ANDERSON-HULTMAN. Albert Anderson, clerk at the store of Aaron Johnson, was married last evening to Miss Beda Hultman, youngest daughter of Mrs. Martin Hultman of Walnut street. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. P. Anderson, pastor of the Swedish Lutheran church. The parlors were prettily decorated, and the happy young couple were made man and wife amidst a bower of ferns and potted plants. The groom's attendants were John A. Hultman, the bride's brother, and Joseph A. Johnson of Meriden. The bridesmalds were Miss Annie Hultman, a sister of the bride. and Miss Alfreda Ericcson, the bride's consin. A bounteons wedding feast was served, and a general good time ensued Friends were present from surrounding towns. The bride and groom were kind ly remembered by their friends in a substantial manner, as evidenced by the beautiful and useful presents received. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson did not go on a wedding tour.

Go To Armory Opera House and See Ann. Old Is Ann?' which has been widely and frequently written about, is to be seen here at the Armory opera house tonight. "How Old is Ann?" is written along the lines made famous by the late Charles Hoyt, of whom Barney Gerard, the author, was a great admirer. It is Mr. Hoyt's works, among which were A Trip to Chinatown, A Temperance Town, A Midnight Bell, A Parlor Match, etc. A Parlor Match was 1 greatest success, and How Old Is And? is modelled on the same plan. Funny complications, mirth provoking situa tions, catchy musical numbers, pretty girls and clever comedians, are all promised in How Old is Ann? Theater goers can rest assured every promise will be fulfilled as How Old is Ann? has been a sensational success wherever presented.

MISS SAULT RESIGNS.

Miss Marie Sault has resigned her po sition as manager of the central telephone office here, same to take effect April 1st. It is supposed that her sister, Miss Alice Sault will be her successor.
