BASE BALL.

Opening Event At Woodland Park Last Saturday Afternoon. Fair Attendance.
The horse race at Woodland Park last Saturday attracted a fair sized attendance, considering that there were two heavy counter attractions here, the Big Rockville Manchester base ball game and the Savin Hook excursion. Three horses appeared in the running race, which was an half-mile heats, best two in three. The honors were carried off in straight heats by Bill Grady's horse, with George Smyke the up time 1:55 for the first half mile, at 1:35 for the second and Patrick Gorman's, and George Campbell's horse also ran.
In the trotting events, which were mile heats, best two in three, the race was given to Tomie Gorman, although it should have gone to Archie Hayes, as Gorman's horse had several breaks in the back stretch, which should have set him back. As the stakes were small, it was not deemed advisable to work the horses hard for the amount that was up, and consequently the race was allowed to go to Gorman. Time for the first mile 2:49, for the second 2:48. It was intended to have the stakes $10 for each horse, but Joe Hayes refused to put up more than $5 on his horse. Patmie Calicum's horse was in the race, but was put in more to fill up than anything else. The horses were well tanned at the finish.
It is likely that there will be other events of this kind follow. Plans are now on foot looking to this end. Carl Seaman's horse did not enter last Saturday. Tom Daley of Bolton was timer; J. Davenport Cheney, starter; George A. Johnson, judge.

FOUND DEAD IN NEW YORK.
Body of Timothy O'Connell at Grand Union Hotel—Gas Turned On.
The body of Timothy O'Connell of Depot square, Manchester, was found dead in bed at the Grand Union Hotel, New York, last Sunday, with the gas turned on, giving the semblance of a suicide. The official authorities of New York City issued a certificate of death as being by suicide. No one in this place believes that part of the story. The generally accepted theory here is that O'Connell came to his death by foul means, and that he was robbed as well as murdered. He is known to have had considerable money on his person, as well as a diamond ring and a valuable gold watch and chain, all of which are not to be found. The body was laid away at St. Bridget's cemetery at Manchester yesterday. It now seems that the real circumstances which led to his death will never be made public. O'Connell was one of the proprietors of the Cowles hotel on Depot Square. He was 42 years of age.

THERE IS BUT ONE HUNTSINGER'S.
What is worth doing is worth doing well. When the thing to be done is preparation for a life-work, no one will do this old-time tuition. For the future of any young man looking forward to a business career, there is small hope if he does not put this in the forefront of good resolutions.
There is a best in everything a standard of excellence by which all others suffer in comparison, or are held in increased esteem the closer they approach it. To disregard or belittle the standard harms only those who make the mistake and those who are influenced by them. The best is none too good for you. Life's duties and obligations are important for all of us. Its best opportunities are probably within your reach, if you fail to grasp them the fault is yours.
The best preparation for business is through the well conducted, thoroughly up-to-date business school. The energetic, faithful pupil will find everything done well at Huntsinger's, every detail of business thoroughly and intelligently taught, foundation principles of business success exemplified in word and act, every effort exerted to make the best out of every student enrolled.
Huntsinger's is the acknowledged standard of excellence. It has the best corps of teachers, gives the most thorough training, and takes the best care of those who go out from it. Other business schools are successful in proportion to their ability to imitate it. Some of them are doing it very creditably, but there is only one best, and you want the best.
HAS PRETTY HOME.
George W. Strant has been making extensive improvements in and about his new home on Main street, north of Bigelow Brook. He put on a veranda, a new glass door, painted the building inside and out, put in hot and cold water apparatus, bath, toilet, electric lights, and telephone, laid concrete walks, and grading the grounds. In another season he will have one of the prettiest rural homes along the street. The location is quiet and wholesome. There is a frontage of 75 feet for lawn purposes, and ample space at the rear for a substantial garden. All in all, Mr. Strant is delighted with his purchase, and is quite comfortably situated.

WALL FROM WILLIMANTIC.
The local base ball situation seems to be causing some of the directors and stockholders of the association considerable uneasiness. To keep in the band wagon with the other members of the "Big Four," it has been necessary to pay larger salaries than ever before, so that there is little or no profit in game, and even by doing this it has been impossible to retain some of the best men, even though their homes are here. "Jacky" Nichols finding better money in bartending around the eastern Connecticut independent circuit than in playing third base on the local team, and "Mike" Sullivan, the Villa Nova college catcher, deserting to play with Manchester, succumbing to the superior inducements offered by Manager Farrar, $30 and expenses for one game being rather more than Willimantic can afford to pay.
Manchester plays Saturday, and Willimantic would hate awfully to lose the game. The absence of Sullivan and Nichols weakens the team considerably, as Delude, the spare catcher, cannot stop Poloquin's fast shots, and the directors held a meeting, last night, in the office of the mayor, who is president of the association, to discuss the situation and decide what should be done.
At the meeting last evening it was learned that two other players were about to leave the team. Manager Dunn talked of resigning, and there was even talk of deserting the team. It is stated, after lengthy discussion, however, it was decided that Manager Dunn should continue the management and hire players to fill the deserts' places, securing as good a team as he could at the salaries offered. Jacky and Mike were considered large year or two ago.—Willimantic Correspondence.

FINISHER TUCKEY'S CASE.
Secretary James O'Rourke has sent a notification to President C. J. Danaher of the New Haven club, saying that Pitcher Tuckey is not eligible to play ball and is suspended under the rules until his fine of $100 is paid for playing ball in the Rockville independent team last Saturday. Tuckey claimed a number of people that he did not play with Rockville and to others that he did not know that he was liable to a fine. Secretary O'Rourke says: "The law was clear on the matter, and it was not the purpose of the directors when they enacted the rule, that no player shall be allowed to play independent ball under a penalty of $100, to have it a dead-letter."
"The rule was not passed unanimously for the mere fun of the thing," he continued. "Under the rules Tuckey may play his fine or all games will be protested. In this case the law will be observed in spirit and letter. Every member of the New Haven team knew of the rule, and it is not going to be suspended in Tuckey's case. It would be an injustice to the rest of the members, and the rule is in the league to allow Tuckey to get off without paying his fine."
"Why, I would have the services of 'Red' Waller this season if I would allow him to play independent ball on Sundays, not a working day in the Connecticut league, but it would be against the spirit of the vote for me to give him permission to play. So by following the rule I am deprived of 'Red' Waller's services."
MANCHESTER CHALLENGES.
Manager Farrar of the Manchester team has issued a challenge to Manager Holley of the American Silver company team for a base ball game at the Center street grounds Friday, August 19th, the winner to take 75 per cent. of the gate receipts. It is probable that the Bristol team will not play the game at that date. Why not play the game at the Center street grounds?—Bristol Correspondence.

see if Tuckey has to go down in his jeans for the $100 fine. He is suspended until he can pay the fine. He may prefer to leave the professional ranks.—Post, Hartford.
James H. O'Rourke, secretary of the Connecticut league, was very much surprised when his attention was called to the fact that Tuckey of New Haven pitched for Rockville Saturday against Manchester. At a meeting of the league a week ago it was voted to fine any player playing for an independent team during the league season $100. Mr. O'Rourke said: "I see no reason why this fine should not be imposed on Tuckey if he pitched the game. I for one shall insist on it, and I think the other directors will do the same. There is, no reason why the league should make rules if they are not to be enforced." Tuckey, it is said, received $30 for pitching for Rockville. He also pitched for New Haven yesterday and the game was not protested.—Springfield Union.

LOST FIRST BORN.
Axel and Mrs. Weiman of Mt. They experienced a sadness now to which they were strangers heretofore, and it is one that none know but those who have loved one is being laid at rest as we go to press this morn. Burial will be at the East cemetery. They have the profound sympathy of a large number of kind friends.

The Manchester Business Men's Association has gone on record as against the plan of having the state association give a silver service to the Battleship Connecticut. The matter came up at a meeting of the association held last evening and the following vote was passed:

The committee which had the matter of the excursion to Rocky Point in charge reported a deficit of $160. To cover this it was voted to levy an assessment of $2.00 a member.

Patrick Clune of Charter Oak street managed to get out on the street yesterday for a short time. He is still very weak, but hopes to regain his strength soon, so that he can get out of doors. He hit him hard, and although he was a very rugged man, he was unable to carry on his supply of strength and vigor.

NOT THEORY, BUT ACTUAL FACT.

Dr. Frederick Berg of States Island will supply.

The pulpit of the Center Congregational church will be filled for the remaining three Sundays of August by Rev. Dr. Frederick Berg of Port Richmond, Staten Island.

Dr. Berg supplied one Sunday last summer, and all were delighted with his able discourse. So satisfactory was his first appearance that the supply committee had highly pleased to have been able to secure him for these three Sundays this year, and assure the public that they will find in Dr. Berg a capable, scholarly and eloquent preacher.

Special musical programs have been arranged for the next three Sundays, and members of the church, as well as the general public, are invited to attend, and it is expected that there will be a considerable gathering at these services, in order to show an appreciation of the merits of this popular preacher.
