77 MORE PRIZES-GET YOURS

There yet remain eleven weeks of the New York Herald Competition to deter-mine whether England or America has produced the better novel.

Every week seven cash prizes— seventy-seven in all—will be paid to readers for the best criticisms of the two stories.

You can compete all of the eleven weeks, and it is possible for you to win a cash prize every week—to get eleven checks for your opinions. Don't lose any more time-start next

The Herald publishes complete synopses of the stories each week, so you can easily pick up the threads. Here are last week's prize winners:

SIXTH ANNIVERSARY

The sixth anniversary of the organization of the local branch of the Daughters of Liberty, L. L. O. A. will be celebrated in Orange hall Monday evening. At that time Supreme Mistress Celia V. Moore of Syracuse, N. Y. will be present and deliver an address. There will also be a program of musi, al and vocal numbers and these will be followed, by a turkey supper.

The committee in charge consists of the white man. He compared some of the white man. He compared some of our superstitions with those of the Moqui Indians. His conversation was certainly droll and entertaining as well as instructive.
