WANTED NAME CHANGED

M. J. Maguire petitioned the board of selectmen to change the name of Autumn street to some other that would not conflict with Adams street and suggested that the name "Downing" be substituted, or else the name "Water" street. Mr. Maguire held that he found many instances where letters had been misdirected and persons had been confused in locating people residing on Autumn street. Adams street is in the West part of town and Autumn street in the east, probably two and one half miles apart and that it caused great inonvenience when persons were so mis-
