Mr. Sweeney had been at the Hartford Hospital a long time before the authorties knew that he was formerly a resident of this place and it was not until December 23, 1908, that the Town of Manchester was officially notified by the hospital authorities that the Town of Manchester would be called upon to pay for Mr. Sweeney's care. The selectmen voted to comply with the requests made above, to pay the funeral expenses, to pay the Hartford Hospital for the care of Mr. Sweeney since the 28d of December, 1908, and to make requisition to the quartermaster general for a headstone, as proposed.

BORROWED MONEY

Chairman Cheney informed the board of selectmen that he had negotiated a loan of $10,000 for the Town of Manchester as there was not enough cash in the treasury to pay current bills. The loan was given by the local bank on a bree-months' note of the Town of Manfrom January 11 to April 11, 1909. The chair explained that the local bank had agreed to pay two and onehalf per cent, interest on all deposits of the town in excess of $1,000. As the town will have as much as $50,000 on deposit in the bank in March and April, t was pointed out that the interest on this sum would more than pay for the interest on the borrowed money.

Chairman Cheney explained that the town's total borrowings for current expenses to date had been $45,000. Mr. Chency asked the board of selectmen to approve of his action in borrowing the $10 000, as indicated above. The necessary vote was passed in the affirm-
