HRONGS CROWD INTO BOSTON STORE TO AVAIL THEMSELVES OF OFFERINGS AT INVENTORY SALE

Store Grewded to Suffication Tuesday Hight at Close of Sale—Many Unable to Make Purchases Desired—Store Not Large Enough for Domands of Trade— Must Build Addition This Year.

The throng of purchasers at J. W. Hale's Boston Store Tuesday night was the largest ever seen on an occasion of that sort and equalled the holiday rush when at its prime.

The occasion of this large outpouring of eager shoppers was the fact that the Boston Store had been conducting an inventory sale and that Tuesday marked the closing night. The sale had been

South Manchester, Conn., says: "My husband suffered from kidney discuse for some time and could find nothing that would give him relief. He complained of a dull dragging pain in his back, made stooping or lifting almost impossible The action of the kidney secretions was also irregular and gave him much annoyance. When he saw Doan's Kidney Pills so highly advertised he procured a box from the Rapelye Drug Co., and began their use. This preparation proved to be the one that he so long needed. The first few doses relieved him and the contents of one box
