Week after week we are presenting forcible arguments as to why you should trade at THE PUBLIC MARKET.

These arguments are given in the form of at tractive prices which we are quoting on our meats. We are satisfied to make a reasonable profit and to share the benefits with our patrons. To that end we earnestly seek your hearty cooperation. This is just as necessary for your welfare as it is for ours. We can readily demonstrate the truth and force of this proposition if you will only give us the

Those of you who have become our regular patrons are fully convinced of the facts as here stated. It is our desire to greatly enlarge the circle of our patrons and to that end the following inviting prices on meats are made. Read and come here for your share of the money saving chances.

Though the name "buckboard" is ap piled to thousands of carriages, few specialty of each student.

Back around 1820, says the American Vehicle, in explaining it, when the transportation of goods, wares and merchandise was almost entirely by wagon, a Dr. Buck, who for many years afterward was the military storekeeper at Washington, was in charge of military stores en route to army posts in the southwest.

In east Tennessee much difficulty was experienced by reason of the rough roads, and there were frequent mishaps, mostly from the wagons over-Dr. Buck overhauled the outfit, and, abandoning the wagon bodies, long boards were set directly on the axles or hung below, and the stores were loaded in such a manner that there were no further delays from breakdowns, and the stores safely reached their destinations. In special emergency, too, the load could be shifted or taken off in a hurry.
