issued a call for a special meeting of the stockholders of the Mat chester Bue publican Club rooms in the new Cheney block at 8 o'clock next Mouday The principal features of the call are additional capital stock, and to discuss the subject of holing a fair for the b-nefit of the corporation during the c ming winter.

Aside from these special features there will be a number of matters discussed -time permitting. It is quite apparent that the present to take action authorizing the issue of issue of capital stock is insufficient to meet the requirements of the corporation, and certainly a larger issue and a gr- ater number of stockholders are most desirable. All the shares of stock originally issued were eagerly taken up as soon as placed upon the market, and a goodly number of additional shares conbi have been sold at the time were hey to be had. That dema d should now be met, and thus place mere work ing capital in our treasury.

In an interview with a Courant representative this week Manager Farrar of the Manchester Base Ball Corporation is eported as follows:

"Just what kind of a team they tend to jut in the field next year I de not know, as that will depend on the board of directors.
