You are hereby authorized to sell sound of the long "a." President Roose-You are hereby authorized to sell tickets to stations on the road of this Company, in the states of New York, Connecticut, Massachusetts or Rhode Island, to voters going home to register and vote, upon presentation of Certificates, signed by the chairman of the Republican or Democratic committees of the county or town to which the voter is going, at one half the regular fare, in each direction, where the regular one way fare is more than $1.

When such certificate is presented for going passage, Ticket Agent will sell a second of the long "a." President Roose-velt Roose-velt Roose-velt Roose-velt Roose-velt Roose-velt, the accent being on the first syllable. The name Haas you will get near enough right if you pronounce it like the "hoe" in our word "hostility." The Century Dictionary is not yet aware of the modern disease of appendicitis, but it may be said that in this, as in many other cases, doctors differ. Some give the "i" in the syllable before the last the regular long "i" sound and others pronounce it like the long "our delegate, Mrs. W. F. Davis. A cordial invitation is extended to all Mrs. F. H.
