Crawford: Half Ranges

At this season of the year many housewives spend a considerable portion of time in their kitchens, and therefore should have their surroundings as congential as possible. Nothing tends more o make matters in the kitchen pleasant for the housekeeper than a good range. This we can assure you will find the Crawford Range to be. It can be seen here and we will be happy to show its sons. It has many points to recommend . Let us explain them to you.

"Pana, don't let us starve." It was an awkward position for a newly married bridegroom, but his rough and cruel nature only made matters worse by the way in which he tried to extricate himself from it. He saw standing at the door the mother of the boys, whom he had forsaken shortly after the birth of the second one and, walking straight up to her, in a towering pasthat she fell down unconscious to the floor. Most of the guests were so indignant at his barbarity that they left the table, and the young bride took the matter so much to heart that she is said to have resolved to apply for a divorce.-London Daily Telegraph.
