. He intends to become a grower of wheat. Many handsome and valuable presents were received. Both were very popular, and many regrets were expressed at their leaving town. They were showered with God speeds, without number, and hearty wishes for their happiness, prosperity and success.

STAR OF THE EAST. Rev. E. B. P., elected the following officers, Saturday evening, February 1, 1902: Isaac Jackson, 1st W. M.; Th. Massey, D. M.; James Marley, chaplain; Henry Trotter, organist; James Harris, treasurer; Alex. Shields, 1st lecturer; William Dixon, 2nd lecturer; James Livingston, first reader; Joseph W. W. second reader; William Livingston, first stand; and Isaac Jackson, 2nd stand.

SPECIAL SCHOOL MEETING.

IMPORTANT MATTERS TO BE ACTED UPON IN THE NINTH DISTRICT SCHOOL BUILDING NEXT THURSDAY EVENING.

Question of Erecting a New School Building. The need of the district in this important particular, and have given the subject serious thought. They will embody the substance of their labors in a report to the special meeting, and persons will then have a chance to be heard thereon.

The question of the location of a new school house in the call, and persons are known to hold differing views on this point. This will be the opportunity for thoroughly ventilating their opinions and for presenting a practical method of carrying them into operation.

Theories are not wanted. Suggestions that are thoroughly feasible are in order. Plain talk is the desired article at this juncture.

An appropriation for such a building is needed, and a tax for such an appropriation is to be levied. It is the duty of every citizen to be prepared to pay for the construction of such a building.

Cheney Brothers are offering a proposition which will be open to debate. If there are any present who think that a different course should be pursued, let them come forward with a well defined and thoroughly developed plan to carry out such views as they hold.

These are the main features of the call, and certainly are ample for the needs. Persons intending to take part in the meeting should think that the subject maturely thought and be prepared to lay their ideas before the meeting in such a manner that something more than talk may come out of it.

There is no necessity for any friction. It is simply a call for intelligent consideration of a subject that concerns not only the present welfare of the district and community, but which may be made productive of great good to those who are to occupy the school house in the future.

It is intended in a most kindly and helpful spirit. The registration of the district has been increased by one hundred during the past year, and every indication points in the direction of a similar growth during the present year, and perhaps in coming years. Therefore, it is evident that some practical plan must be adopted to meet this growth.

It is advisable that the love for a whole should build, own and operate a high school at its own expense let the facts be plainly stated, and let the work of putting the plan into immediate operation be prepared in advance and ready for adoption at the meeting.

Every person interested in these questions should attend the meeting. All persons who have children in the district should be there and all taxpayers in the district, whether they have children of school age or not, should take part in the proceedings.

This has been a long time coming, but it is here now.

There will be a meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary to the A. O. H. in the parlors of the Oxford hotel next Wednesday evening, February 20th. All are cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. Michael Holloran of West Center street has been suffering with bronchitis for several weeks, and as a part of the treatment was stricken with pneumonia. She was very ill indeed, but is somewhat better now. Dr. Weldon has the case in charge.

PUPILS HAVE SLEIGHRIDE.

Pupils of Miss Starkweather's room in the Ninth District school to the number of 25, went for a sleigh ride to Hartford yesterday afternoon. They had Mr. R. M. Hood's four-horse sleigh. They reached home at 6:00 o'clock.

Latest reports from Mrs. R. M. Hood are to the effect that she is getting better, and hopes are now entertained that she may recover. She shows a great amount of grit and vitality and her many friends here earnestly hope that she may recover.

CHOSEN AS MANAGER.

C. Emory Watkins, son of Clarence G. Watkins of this town, was chosen this week as manager of the Tufts College Glee Club, and will have charge of the destinies of the club while making the annual spring tour, which will begin in April. This glee club ranks among the best of colleges in the entire country. It will be remembered that the young man comprising the club gave one of their inimitable concerts here last spring, and it is expected that they will bring back a great many more. Doubtless many persons in this place would be delighted to hear them. It was one of the best musical events of the season.
