VOL. X. NO. 26 SOUTH MANCHESTER, CONN., FRIDAY, AUGUST 29, 1902. THREE CENTS.

Take Notice

Of our extremely low prices on Gasoline and Kerosene Oil. Kerosene Oil 10c. per gallon. Gasoline 75c. for 5 gallons.

REMEMBER That we buy in large quantities, for spot cash and that you get the benefit. It is no trouble for us to call and deliver oil. We are in business for that purpose.

This summer we have erected a new oil house with Bowser's most modern improvements for carrying different grades of oil.

Let us save you money. Aaron Johnson, Dealer in the Best Things to Eat. Chestnut Street, Just Below Monument Park.

Monuments

Enough cemetery stonework to supply all Hartford and surrounding towns for this year has just arrived.

Owing to delay at the quarries our stone work did not arrive in time and it is now piling in by the carload with not room enough for our place of it. Come up to our quarry and you will see the reason that price is not our object. We must dispose of this stock, as we cannot leave it where it is. Call at once at The Hartford Monument Works, 120 Main St., Hartford, Conn.

DR. A. ANGELL, Specialist in the diseases of the EYE AND EAR. 100 Main St., Hartford, Conn.

DR. MAY, Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat. 100 Main St., Hartford, Conn.

CIVIL ENGINEER AND SURVEYOR GEORGE A. JOHNSON. 100 Main St., Hartford, Conn.

W. E. LUETTGENS, So. Manchester. 107 Main St., So. Manchester.

FACTS, AND FACTS ONLY. The Huntsinger College.

Advertisements are facts from first to last and all the time. This school occupies three floors of 30 Asylum street. There are eight regular teachers. Individual instruction. Forty first-class typewriting machines; roll-top desks. The text-books are free. Tuition $1.00 per calendar month. We have a real Situation Department which placed 1,025 graduates in situations in 6 1/2 months. Attendance last year over five hundred pupils. The cost for all supplies and stationary per pupil for business course averaged less than $9. per pupil for the entire school year passed if the pupil is economical it need not cost as much. For the Shortland Department the cost has averaged $8.00. The pupil buys at a stationery store, or at the school as he prefers, so long as the supplies are suitable.

Many changes have been made in the rooms this year and the school is well worth a visit, if you are interested in business education. But it is not the furniture nor the rooms that make the good school. The really good school is made by the best course, the best teachers and the best work. We have the rooms, the course and the teachers, consequently the best school. Now pupils enrolling faster than ever. Take elevator just inside entrance door. School opens September 1st.

E. H. HUNTJINGER, Principal.

MRS. BERTHA RAMSDEN CRITICALLY ILL.

An operation for pelvic abscess was performed upon Mrs. Bertha Ramsden of Charter Oak street last Saturday morning, and for a considerable portion of the time since she has been in a critical condition. Dr. Waldon of this place assisted by Dr. Boncher and Dr. Gill of Hartford, did the work, which in itself was successful. Mrs. Ramsden has been ill for some time but it was hoped that the operation might be averted. It came to such a pass however that it was a question of mere death without an operation, and a possible chance of life if the surgical work was performed. She is still feeble and her physician is not sure that she will recover. She has a strong constitution however and it is hoped that she will eventually win.

NANTASKET BEACH. By request of a large number of people, who on account of failing to secure tickets in advance, were unable to participate in the recent excursion to Nantasket Beach, the N. Y., N. H. & H. R. R. Co. has agreed to run another popular excursion to this renowned resort, next Tuesday. A special feature is offered in this excursion, in that those who do not care to visit Nantasket Beach may use the coupons issued on account of Nantasket Beach Sitt. Co. for admission to American League baseball game, Boston vs. St. Louis, that day. Special train leaves Manchester at 2:05 a. m. Rate only $1.50 for the round trip. See advertisement.

GLENN ISLAND. The N. Y., N. H. & H. R. R. Co. has arranged for a popular excursion, the last of the season, to Glenn Island, Saturday, August 30th, by special train to New Haven, thence by steamer, "John H. Starbuck," to the island. This excursion point has such a hold on the favor of the people in this vicinity, that this simple announcement will call out a patronage that will fill the train to its capacity. Train leaves Manchester at 6:55 a. m. Fare for the round trip only $1.50.

NEW FIRE ALARM BOXES. There is every likelihood that the South Manchester Fire District will be shortly equipped with the new Gaine self-interfering fire alarm boxes, as previously mentioned in these columns. The district will need thirteen new ones at once, and in addition to this number, Cheney Brothers are arranging to place several of the same style fire alarm boxes near their own residences. The purchase will be made jointly, and in this way the fire department will get the benefit of a lower price on the larger number of boxes taken. The boxes at present in use will be given in exchange for the new ones, and an allowance made in price accordingly.

A. O. H. CONVENTION. Division No. 1, Ancient Order of Hibernians of Manchester was represented by the following delegates at the annual state convention which met in Middlebury Wednesday and Thursday of this week. President, James Egan; vice-president, Thomas Keating; secretary, Wm. M. Keating; recording secretary, Daniel Moriarty; financial secretary, Cornelius Foley. The convention was held in Armory hall. Mass was said in St. John's church on Friday morning, after which a joint session of the Ladies Auxiliary to the A. O. H. and the Hibernians was held in the Armory hall. The preliminary meeting of the ladies was held in Orpheum hall on Wednesday evening. The following officers of the Ladies Auxiliary to the A. O. H. from this place attended: State President, Mrs. Eleanor McCann; local president, Mrs. Margaret Quinn; vice-president, Miss Nellie Dilworth; recording secretary, Miss Josie Keating; financial secretary pro tem, Miss Annie Dwyer; treasurer, Miss Mary Woods.

GREETED BY REBEKAHS. Miss Ethel M. Brinard was greeted most heartily at the meeting of the Rebekahs in Odd Fellows hall last Monday evening, and was delighted to be able to share the pleasures of the occasion with her friends. She is in excellent health and appears to be never better, physically, than she is today.

A FINE SUCCESS. The benefit dance given by the Armory opera house last Tuesday evening for the relief of the war veterans was a fine success. A large and happy throng of young people assembled to enter into the pleasures of the occasion. Every thing passed off smoothly and the managers had every reason to be pleased with the patronage accorded them.

CARD OF THANKS. I wish hereby to extend sincere thanks to my neighbors and friends for their many acts of kindness during the illness and at the death of my wife, Wilhelmina Stays Zerwer, and would also mention in an especial manner the Friends Yeada, those who furnished flowers, and the stagers. John Zerwer.

THE STANDARD COMMERCIAL SCHOOL OF CONNECTICUT.

Morse College, Hartford. In most any line of business there is a leader, one which through its enterprise and tact is the first to adopt new methods or advanced ideas and to set the pace for its brethren in the trade. The Morse Business College of Hartford is precisely such a leader among the commercial schools of Connecticut. No sooner did Principal Morse become the proprietor of the school, than he proceeded to inaugurate something that has become a course of practice was offered. This, however, is no more like the relictive work at Morse's than reading about the City of Washington is like a visit to the Nation's Capital. Students at the Morse Business College write up and use all kinds of business forms in real transactions, carried out throughout the United States and Canada. Mr. Morse is known in Hartford as a successful advertiser, yet his advertisements never contain sweeping statements of the number of students placed annually or claims which his college and his work do not fully substantiate.

Funeral of Mrs. Wilkie. The funeral of Mrs. Mary Wilkie, wife of William Wilkie, of Keany street, notice of whose sudden and unexpected death appeared in these columns last week, took place from the German Lutheran Concordia church last Sunday afternoon and was attended by a large number of relatives, friends and neighbors. Music was furnished by the quartet. Mrs. Effie Pierce, Miss Lena Kester, Herman Monti and Herman Bohrend. They were assisted by the church choir. The following persons served as pall bearers: Charles Hanson, Henry Kester, Fred Kamille, Fred Monti, Herman Brunk and Mr. Schultz. Burial was in the East cemetery. Kind friends brought many pretty floral tributes to decorate the grave of their dear friend. Mrs. Wilkie was well and favorably known in this place and had a large number of admiring friends who deeply regret her untimely end and sympathize profoundly with her bereaved family.

HOME FOR CAMP. Company G, C. N. G. enjoyed a successful and enjoyable last Monday evening. They recounted their experiences at camp last week, and had plenty of sport narrating the details of their exploits while doing military duty at Camp Kester. It was a merry social party and the boys closed the camp incident in a pleasant manner. They will be exempt from weekly drills for about two months, and will have an opportunity to enjoy themselves generally without any regard to military duties.

THOMAS HASSETT JR. INJURED. Thomas Hassett Jr. of Birch street, who was one of the special officers employed by Cheney Brothers to search their property by night, sustained an accident while on duty last Tuesday evening about 9 o'clock whereby his hand was lacerated considerably and he was rendered unconscious. The presumption is that he fell back of the dye house, where he was found by a fellow officer named Kelley. The injured man was carried into Cheney Brothers' office where Dr. Tucker dressed his wound. Hassett remained unconscious for several hours. A published report to the effect that he was injured by a relay wire is disclaimed by Cheney Brothers.

BILL POSTING. Charles A. Sweet, our bustling expressman, is now a member of the Bill Posters' Association of the United States and Canada, and as such will handle all outside bill posting that comes to this town. He has been to a great deal of expense erecting bill boards in all parts of the town and is prepared to display paper barebacks quite thoroughly.

DISTINGUISHED GUESTS. Joel Mott Allen and Mrs. Allen are the guests of their cousin, Mrs. Emily Page Hanson of East Windsor Hill, Sunday, August 27. A fair attendance was present and a very pleasant hour was spent. It is to be continued and all are cordially invited to attend.

AN APPEAL TAKEN. Arthur E. Johnson, George McKeovers and Nathaniel Hodges who were fined $10. and costs for their charge of intoxication at the trial of the wetter weavers, have taken an appeal to the superior court, which will convene in Hartford the second week of next month. Their bonds were fixed at $200, which was furnished.

DEATH OF THOMAS CURRAN.

Thomas Curran died at his home on Foster street last Saturday after an illness dating from last spring, which developed into pulmonary trouble. Mr. Curran was 34 years old, and had been a resident here for the past 17 years. Up to the time of his illness he was employed in the velvet finishing department of Cheney Brothers. He is survived by his widow, two sons and two daughters, the oldest being seven years and the youngest six months. They are as follows: Thomas, Walter, Mabel and Florence Curran. His mother, Mrs. Margaret Curran, a brother, Robert Curran, and two sisters, Mrs. Charles Cowles of this place, and Mrs. James Kerr of Paterson, N. J., also survive. The funeral services were held from St. Mary's Episcopal church Monday afternoon. In the absence of the pastor, Rev. J. A. Biddle, who is on his vacation, Rev. Mr. Faneon, curate at Christ church, St. Mark, conducted the services. The pall bearers were Thomas Crockett, William Hobbs, James Weddie, Samuel Loney, James Loney and John Steenson. Burial was in the East cemetery.

The Romantic History of the Island of Crete

It is Recalled by Rumors of Additional Trouble With the Sultan's Government.

The threatened reopening of the dispute concerning the union of the island of Crete with Greece will have the unique interest which always attends the realization of some dream which has long been connected in their minds only with the misty improbabilities of old mythology...

Thoroughly aroused to the necessity of preventing war between Turkey and Greece the powers evolved a scheme of autonomy for Crete under Turkish rule and sent an ultimatum to Greece demanding a cessation of hostilities...

By the clash of the Christian and Moslem religions the island became a chronic hotbed of revolt, it was not until 1831, when Greece began the struggle which resulted in her independence, that Crete saw opportunity to throw off the Turkish rule...

Opening at The Huntsinger College Next Monday.

The pupil leaves from the very first hour in a practical way, and never has anything to unlearn, and learns rapidly because he is properly taught.
POINTS—The four business colleges of Hartford had seven hundred pupils attendance last year, and over five hundred of these attended Huntsinger's. The four business schools employ thirteen teachers, and eight of the thirteen teach at Huntsinger's. This school occupies three floors and one floor is furnished with roll-top desks for pupils. Forty typewriting machines. Text books free. Tuition only $11. per month. All stationery supplies for ten months need not cost over $4. per pupil for the entire school year. Buy your stationery where ever you choose. Passenger elevator for pupils.
The Situation Department placed 1,086 graduates in situations in the 70 months ending August 27th. Enrollment greatly in excess of last year. The school is very attractive. The training is absolutely the best, because the teachers are best qualified, are kind, painstaking and obliging. ACTUAL BUSINESS PRACTICE from the day the pupils enter until they graduate. Wholesome discipline. Individual instruction. The moral welfare of the students is looked after. THE TEACHERS are not the furniture make the school. Competitions are held in a class all by itself. Facts are stubborn things. We feel sure that our training is not exceeded anywhere at any price.

DEATH OF DEACON TRACY.

Passed Away in His Eighty-first Year. End Was Calm and Peaceful as Was His Life—His Release Was Effected Without Any Pain—Entered into Rest Yesterday—Funeral Tomorrow.

Calvin L. Tracy, familiarly known hereabouts as "Deacon" Tracy, entered into rest at 12.30 yesterday afternoon, in the eighty-first year of his age. Death was due to an apoplectic stroke, which he sustained a week ago last Monday, and the general infirmities of advancing years. His funeral will take place from the residence on South Main street, near the Glastonbury line, at 2.30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. In the absence of Rev. Geo. W. Reynolds, pastor of the Center Congregational church, Rev. T. Everett, pastor of the South Methodist church, will officiate. Burial will be in the East cemetery.

Mr. Tracy was a native of the town of Bolton. He resided for many years in Rockville, where he was employed as a millwright at the Rock mills. He lived in this town for the last 40 years, working as a millwright and carpenter. He was a natural mechanic, and could do either iron or wood work. He was also employed with the Aetna Life Insurance Company of Hartford for many years, and was very successful at that work. He resigned it voluntarily, however, and took up farming, which he followed practically until within ten days of his death.

He was a man of excellent habits, was a strong advocate of temperance, a devoted member of the Center Congregational church, and for many years one of its deacons. He lived a quiet, unassuming and retiring life, never sought the excitements of public life, was sprightly and honorable in all his dealings with his fellow men, paid one hundred cents on the dollar, and was a good man. He tried to lead an upright and honorable life before God and man, and set an example of industry, sobriety and general good conduct to all.

Mr. Tracy leaves a widow and five children, as follows: Milton Tracy of Glastonbury, who is a member of the dealer Manufacturing Company of Hartford, manufacturer of hardware specialties; Mrs. Sarah Greener, a widow, who resides in Williamantic; John C. Tracy, also of Williamantic, a well known jeweler; Mrs. Bessie Ingalls, wife of Harvey Ingalls of Castleton, N. Y.; and Mrs. Mary Richmond, wife of Robert Richmond of this place. He had a son Egbert, who died about 10 years ago.

The first two persons named above were children of Mr. Tracy's first wife, Miss Hannah House of Glastonbury, and the four latter named were children of Miss Jane M. House, also of Glastonbury, who survived, and who was sister to Mr. Tracy's first wife.
Mr. Tracy is 67 years of age, and comes of long lived stock. It will be remembered that his mother, Mrs. Harriet House, died three years ago at the age of 99 years.

GEORGE MURDOCK APPOINTED.

George Murdock of Edridge street was appointed last Wednesday afternoon as superintendent of the Town farm, succeeding Benjamin B. Wilson, notice of whose resignation appeared in these columns last week. Mr. Wilson will move to Hartford at once and enter upon the work of serving Hartford people with milk. Mr. Murdock will begin business as superintendent next week. He has had considerable experience at farming, knows the details of the business, and no doubt will be a faithful and efficient manager of that institution. He has latterly been employed by Chesney Brothers as a valuer and has been out of work recently, accordingly, Mr. Murdock is a widower, but will employ a robust woman to manage the household part of the work, and have immediate charge of cooking and housekeeping for the town's charges.

PLENTY OF CARS.

THE MINERVA CLUB.

The young people comprising the Minerva club, whose literary aspirations have been noted in these columns, met at the residence of Lester Grimes on Wells street last Wednesday evening and had an enjoyable as well as a profitable session. Miss Ruth Radcliff, who is the secretary of the club, presided, and her organization, has resigned the position for the present, as she is to resume her studies at the New Britain Normal school next week, and consequently will not be able to attend the meeting last Wednesday evening however, and then took her evening. After the studies of the evening were ended, a social hour was enjoyed, and the students, presented their teacher with a number of useful and ornamental presents, in token of their appreciation of the services which she voluntarily and free of cost rendered them. The next meeting will be held on Wednesday evening of next week at Joseph Wright, who borrows at Charles Behndorf's on Main street. Miss Myrtle Nichols will succeed Miss Radcliff as secretary.

LABOR DAY.

GOOD WEATHER, GREAT CROWDS, EXCELLENT ORDER, PLENTY OF FUN AND NO ACCIDENTS.

Events Generously Patronized—Mills Closed Entire Day—Everybody Out and Deeply Interested in Proceedings—Many Dollars Roll into Treasury of Labor Union.

The observation of Labor Day in this town last Monday was a record breaker in that it saw a general suspension of business at the silk mills during the entire day, and in the further fact that it brought forth the largest demonstration ever produced by organized labor in the town's history. The day was full of sunshine, was hot and the streets were dusty. Luckily, however, the parade took place in the forenoon and was through with before the hottest portion of the day arrived. It started in the vicinity of the Orford hotel at 8.40, and followed the line of march as published in these columns last week.

Ferris Brothers had suspended their large American flag across Main street in front of their new building, and as the procession reached that point Marchionni ordered a halt, while the South Manchester Military Band played a salute to the Stars and Stripes. It was an appropriate and thoughtful act. The marshal, Edward Pollard, and his assistant, Fritz Fohl, were mounted. The procession was followed up as outlined in these columns last week. The carpenters, who had the right of the line, wore blue caps, badges and white gloves, and carried axes. They also bore a superb satin American flag and their lodge banner. The other labor organizations carried banners and American flags. Most of those in the line of march wore white duck caps and carried axes. All wore badges and white gloves. The velvet weavers had a number of banners bearing mottoes on either side. The painters and decorators wore white caps, black coats, white trousers, white gloves and ladders and carried axes.

It seemed as if the entire populace was on the streets. All along the line of march the sidewalks were crowded, and hundreds followed the parade over the South Manchester part of the route. George Marlock's Fire and Drum Corps took a position in front of the young women who marched and gave them lively music all along route. There were 90 young women in the procession. They wore white caps, white shirt waists, black skirts and badges, and presented a natty appearance. They were heartily cheered along the line of march.

As the procession passed through Elm street and up Forest to Pine chimes were given while passing the velvet mills.

The best of order prevailed. There were no evidences of intoxication. The parade was a credit to the working people of this town. Everybody seemed to be jolly and good natured. Great interest was manifested in the proceedings of the day, as was attested by the attendance at every feature of the program. The procession was a large one. A record breaking crowd assembled before the afternoon sports at Woodland Park, and the closing event of the day, the labor ball at the Armory Opera House at night, also attracted a large and enthusiastic audience.

In spite of the fact that there was a delightful concert and dancing at Laurel Park, a base ball game at Rockville in which the South Manchester team took part, strong holiday attractions at the Hartford theaters, excellent horse racing at Charter Oak Park, Labor Day athletic and dancing at Moore Park, the events given by the trades unions of this place held their own in every department and brought in a goodly sum of money for the management. All concerned were delighted with the result of their undertakings. The day passed without an accident of any sort to those connected with the Labor Day proceedings here, and all were highly pleased to see such success which crowned their efforts.

WOODLAND PARK EVENT.
The horse racing and athletic events at Woodland Park, Monday afternoon, drew the largest attendance seen there in six or seven years. The large crowd caused many of the old horses to think of the days when the track was first built as horse racing was popular enough here to attract big gatherings regularly. The events were managed by the local trade unions.

The athletic contests were decided as follows:
Three-legged race, Veitch and Rogers, prize, pair of shoes; Keen and Anderson, box of cigars.
Fifty-yard dash, Loney, prize, bicycle; Ueber, prize, bicycle.
Hundred-yard dash, Loney, prize, pipe; Veitch, watch box.
Sack race—Veitch, prize, pair shoes; Loney, prize, shaving brush.
Potato race, Behndorf, Rogers, prize.

Letters from the people.
The past year has been an eventful one for the town of Manchester. With strikes and the formation of unions has come more forcibly than ever before to our attention the fact that our town is part of the battlefied upon which is being fought the great conflict between capital and labor. There are enough evils at home which must be remedied without our looking abroad.
In so short a space as possible I would like to point to a few workmen the one way of fighting the class war are ever seeking to control that by which they have been protected in their schemes for their own aggrandizement—the ballot box.
You and I have participated in many a political campaign, full of enthusiasm and with but one hope, namely: whether right or wrong that the G. O. P. would be victorious. We paraded, carrying red fire and shouting ourselves hoarse, and our compensation was crackers and cheese and promises from the political sponsors of property and a "full dinner pail" protection to home industries and the "honest dollar" were the only issues of any importance to us and we simply voted to allow them to increase their profits at our own expense. Did we ever think of voting protection for that which we have for sale in the market—our labor? No, and today while we are on strike our places are gradually being filled by imported cheap labor, the scuff and scum of Europe. We voted for the "honest dollar" and today we are getting a chance to earn it. We overworked the real issue "an honest day's work and an honest day's pay." We blindly fought Bryan's doctrine of 16 to 1 four years ago. Today we are fighting the unjust imposition of two men's work on one man for which he would receive but one man's pay. But experience is a stern teacher and I hope the lesson taught will be beneficial to us.

You can, of course, remember the easily assumed campaign smile and familiar bow of politicians and employers which were as easily discarded when the section day had passed. What a farce our election is always seen in Manchester. The ring has everything cut and dried, plans picked and promised. At the caucus a willing pool is placed in the way of the voter. We have it in two states this year. No. 1 at $1.00 and No. 2 at $1.00.

C. T. FIFIELD.
