The public service commission has ordered that no more than seventy-five sengers may be carried in a car at a time, so that there will be no crowding. Seats are provided for thirty-eight ngers and thirty-seven passengers ay be accommodated standing.

The care are so arranged that the assenger makes his entrance by one door and his exit by one of two doors at either end of the car. Passengers are supposed to give the conductor the exact fare on entering the car. Those not having the exact fare, step aside on the large platform until change is made, when they are permitted to pass into the car. One hundred and fifty of the new cars were in operation Sunday and railroad officials pronounced them a success.

Mrs. Green was 67 years of age and was born in Sweden, She had been a resident of this place for nearly thirty-five years and was employed as a cook in the family of Mrs. Sarah G. Cheney for over a quarter of a century. Mrs. Green was twice married, her first husband being Gustaf Granberg who died in 1879. She afterwards married Peter occupied during the day to such an quiet, home-loving woman, one who Pitkin is gathering the myrtle day by came in contact. She was perhaps better known by older residents of the town and those persons sincerely mourn her taking away. The large number of beautiful floral tributes seen at the fun-coast, "Billy" is well known in this place, having been a messenger in the employ of Adams Express Company for a number of years. He was quite successful in staging ministral shows while here. He seemed to have a natural spituade for the stage and his friends here will be pleased to learn that he is getting his abare of the white light in his chosen field.

trouble and expense they have taken to The advance announcements of the exhibit have been more than realized and all rejoice at the privilege presented them for seeing the wonderful display of the textile products of Cheney Brothers silk mills. A better conception of the importance of this great industry here has been acquired by many persons interested in the purchase and sale of silks than they ever possessed. To many it was a revelation to learn that Cheney Brothers made such a wide
