mportant Matter Discussed But Publicity Withheld By Request.

A meeting of the Manchester Business Men's Association was held last evening 5 but only 11 were present. An important matter was brought before the meeting by E. T. Ferris and discussed generally, resulting in the appointment of a committee to take action and report at the next meeting of the association. By request further publicity of the matter withheld for the present. In the absence of J. W. Hale who was in New York yesterday, C. R. Hathaway reported for the committee on incorporation, 2 but owing to the small attendance the report was laid on the table. The meeting thereupon adjourned having been in session three-quarters of an hour.

the habits of vulgar people appear so vulgar as at the table. Trifling things that one would not notice in the parlor or in ordinary conversation about the house, become positively offensive when indulged in at the table, and persons who have been shocked at the disgusting sight of a knife ladened with food on its way to the jaws of a woman, or heard with a sickening of the nerves an uncontrollable belch from a man, must have felt the premonitory symptoms of dyspepsia. It is needless o protest that such cases are rare, and o claim that it is not often the case that men or women are so vulgar as topick their teeth with pins at the table or in other ways display their innate
