Bankrupt Stock Will Be Closed Out-Undecided Whether He Will Respon the Store in the New Cheney Block

The creditors of Henry C. Martin of this place have accepted the proposition he made them to pay 25 per cent on the dollar in settlement of all claims against him, and the work of clearing up the bankrupt estate will now be completed.

Mr. Martin is still undecided as to what course he will pursue, when the matter is finally cleared up. He does not believe however, that it would be prudent for him to undertake running a dry goods and millinery store on borrowed capital. He feels that the risks are
