

NO LICENSE RALLIES

Address in By Given Here Before Town Election.

The local prohibitionists are planning to hold four rallies before the annual town election, as follows: Sunday, September 27th, Hon. Oliver Stewart of Chicago will deliver an address at the... Boston will speak at the High School Assembly hall; Saturday, October 3rd, Fred E. Britton of Boston, will deliver an address at Apoll's opera house, and Sunday, October fourth, Mr. Britton will speak at the Army opera house.

Mr. Stewart and Mr. Britton will be remembered as two of the leading speakers at the recent Prohibition State Convention held in this place; and Mr. Britton, as the distinguished whirlwind orator who electrified the public of this place for the first time last fall, preceding the town election.

Sunday, September 27th, Hon. Oliver W. Stewart will deliver a No License address to the Methodist church at Torrington in the morning; another in the Methodist church at Belltop at 1.30 p. m., another in the Congregational church at Bolton Center at 5 o'clock in the afternoon. All of these he will be in addition to the address he is to make in the Army opera house that evening, as indicated above.

At a Composure Yesterday. Col. F. W. Cheney Presided. The annual reunion of the Sixteenth Connecticut was held at Lake Composure yesterday afternoon. Colonel Frank W. Cheney of this place presided. Mr. Cheney has been honored with the life presidency of this organization. Chaplain Dixon who offered the prayer at the opening is 88 years of age.

Colonel Cheney also spoke of the trip to Ansonville last October at the dedication of the monument to the last survivors of the Sixteenth Connecticut who suffered and died in Southern prison. He also spoke very feelingly of the gathering held here last June on his 70th birthday, when members of the regiment gave him a surprise and presented him with a beautiful loving cup. Colonel Cheney gave his comrades a warm remembrance of his deep appreciation of the feelings of comradeship manifested on that occasion.

At the regular meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary to the A. O. U. held at Cheney hall last Monday evening seven candidates were elected. Miss Annie McAniff of the Hartford auxiliary was the guest of the local division.

President Margaret Murphy paid an eloquent tribute to the retiring state president, Mrs. Eleanor McCann of this place, for the excellent work she performed while chief executive of the order in Connecticut. President Murphy closed her remarks by presenting Mrs. McCann with a beautiful bouquet of flowers.

It was voted that the next meeting of the local auxiliary be a social one and the following committee was appointed to make the necessary arrangements for same: Mrs. Eleanor McCann, Miss Helen Price and Miss Annie Keating. The local auxiliary is in a flourishing condition, is steadily advancing its membership and is making inroads in the community and is day by day making membership within its fold better and more profitable for its members, especially in time of sickness or distress.

Henry Nominated. E. Stevens Henry of Rockville was nominated by the Republicans of the Second Congressional District at Hartford last Saturday. James W. Cheney of this place was the presiding officer of the convention. Out of 120 votes cast in the convention 120 were given to Congressman Henry and 10 to General Henry G. Dwight of Hartford. This result was certainly very complimentary to Mr. Henry. Mr. Henry made a speech of acceptance and at the close of the convention had the delegates as his guests at a banquet in the Allyn Home.

official announcement. H. O. Bowers was moderator. Those who voted of the Republican ballots were Charles E. House, Robert E. Curney, Ned Nelson, and Harry Shewry. The Democrats' opponents were: Richard J. Maloney, Michael O'Connell, John J. Lamerick, William Stone, and Anne Wheeler. The prohibition counters were: Louis St. C. Burr, Albert Dewey, and Thomas Trotter, 2nd.

The Direct Primary passed off pleasantly in all particulars excepting in the matter of counting which, of course, was a tedious and long drawn out process. Where there were contests for the nominations, these were carried on peacefully, agreeably, and in a businesslike manner. All contests were totally devoid of all rancor and all show of ill feeling or temper. No abusive epithets were applied to any of the candidates. None interested cast reproaches upon their competitors. Each endeavored in a gentlemanly manner to gain the interest of his friends in his own behalf and to make as good a showing in the balloting as possible.

CLAMS IN THE WOODS

Local Sportsmen Have Second Annual Clambake and Shoot.

The Second Annual Clambake and Shoot given by the South Manchester Sportsmen's Association took place at the Chapman road grounds yesterday. There were an estimated fifteen hundred guests. Henry Metcalf of Rockville won first prize, which was $5.00; and Dr. D. C. Y. Moore of South Manchester, second, $2.50. The shoot was known as amateur high gun shooting during the entire program. When it is remembered that Dr. Moore has not done his shooting for the past two years his achievement of yesterday in winning second prize is certainly notable.

The events were shot off under the direction of Captain George A. Smith, who is also vice president of the association. William C. Cheney had been appointed as a committee to provide the marksmen with a clambake. A succulent and savory meal was served under the trees yesterday afternoon and most heartily enjoyed. Steamed clams in great abundance were provided, as well as green corn boiled with the butter.

Henry Keen was chief and acquitted himself in a satisfactory manner. Members of the marksmen association did the serving and all enjoyed the outdoor feast amazingly. It was a jolly, democratic gathering and one of the pleasant events of the summer season in this place. Thirty of the marksmen enjoyed the hospitalities of the occasion. Through the courtesy of B. O. Cheney, publishers of the local newspapers were guests of the sportsmen at the clambake.

A Lawyer's Somersault. Speaking of somersaults, the anecdote which Lord Eldon related of the eminent English lawyer, Lord Denning, afterward Lord Ashburton, will bear repeating. "I had," says Lord Eldon, "very early after I was called to the bar a brief as junior to Mr. Denning. He began the argument and appeared to me to be reasoning very powerfully against our client. Waiting till he was quite convinced that he had mistaken for what party he was retained, I then touched his arm, and upon his turning his head toward me I whispered to him that he must have misunderstood by whom he was employed, as he was reasoning against our client."

"He gave me a very rough and rude reprimand for not having sooner set him right and then proceeded to state that what he had addressed to the court was all that could be stated against his client and that he had put the case as unfavorably as it were possible in order that the court might see how very satisfactory the case against him could be answered and accordingly very powerfully answered what he had before stated."

Badly Confused. Lord Bramwell, says the biographer of that jurist, used to tell a story illustrating the complete paralysis which may affect the human mind at trying moments. One day when he was on board a Rhine steambot he noticed a lady, evidently in great distress, trying by signs to explain to the officers some matter of importance. Fancying that she was a countrywoman of his own, he asked: "Do you speak English?"

The poor lady he really lost her head, and she could only stammer out, "Un peu—that is, a little. Then Lord Bramwell continued the conversation in French, but it became evident that the lady understood scarcely a word. German and Italian gave equally bad results. Finally she muttered sadly to herself: "How I wish I were a fool at home!" "But surely you do speak English," exclaimed the baron.

"I can't speak anything else," she sobbed. "That's what makes me so helpless among these foreigners."

GOOD NEWS. Crosstown Trolley Service To Be Restored. At the special meeting of the Manchester Business Men's Association held last evening, James W. Cheney made known the important fact that the regular trolley service on the crosstown line was to be restored.

Colonel Frank W. Cheney interested himself in this matter, on behalf of the many trolley patrons in this place, who by long usage come to recognize the cross town service as one of the fixtures of the town, and besought Vice President Calvert N. Townley of New Haven, while in conversation with him yesterday afternoon, to come to the rescue of the Manchester trolley public.

Colonel Cheney stated the facts to Mr. Townley apprising him of the great dissatisfaction prevailing here regarding the change of schedule brought about by the recent extension of the trolley to Manchester Green. On learning the facts in the case officially, Mr. Townley assured Colonel Cheney that the cross town service would be restored. This is indeed good news and everybody in town will be glad to know it.

BRIDGE CELEBRATION

ONE THOUSAND MANCHESTER MARCHERS TO BE IN LINE AT GREAT INDUSTRIAL PARADE.

Arrive Taken Last Evening At Meeting of Manchester Business Men's Association—$2,000 Expense for Manchester's Park—Stores To Be Closed All Day—Special Free Train for Marchers.

A special meeting of the Manchester Business Men's Association was held at the parlors of the president, J. W. Hale, last evening. Action was taken, with reference to the big industrial parade which is to go from this place to participate in the Hartford Bridge Celebration, Wednesday, October 7th, and to help finance the local end of the big project in response to a request from Clifford D. Cheney, chairman of the Executive Industrial Committee of Manchester.

An invitation from the Danbury Business Men's Association asking the Manchester Business Men's Association to be their guests at the Danbury Fair, Wednesday, October 7th, was accepted and a committee appointed to take the matter in hand and ascertain the number of who would go. Secretary Fred W. Mills read the invitation from the Danbury Business Men's Association inviting the local business men to be their guests at their Third Carnival which the business men are to hold in connection with the queen of occasions, the Danbury Fair, which will open October 5th, and close the 10th. They have designated October 7th, as "Business Men's Day."

The officers of the Danbury Fair have very liberally placed at the disposal of the Business Men, a seat to be used exclusively as the headquarters of the Danbury Fair, which will be used for the purpose of furnishing badges and sending in the enjoyment of the occasion.

The fair grounds are about two miles from the City Hall, and can be reached by trolley and by railroad train. The invitation was accepted and the following were appointed as a committee to ascertain how many could go to Danbury on the date named: O. F. Toop, E. T. Ferris, George H. Howe. Because of the big industrial demonstration that is to be held in place on that same date to participate in the Hartford Bridge Celebration, it will not be convenient for many of the members of the Manchester Business Men's Association to go to Danbury on the date indicated.

The following communication from Clifford D. Cheney, Chairman of the Industrial Committee of Manchester was read: Manchester Business Men's Association, Gentlemen:— At a meeting held on September 21st, 1908, of the Industrial Executive Committee of Manchester, at which place I secured Colonel Cheney that the cross town service would be restored. This is indeed good news and everybody in town will be glad to know it.

SOME OBSERVATIONS

The Hartford correspondent of the Shore Line Times, in the last issue of this publication made a few observations regarding the nomination of Hon. George L. Lilley of Waterbury as Republican candidate for governor of the State of Connecticut. These observations appear to us to be very correct; they have our very cordial approval, and we are pleased to give them further publicity and distribution by reproducing them herewith, as follows:

Some of the friends of Mr. Lilley noticed late on Wednesday of last week that the Republican convention at New Haven declined to be stamped by the talk about the general fitness of Mr.
Lilley for the office of governor, or by the threat by fifty-three manufacturers that they should decline to vote for him, the awful fit in which this fact places the party having apparent weight with them.

The reason the fifty-three gave for objecting to his nomination is, however, not interesting as it consisted of the assertion that, if Mr. Lilley is elected governor of Connecticut, Congress by way of punishing the state, may change the tariff in a manner prejudicial to the fifty-three poor but honest manufacturers.

It goes to show how carefully the tariff has to be cared for and on what bread lines its rates are based. It seems a great pity that Grover Cleveland did not soon read this proclamation of the fifty-three for, though he was looking in himself, he must have seen the funny side of that surprising statement.

If a protective tariff is subject to change from such reasons it is about time that some of its protective features be eliminated, and it is merely a cloak for the punishment of refractory states the sooner that fact becomes known the better. Incidentally it will be worth while to watch the formation of a tariff act which will hit Connecticut and still leave Massachusetts and Rhode Island unharmed.

Perhaps by this time the manufacturers realize that they lack in the matter of common sense when they assume that the average citizen is impressed by a statement from them in which they preface their remarks by telling of the amount of capital they represent and the number of men they employ, for such assertions are not well received, the average workman having a marked suspicion of the men who boast that they control him in matters outside his daily work.

Mr. Lilley has indeed been fortunate in his enemies during the past few months and he has been given a wide chance to show his worth. When he has decided it will be time for him to break his silence and then be heard both act and talk.

Intestant Governor Lake used all the resources at his command but he could not save himself from the McGovern outfit in the season and for much the same reason; that while he had some friends who were devoted to his name he had too many workers who were in it for revenue only and who had to him shamefully whenever they gave an account of their stewardship.

The most thing he did was to show up after his convention with a smiling face after his losses had been placed in solid stones for two years. He is a good loser and he deserves all credit for that.

At present few persons in Hartford are willing to hold him responsible for the setbacks made upon Mr. Lilley under the complete change in fact that Samuel P. Thresher was regarded as one of his lieutenants. If Mr. Thresher will only keep busy for the next six weeks he will doubtless add a little to the majority which Mr. Lilley has a right to expect.

NO LICENSE

(Tune, "John Brown's Body")
Our watchword is "No License,"
We don't want those no license
men, for they'll protect our homes For Giant Ben he wants to come and turn us out to roam;
He will make our lives most miserable,
Oh woe you eat the bomb,
That will root old Barleycorn.

Chorus
We don't want those no license
men, we want the barkeepers to fear us, Fathers, brothers, woe you eat us,
"No License" is our cry.
When we tramp to school in summer and all through the winter's blast,
No dens of vice we want to see in buildings that we pass;
No more we want to smell the place where they sell the social glass,
That's what old Barleycorn.

Chorus
The winter's near, we want no beer
sold at the bars in town,
For Tommy's shoes are getting thin and slier wants a gown;
How can we get those things we need if the beer cart comes around,
Please root old Barleycorn.

Chorus
We want papa at home with us, please Don't take him away
To spend his evenings at the bar, we want him home to stay;
We have enjoyed his company and
we welcome to pray,
Please root old Barleycorn.

Chorus
David Warnock, South Manchester,
September 21, 1908.

GARD OF THANKS

To all those kind neighbors and friends who during the days when deep sorrows came upon us in such crushing force in the death of our darling boy proved themselves to be true friends, we wish to extend our most sincere and appreciative thanks, and especially so to those who kindly contributed flowers, street, South Manchester, September

THE COMPANIONSHIP OF CONFORMABLE SHOES

A shoe that hurts your foot is like an ill-natured companion—keeps you
in a bad temper, too.
A shoe that really fits the foot is a strong aid to solid comfort, and therefore to good cheer.

Women who wear La France shoes are cheerful women because their feet are always comfortable.
They are contented women because they know that their shoes present a graceful and aristocratic appearance.

They are economical women because La France shoes are made of the finest and most carefully selected materials and by workmanship which has no superior in the shoe-making industry—therefore they wear far longer than you would expect such dainty shoes to last.

Come in and try on a pair of these famous shoes at the very first opportunity.

"Nothing does more to impede religion, enfeeble parish and discourage pastors than this haunting scandal. This was our and experience during the season, and this brutality disappointed with the advent of no license. Indeed some of these wife abusers and brawlers have now, to my knowledge, become very respectable citizens. They are saving money, owning a house, some of them two houses, and best of all, the one, the richest treasure on earth, self-respect. This is the late Father Scotty."

Rexall Violet Talcum Powder

A TOILET NECESSITY.

Not so long ago a box of Talcum Powder was considered a luxury. Ladies were the principal users and even they did not resort to it as a daily comfort, nor seem to understand the widely different uses to which it might be put.

Next Monday evening the Ladies Auxiliary to the O. E. H. will hold a social meeting at Chesney Hall beginning at eight o'clock sharp.

To sell rum for a livelihood is bad enough, but for a whole community to share the responsibility and guilt of such a traffic, seems a worse bargain than that of Eve or Judas.

TRANSFERRING MACHINERY

Ribbon Looms and Other Equipments Being Installed in New Mills.

Each week finds more and more machinery being placed in the new ribbon mills which Chesney Brothers have recently constructed on Pine street, and as fast as the machinery can be set in place, electric motors adjusted, and warps put in, the looms are being started weaving ribbons.

In the new mill at the corner of Pine and Pleasant streets the second floor is filled with ribbon looms. A considerable number of weavers are finding employment there at the present time. Machinery is also being installed on the first floor of this mill at this time.

On the third floor of the south mill reels and other machinery are being set up. Handlooms are being placed in position on each floor of the two new mills. The huge hydraulic elevator in the south mill carries the machinery to the several floors as required. The two mills are connected from the elevator to each other so that the machinery may be transferred on any floor of both mills, either North or South. As many mechanics are employed in the work of getting the two mills ready as a practical, Chesney Brothers are doing their great work done by their own workmen.

TONIGHT

Dr. E. O. Taylor of Boston will speak this evening at the South Methodist Episcopal church. His subject will be "God's Message in Science to Thinking Men." He will illuminate the church from a bottle of beer.

SOUTH METHODIST CHURCH

The subject of Rev. W. F. Davis' discourse at the South Methodist church next Sunday will be "Foes of Our Government." All are cordially invited to attend these services.

WILL START UP

Manchester Green Mill to Resume Operations After Six Weeks Shut-Down.

We are pleased to announce herewith that the Glastenbury Knitting Company will open their Manchester Green mill next week Monday, after having been shut down for repairs for a period of six weeks. During that time the interior of the mill has been painted, the sprinkler system has been extended to the new addition built to the mill including the new boiler room, etc., and many other needed improvements have been made in and about the mill.

This is the first time that the Manchester Green Mill has been shut down in almost fifteen years, which period covers the date of ownership and management of that property by Hewitt Coburn, Jr. Mr. Coburn has made a fine success of the Glastenbury Mills. He has brought the products of same to a high degree of perfection and has introduced his wares to all parts of the United States. Now the Glastenbury Knitting Company is widely known and its name is synonymous with a very excellent article of underwear. At the present time there are some fifty-five hands employed in the Manchester Green Mill. The company has a larger mill in East Glastenbury where similar goods are manufactured and the two mills are owned and operated by Mr. Coburn.

Mr. Coburn has, during the past summer, been enlarging and modernizing his residence on the open court at Manchester Green. Workmen still are engaged putting the finishing touches on this building. It will, when completed, be perhaps the most pretentious residence at Manchester Green, and will be occupied by Mr. Coburn and family during the summer time. Mr. Coburn has also a very comfortable and substantial residence on Highland street, Hartford, where he spends the winter and spring months.

They expect to have 135 members of the lodge in their line of march and they will participate in the dedicatory exercises of the cornerstone of the great stone bridge across the Connecticut River.

BICYCLE BOOE

Goodman Stronk of South Main street is mourning the loss of his bicycle. Coming up town Wednesday evening he left the wheel in front of Madden Brothers bicycle store while he went up street shopping. On his return his bicycle was gone. He doesn't know whether it was stolen or taken by mistake. There were a number of wheels there at the time and it is possible that someone made a mistake and took the wrong wheel. He will give a reward for the safe return of the wheel to Madden Brothers store.

To sell rum for a livelihood is bad enough, but for a whole community to share the responsibility and guilt of such a traffic, seems a worse bargain than that of Eve or Judas.

HARTFORD OPERA HOUSE

FALSE FRIENDS. The most successful offerings of the past in the popular-price theaters were plays that presented the greatest amount of human sentiment, heart interest, pathos, humor and comedy, true to nature, as exemplified in the emotional drama of former seasons; while the biggest hits of the last few years have been the more modern and extravagant development known as scenic melodrama. The new advanced melodrama, "False Friends; or Driven to Bay," is said to embrace the best qualities of both these styles; the play by Robert Norton embracing a romantic and engrossing story, true to life, while the production is pronounced an elaborate one in seven realistic scenes, mounted up to the highest standard of modern scenic art and mechanical genius. This new offering will be seen tonight and twice tomorrow at the Hartford opera house.

ROOSEVELT LAUDS TAFT

True Friend of Reform and Foe of Abuses.

NAMES HIM POLITICAL HEIR

Republican Candidate Stands For Same Policies as Present Administration—Can Be Trusted to Do Justice to Both Capital and Labor—A Champion of the Right and True Representative of All the People.

In the following letter of President Roosevelt to Mr. Conrad Kohr, he tells why voters should support William H. Taft at the polls. Mr. Conrad Kohr of Helena, Mont., is an old time citizen of Montana. He and the president came into close relationship more than twenty years ago, when they were both members of the Montana Stock Growers' association, the president being at that time the representative of the Little Missouri stock growers in the association. The testimony has been kept up ever since. Mr. Kohr is one of the pioneer citizens of the northern Rocky mountain region and was twice elected to a leading part in its great development.

Mr. Kohr's letter was called forth by Mr. Bryan's statement that the president was the president's heir and natural successor.

Senator Hill, of Oregon, has received your letter about the candidacy of Mr. Taft, the man who I feel is an especial name the representative of all that in which I most believe in political life.

Every good citizen should desire to see both party and nation prosper and it is surely right that we should seek to secure the best man for the job. In my opinion, the man who I feel is an especial name the representative of all that in which I most believe in political life. Every good citizen should desire to see both party and nation prosper and it is surely right that we should seek to secure the best man for the job. In my opinion, the man who I feel is an especial name the representative of all that in which I most believe in political life.

"YOU CAN'T FRIGHTEN ME ANY MORE—IT'S A JOKE."

AS TO LICENSE OPINIONS OF EMINENT CLERGYMEN ON THE QUESTION.

People of whatever faith will be interested in the opinions of some of the country's most learned and honored clergymen. Many more might be added, but these show the general trend of thought:

- BISHOP POTTER OF NEW YORK: Our prohibitory laws, whether we put them in operation on one day only, or on all days, are as stupid as they are ineffectual.
BISHOP CLARK OF RHODE ISLAND: Prohibition has been disastrous to the cause of temperance.
BISHOP GRAFTON OF WISCONSIN: I cannot see the benefit of compulsory abstinence.
CARDINAL GIBBONS OF BALTIMORE: I am persuaded that it is practically impossible to put prohibition into effect in any large community, and the best means, therefore, to promote temperance is to limit the number of saloons by high license.

BISHOP HALL OF VERMONT: Prohibition drives underground the mischief which it seeks to cure, making it more difficult to deal with the evil, and impossible to regulate the trade.
MASSACHUSETTS PASTOR WHO FAVORS LICENSE: In October of last year, the Rev. Earl C. Davis, the working pastor of Unity church of Pittsfield, created a sensation in the No-License League and Berkshire Ministers' Club by announcing that he was in favor of license, speaking substantially as follows: 'I believe in the licensed city from a moral standpoint. I was born and brought up in Maine. I live in Auburn and Lewiston. What I saw in Maine prompts me to my action now, and that is the reason I have taken this stand. "From what I observed in Maine I believe that no-license in Pittsfield would mean the establishment of innumerable kitchen dives that would be followed or run in connection with houses of ill-repute, and morally the effect would be infinitely worse than with the open saloon under a supervision of authorities. "Auburn and Lewiston in Maine are about the size of Pittsfield. In Auburn alone there are 150 kitchen barrooms, and as many more in Lewiston under a so-called prohibition regime."

ARCHBISHOP RYAN OF PHILADELPHIA: I am in favor of total abstinence for all persons who desire or need it. I favor high license and every means consistent with true principles and due respect for individual liberty, to promote the practice of temperance.
EX-GOV. RUSSELL OF MASSACHUSETTS: Prohibition has been enacted in this state, thoroughly tried and repealed by its sponsors as a confessed failure.
RESULTS AT RIVERHEAD, R. I.: Replying to an inquiry, the Rev. Mr. Wasson, rector of Grace Church, Riverhead, said among other things, under date of November 1, 1907: "We have had just six months' trial of license, and the results have been highly beneficial morally as well as financially. There has been far less drunkenness, and our village has been quiet and orderly. When the no-license law was in operation, every Sunday selling was the rule. Now, I am informed by persons who know, there is not one saloon keeper that violates the Sunday law. I feel morally certain that, if the question were to be voted on today, the majority for license would be twice as large as it was last spring. In short, reason and common sense have been justified by time and experience. The influence of the fanatics has been reduced almost to the zero mark, for which I am devoutly thankful."

BACK IN TOWN

Almost Blind, Ailing and Seriously Wounded. James H. Vetch reached home Monday night from Denver, Colorado, where he has been undergoing treatment in a hospital, and also since he left the hospital at the hands of specialists in nervous afflictions. Mr. Vetch is still very much enfeebled, has to lean on a staff in walking, is deprived in a large measure of the use of his left eye and in part of the left side of his body, through a sort of partial paralysis or nervous affliction.

It will be remembered that Mr. Vetch was injured at Wheatland, Wyoming, July 6th, while employed as attorney and time-keeper for an irrigation company in that section. In passing through a sort of ravine near the mouth of an excavation a mass of debris fell from overhead almost burying him alive and knocking him insensible, besides inflicting numerous wounds on his head and body generally. It is thought that a severe concussion of the head is the chief cause of the nervous trouble which is now harassing him. The specialists believe that a nerve has been cut or paralyzed and that this produces the injury to the eye, the wryness of his face and the general weakness of the left side of the body. When Mr. Vetch was injured, he found that medical care was not obtainable in the portion of Wyoming where he was employed, consequently he came to Denver where he received very excellent further treatment. He hopes by further medical skill at his home in this place that he will ultimately be restored to his usual vigor.

CO. G BAZAR Some of the Tickers That Are To Be Presented Next Month.

The entertainment program for the Co. G Bazar is about completed. Every number is a feature in itself worthy of special mention and the Company promise to give the public something to talk about for a long time. Fads and fancies, which made such a tremendous hit at the recent Co. G Bazar is to be reduced to the minimum in the committee's charge. This number is sure to please, as the music is the latest and most catchy that can be procured. The comedy which sparkles all through is sure to make the most stern smile. The original cast of characters including ten young ladies and three gentlemen will appear in this sketch. Another interesting and funny number will be presented on Military Night, entitled An Award Squad. This little farce is a screen play, which is sure to introduce a number of characters. The scene is laid in a United States Recruit Station and the troubles of the officers in charge are unlimited. The case is made up of a number of Co. G's most popular members. A Salvation leader in full dress uniform will appear and render a solo in this number. The bazar will open on October 13th and continue for five nights.

DIED AT HOSPITAL Girl Committed Suicide After Being Deceived by Lover.

Miss Kate Grundskad of Kenney court died at St. Francis Hospital, Hartford, last Saturday night. Her funeral took place from the St. James church Tuesday morning. Dated being in the St. James cemetery. It will be remembered that Miss Grundskad used bromine to end her life, as noted in the editorial on the death of Dr. Moore, the attendant physician was of the opinion that she had used probably a boxful of matches for this purpose, and had been eating the bromine practically all day. The match eating had been going on a number of hours before it came to the people with whom she boarded. The bromine produced an inflammation of the stomach resulting in peritonitis, and although everything was done to save the unfortunate girl's life she managed to get enough of the poison absorbed so that the antidotes could not counteract the effects. Miss Grundskad was eighteen years of age, and has no relatives in this place. Her mother lives in Wilkesbarre, Pennsylvania.

LOST A KIDNEY A surgical operation was performed upon Peter Sigmetts at St. Francis Hospital in Hartford last week whereby one of his kidneys was removed. Mr. Sigmetts, who is a native of Sweden, is now recovering from the operation. He seems to be getting along as well as could be expected and it is believed that he will ultimately recover and work his way through life minus one kidney.

It will be remembered that the cause of Miss Grundskad's suicide was the fact that she was deceived by her lover and that she had committed the rash act which had fatal termination, as noted above.

Concluded From Page One

The Hartford Bridge Celebration of October 7th, it was decided to send to Hartford a marching delegation of 1,000 men, recruited from among the workmen of the town's various mills, together with two brass bands and several decorative floats, the latter to be submitted for prizes.

The total cost to our Committee for uniforms, transportation of marchers, marching music, and other legitimate items, is estimated at about $3000.

A subscription, representing a part of this amount is respectfully requested of you, as a patriotic Manchester association, which should be interested in having this town well represented in the parade.

Subscriptions should be made payable to J. W. Hale, Treasurer, South Manchester, Conn.

Yours very truly, Clifford D. Cheney, Chairman Executive Industrial Committee of Manchester.

Presenting this paper he was heartily in favor of the Manchester Business Men's Association taking hold of this matter with a will and doing all they could to make the big turn-out of Manchester's toilers a pronounced success. He felt that inasmuch as Cheney Brothers were going to so much labor and expense in the matter, their efforts should be rigorously seconded by the business men of the town. It was explained that the silk, the paper, the soap and bon ami, and the woolen industries of the town were to be represented in the parade, but that the one thousand men from here who are to do the marching would be representative of the town of Manchester as a whole. Each industry was to have its own float or floats, and its own employees, but all are to wear the same uniforms. The one difference will be that each industry will be represented by a different colored sash.

Cheney Brothers have very generously donated one thousand large silk flags mounted on shafts, same to be borne by the Manchester workers in this parade.

This will unquestionably be one of the striking features of the parade as no other large body of men marchers will be similarly equipped.

The fact too that the Manchester battalions will all be in uniform, consisting of white duck military coat trimmed with brass buttons, white cap with visor, white gloves and a broad ribbon sash extending over the shoulder and under the arm will surely mark them out for friendly favor and recognition by the assembled multitude.

The Manchester Military band enlarged to twenty-four pieces, assisted by another large band from out of town will furnish music for the Manchester marchers. It is expected that there will be 800 silk workers in line and that the other 200 will be made up from the operatives of the J. T. Robertson Company, the Bon Ami Works, the Case Brothers paper mill at Highland Park, the mill of the Rogers Paper Manufacturing Company, the Oakland mill of the American Writing Paper Company, and the paper mill of the A. Willard Case Company.

It is expected that there will be ten thousand men in the big parade in Hartford, and that Manchester will furnish one-tenth of this monster body of marchers which will form a line three miles long.

R. O. Cheney, president of the South Manchester Railroad Company has made provisions with the Consolidated Railroad Company whereby a special train of twelve cars will be furnished free for the Manchester men in uniform. This train will leave the South Manchester station at ten o'clock a. m. sharp for Manchester and leave Manchester at 10.10 a. m. for Hartford. None will be allowed on this train but men in uniform and all must have their round trip tickets in advance. The hour for the return trip from Hartford has not been announced as yet, but will be made known later.

James W. Cheney stated that there would be eight thousand seats in the grand stand that is being erected in Hartford, which are being sold at five dollars each. These sittings have backs, are numbered, are transferable, and are good for the three days and three nights of the celebration. Persons paying for these sittings may go and return at will and find their sittings unoccupied.

There are eighty-two boxes sending ten persons each, which sell at fifty dollars the box. There are twelve thousand and bleacher seats at fifty cents each. These are not numbered and can not be purchased in advance. They are good only while you hold them down personally. If you get up and "vacate" them for an instant the other fellow in waiting may take possession. The entire seating capacity of the grand stand will be approximately twenty-one thousand. It will cost $2,000 to equip, transport and load the Manchester battalions and carry all the incidental expenses connected therewith. It is expected that a box lunch will be served the marchers when they are being formed in line on Bushnell Park. Ample and commodious toilet arrangements will be provided for all at the boxes, grand stand and bleachers.

The business men present at the special meeting last evening entered into the spirit of the movement with much enthusiasm. The following committee was appointed to solicit and collect funds to help in partially defraying expenses of the Manchester marchers in the big parade: R. La Motte Russell, George E. Keith, Jasper A. Fitch, William K. Hibbard, and E. Hugh Crosby.

It was voted that the business men of the town of Manchester be requested to close their stores all day Wednesday, October 7th, in honor of the big parade. Personal solicitation will also be had in order to have the matter of closing the stores made uniform.

James W. Cheney, who is taking a very active interest in the monster celebration, gave notice last evening that all members of the General Executive Committee of the Hartford Bridge Celebration are entitled to five invitations to the parade to be presented at the Board of Trade rooms in Hartford and are free to members of the Executive Committee only. None others can get them. They are not for sale. They are beautiful souvenirs of the biggest event ever witnessed in Connecticut, and will be well worth possessing.

The following were chosen as delegates from the Manchester Business Men's Association to attend the convention of the State Business Men's Association at New Haven Thursday, October 15: R. La Motte Russell, William E. Allen, and C. E. House. These delegates were authorized to appoint their own alternates.

ACT PROMPTLY AND THE MONEY IS YOURS.

There are two reasons why we do not make a practice of publicly taking notice of our competitors' advertisements. One is, it is against our business principles, and the other, we don't have time. But the glaring headlines and the more glaring MISREPRESENTATIONS OF FACTS by our competitors, Messrs Hohenthal and Benson, known as the Palace Furniture Co., compel us for this once to cast aside our principles and spend a little of our time.

To show the people of Manchester and vicinity (who we believe are too wise to be so easily deceived) that the advertisement of the above firm in the last issue of this paper is largely composed of statements which we hereby offer

ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS IN GOLD if they can prove them to be as they state them.

WE QUOTE FROM THEIR ADVERTISEMENT: "You need not be told that the name of this store is synonymous with high honorable dealings, and we stand by and stake this reputation in this advertisement. The foundation of our success is confidence. The people turn more and more to this growing store because they know ANY STATEMENT MADE BY US IS PAST CONTRADICTION. THEY KNOW EVERY STATEMENT WE MAKE IS THE TRUTH, THE TRUTH IN ENTIRETY. It is exactly on "these lines that this closing out sale will be conducted."

Now these are strong words plainly stated, and coming from such reliable people as Mr. Hohenthal and Mr. Benson, we could hardly expect to find anything but the truth in the balance of their advertisement. But to give them a chance to obtain

ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS IN GOLD which we hereby agree to give absolutely free to any local fraternal, charitable or temperance society whom they may designate, and at the same time prove themselves to be the truthful, high, honorable dealing, worthy of the public confidence firm which they claim themselves to be.

If they will prove by showing their stock, stock book or invoices to any responsible, disinterested party the following statements contained in their advertisement of Sept. 18th, that they had in stock as they state at that time:

100 DOZEN DINING CHAIRS or 100 IRON BEDS or 100 CENTER TABLES or 200 ROCKERS or 500 RUGS or 50 KITCHEN RANGES or 50 COUCHES or 50 DRESSERS or ONE HALF THE TOTAL AMOUNT OF STOCK STATED

If they fail to prove the truth of the above, which we agree to publish if proven, we fear the confidence of the trading public of Manchester in the balance of their advertisement will be somewhat shaken, and we advise them to look well to the foundation of their success.

We also agree to give a 10 PER CENT CASH DISCOUNT Below Any Advertised Price Quoted By Them.

Assembly Hall Well Filled With Persons - Interested In No License Campaign

A No License rally was held in High School Assembly Hall last evening at which upwards of eight hundred persons assembled and listened for an hour and a quarter to the temperance address delivered by Hon. John T. Shea of East Cambridge, Mass. Mr. Shea made an earnest plea for no-license and discussed the question from a moral standpoint. His endeavor was to en-light the voters in behalf of the boys and girls, by removing temptation from them as far as possible, thus enabling them to grow up to be better men and women than if exposed to the dangers of the open saloon.

Mr. Shea took occasion to give the lie to the slanderous statement made regarding him upon his visit to this town one year ago, namely: that on the Sunday night after delivering his no-license address in the Armory Opera House, he had to be assisted to bed in a local hotel while in an intoxicated condition. Mr. Shea publicly made known the fact last night that he is a member of the Catholic Total Abstinence Union of America, and of the Father Matthew Total Abstinence Society of Boston.

He further emphatically and positively declared that he had never taken a drink of intoxicating liquor in his life and said he did not know the taste of liquor of any kind.

He strongly urged members of the Ancient Order of Hibernians and of the Knights of Columbus of which he is also a member, to unite with the Catholic Total Abstinence workers in the military movements of the Manchester and the other Christian workers who are struggling to save the youth of this town from the baleful influences of the saloon. His closing advice was that they go to the polls next Monday and vote no-license.
