We have the sole agency in this town for A. W Street's India River Oranges, direct from the Edgemere Grove at Ormond, Florida.

These oranges have formerly been sold here by Mrs. W. W. Cheney.

Mr. Street makes a specialty of Fine Oranges and in this he certainly has succeeded.

We receive weekly shipments, and sell by the box, half box, or by the dozen, and all at moderate prices,

The fourth anniversary of the forms-ion of the local Swedish temperance society Enighet will be celebrated at Cheney ball Wednesday evening, April 27. It is expected that C F Lybek of Csm-brigde, Mass, will be present and deliver an address. Mr. Lytek is the grand chief templar of the Scandinavian grand league of Massachusetts, and will deliver his address in the Swedish tongue. Mrs. John Josephson of New Britain better known here as Miss Frida Ericcson, will attend the anniversary and sing. She is well known in Swedish circles about the state as a talented soprano singer of experience and ability. Readings, recitations, etc., will be contrituted by local members of the society. The meeting will be open to the public. Refreshments will be served and a pleasant social hour will be enjoyed. The following are the present board of officers: Bently Anderson templar; Ned Nilson, vice templar; Theodore Ekberg, recording secretary; Emanuel Peterson, financial secretary; Miss Loten Carlin, treasurer. Meetings are held twice a month at Ferris hall. The society is doing excellent work in this community among the Swedish people, and is encouraging all to lives of sobriety, honor and a nobler manhood in Should this be the case other sittings will have to be reserved. This is quite succuraging to the Colum bia Bard, under who e auspices and for whose benefit the pretty play is being produced. It also inspires those who are to take part in the play, stimulates them to action, and puts them on their mettle to give the most satisfactory production possible. In addition to the very interesting play, which in itself is a rare treat, specialties will be introduced by Miss Daisy Herron, soles by Edward Agard, Athur Keating, and Arthur De Forrest, Major A.
