were being changed. These features were extras, and helped to add to the entertainment accordingly. Miss Lanck sang and acted the numbers in a pleasing manner, and the young man danced with much skill and variety of seps. The play as a whole was given in an agreeable and smooth style, and pleased the audience very much. The fact that nearly all the performers were residents here added to the zest of the occasion. "Unele J. sh Whitcomb," the leading role, devolved upon Mr. Hyde, and he handled it in an admirable manner. He was ably assisted by Miss Lanck as "Tot," a waif, and also as a soubrette.

W. E. Hibbard represented the North End.

The meeting was called to order at 8.20 by C. E. House, chairman of the committee appointed last year by the Manchester Business Men's Association to act in the matter of endeavoring to get a bank started here. Mr. House was chosen chairman of the meeting, and F. Ernest Watkins, clerk

Mr. House called on O. M. Nilson, one of the vice presidents of the First National bank at Mentoursville, Pa., who is here for the purpose of getting a bank started in this place, and who has been doing some preliminary work in this direction, as previously noted in these columns.

E Martin Ogden as a society man, Raymond Thrall as a dude, Mrs. W. S. Hutchison as a society belle, and Miss Katherine Craig as a society belle, and also as the drunkard's wife, had considerable to do and executed their work in a pleasing manner.
